The Trojan Horse Deborah Philips, Garry Whannel, 2013-08-29 The Trojan Horse traces the growth of commercial sponsorship in the public sphere since the 1960s its growing importance for the arts since 1980 and its spread into areas such as education and health The authors central argument is that the image of sponsorship as corporate benevolence has served to routinize and legitimate the presence of commerce within the public sector The central metaphor is of such sponsorship as a Trojan Horse helping to facilitate the hollowing out of the public sector by private agencies and private finance The authors place the study in the context of the more general colonization of the state by private capital and the challenge posed to the dominance of neo liberal economics by the recent global financial crisis After considering the passage from patronage to sponsorship and outlining the context of the post war public sector since 1945 it analyses sponsorship in relation to Thatcherism enterprise culture and the restructuring of public provision during the 1980s It goes on to examine the New Labour years and the ways in which sponsorship has paved the way for the increased use of private public partnerships and private finance initiatives within the public sector in the UK

Victorian Prism James Buzard, Joseph W. Childers, Eileen Gillooly, 2007 From the moment it opened on the first of May in the Crystal Palace in Hyde Park London the Great Exhibition of 1851 was one of the defining events of the Victorian period It stood not only as a visible symbol of British industrial and technological progress but as a figure for modernity a figure that has often been thought to convey one coherent message and vision of culture and society This volume examines the place occupied both materially and discursively by the Crystal Palace and other nineteenth and twentieth century exhibitions in the struggle to understand what it means to be modern Initiated in part by a number of conferences held in 2001 to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the Crystal Palace Victorian Prism provides new perspectives to historians literary critics art historians and others interested in how a large glass building in a London park could refract meaning from Caracas to Calcutta In its investigations of the ways of knowing and shaping the world that emerged during the planning and execution of this first world s fair Victorian Prism not only restores the multiplicity of experiences and other determining factors to our picture of the Great Exhibition it makes reevaluation of the exhibition and its legacies the occasion for reevaluating modernity itself in its broadest sense as the cultures potentialities and liabilities of the Enlightenment With essays by a number of leading scholars in their fields the collection as a whole focuses on how these exhibitions in attempting to define the cultures of their day incorporated a range of conflicting ideologies and agendas In doing so it offers a richer more complex understanding of the experience of modernity than we have previously acknowledged The volume also addresses the ways in which the cultural processes and tendencies brought together in these exhibitions have been refracted down to the present thus informing and complicating our own relationship to both modernity and postmodernity

The Regeneration of the Greenwich Peninsula Great Britain. National Audit Office, 2008 This report is a follow up to the NAO's 2005 report on the Regeneration of the Millennium Dome and associated land HC 178 session 2004 05 ISBN 9780102931662 The 2005 report examined the process for selling the Millennium Dome and associated land and the resulting deal and concluded that the resulting deal offered an integrated solution for the regeneration of the Greenwich Peninsula and offered the Government a sensible exit strategy from the Dome The development is still at an early stage and faces inherent risks and challenges which mean it is only possible to come to firm conclusions about early progress compared to the initial plans rather than on the longer term outcomes The report finds that The Dome has become a highly successful entertainment venue and a beacon for a new community on the Peninsula The wider redevelopment of the surrounding land has been less successful Some commercial and educational developments are underway earlier than planned initially The delivery of new housing has however fallen behind schedule It will be difficult for the housing programme to recover the lost ground to meet original targets because the rate of building required to do so is very demanding As a consequence of these delays the taxpayer's likely return from the redevelopment has fallen significantly The structure of the deal means that the delays have affected the taxpayer more than the private sector The Government should consider whether future deals can be structured to align better the interests of the public and private sectors Future as God's Gift David Fergusson, Marcel Sarot, 2005-03-01 This collection of writings by an international group of theologians is focused on the importance of Christian eschatology both to the life authority and hope of the Church and to contemporary life and thought in general You Do Not Talk About Fight Club Read Mercer Schuchardt, 2015-01-06 Pervasive and multidisciplinary this insightful exploration discusses how and why this seminal work developed and continues to grow such a cult following When Fight Club punched its way onto the scene a decade ago it provided an unprecedented glimpse into the American male's psyche and rapidly turned into a euphemism for a variety of things that should be just understood and not otherwise acknowledged Key to its success is the variety of lenses through which the story can be interpreted is it a story of male anxiety in a metrosexual world of ritual religion in a secular age of escape from totalitarian capitalism or the spiritual malaise induced by technologically oriented society Writers conspiracy theorists and philosophers are among those ready to talk about Fight Club's ability to be all these and more Time
