The Raid Ken Merkley,2007-01-29 After a long and complex police investigation into drugs and organized crime in three major Canadian cities police are able to make a number of significant arrests Soon clues surface that indicate political aides to two cabinet ministers in British Columbia may be implicated resulting in a combined police raid on the Legislature and the homes and offices of some of the province s most influential political organizers The raid is an unprecedented event that leads to more arrests Startling evidence is uncovered indicating that a major federal political party may have used the proceeds from drug sales to pay the membership fees for thousands of new party recruits Over time other criminal activities are unearthed including money laundering influence peddling election rigging and finally murder As the investigation escalates the combined resources of the RCMP and other major police forces in Victoria and Vancouver become increasingly challenged Recruited into the investigation almost by accident the impetuous and daring RCMP Corporal Tim Murphy moves from one escapade to another in an otherwise methodical pursuit to determine who is behind this shocking set of crimes Continually in trouble with his superior officers as a result of his impulsive hotheaded nature and less than orthodox methods Corporal Murphy nevertheless moves ever closer to identifying the mastermind behind this complex sequence of organized unlawful activities What he discovers is startling and could have significant and tragic ramifications for the province and perhaps the whole country
