The Necessity For Ruins And Other Topics:

The Necessity for Ruins, and Other Topics John Brinckerhoff Jackson, 1980 Jackson discussed the evolution of the development use and perception of landscape the space around us in the most general sense The title chapter examines the proliferation of historic parks and monuments and argues that American culture demands a three step formulation of history

Architecture and Civilization Michael H. Mitias, 1999 Ski Style Annie Gilbert Coleman, 2004 Coleman traces skiing from its Norse roots and Alpine influences through the utility of ski travel in the winter Rockies to the rise of Colorado resorts Much more than a history of the sport her work explains how the recreation industry sold the experience of skiing and created mythic mountain landscapes with real problems and a ski culture that exalts celebrity and status over the physical act of skiing Jacket Nature and Landscape Allen Carlson, 2009 The roots of environmental aesthetics reach back to the ideas of eighteenth century thinkers who found nature an ideal source of aesthetic experience Today having blossomed into a significant subfield of aesthetics environmental aesthetics studies and encourages the appreciation of not just natural environments but also human made and human modified landscapes Nature and Landscape is an important introduction to this rapidly growing area of aesthetic understanding and appreciation Allen Carlson begins by tracing the development of the field s historical background and then surveys contemporary positions on the aesthetics of nature such as scientific cognitivism which holds that certain kinds of scientific knowledge are necessary for a full appreciation of natural environments Carlson next turns to environments that have been created or changed by humans and the dilemmas that are posed by the appreciation of such landscapes He examines how to aesthetically appreciate a variety of urban and rural landscapes and concludes with a discussion of whether there is in general a correct way to aesthetically experience the environment Landscape and Memory in Post-Fascist Italian Film Giuliana Minghelli, 2014-06-11 This study argues that neorealism s visual genius is inseparable from its almost invisible relation to the Fascist past a connection inscribed in cinematic landscapes While largely a silent narrative neorealism s complex visual processing of two decades of Fascism remains the greatest cultural production in the service of memorialization and comprehension for a nation that had neither a Nuremberg nor a formal process of reconciliation Through her readings of canonical neorealist films Minghelli unearths the memorial strata of the neorealist image and investigates the complex historical charge that invests this cinema This book is both a formal analysis of the new conception of the cinematic image born from a crisis of memory and a reflection on the relation between cinema and memory Films discussed include Ossessione 1943 Pais 1946 Ladri di biciclette 1948 and Cronaca di un amore 1950 Haunting Ruins Chiara Calzana, Valentina Gamberi, 2025-03-01 Ruins rubble and decaying material can foster a more layered theory of time change and memory The seven ethnographic case studies in Haunting Ruins trace human engagements with the temporal forces of ruins which can trace the past and transform the present Conjuring environmental humanities the anthropology of history memory and archaeology this book delves into the complex influence of the past on the present and the future and urges scholars to consider ruins as things to think with White Heat Carroll W. Pursell, 1994 Technology has been called the art of the twentieth century It is the expression of everything that makes us human Our myths and rituals our fantasies and creativity all find expression in our technology The ability to forge tools by the fashioning of metal in its white heat state was preceded by the creation of tools in stone This was the first indication of humanity's capacity to shape and use the raw materials available to it It reached its peak in the industrial revolution of the nineteenth century and today its momentum can be seen in every part of our lives It is this combination of technological creativity and human passion which Carroll Pursell pursues in White Heat Professor Pursell explores technology not as a succession of gadgets and gizmos but as a study of how society's values are embedded in them Written to accompany a major television series and illustrated with some surprising and fascinating photographs his book reveals a new layer of meaning to the devices tools and machines which have been developed throughout human history Unreal Estate Robert De Gast, 1993 In Unreal Estate the photographs of Robert de Gast reveal what isn't so simple about the abandoned buildings of the Chesapeake's Eastern Shore His striking color photographs of ghostly houses and weathered details illustrate the powerful hold architecture has on us even when a building no longer serves its purpose Terra 2022 Leslie Rainer, Luis Fernando Guerrero Baca, Frank Matero, Lauren Meyer, 2025-04-22 Featuring a global compendium of sites buildings urban settlements and cultural landscapes this volume combines recent research with practical approaches to conservation of earthen architectural heritage Earthen architecture is one of the oldest forms of construction and is evidenced around the globe This volume gathers the research and presentations from Terra 2022 13th World Congress on Earthen Architectural Heritage which brought together in Santa Fe New Mexico 350 conservation professionals and practitioners from fifty two countries Seventy richly illustrated papers fifty seven in English and thirteen in Spanish address a range of conservation issues Abstracts are provided in both English and Spanish for each paper Themes covered include advances in research strategies for archaeological sites community based care and decision making cultural landscapes decorated surfaces education historic and modern buildings conservation history risks and vulnerabilities and traditional materials and practices Sections that draw on symposia held at the congress spotlight two recent architectural heritage initiatives the rehabilitation of an urban settlement by the AlUla Old Town and Oasis Conservation Project in Saudi Arabia and the conservation and management of eight monumental enclosure complexes at the Hopewell Ceremonial Earthworks in Ohio Of Rocks and Water Ömür Harmanşah, 2014-07-11 People are drawn to places where geology performs its miracles ice cold spring waters gushing from the rock mysterious caves which act as conduits for ancestors and divinities traveling back and forth to the underworld sacred bodies of water where communities make libations and offer sacrifices This volume presents a series of archaeological landscapes from the Iranian highlands to the Anatolian Plateau and from the Mediterranean borderlands to Mesoamerica Contributors all have a deep interest in the making and the long term history of unorthodox places of human interaction with the mineral world specifically the landscapes of rocks and water Working with rock reliefs sacred springs and lakes caves cairns ruins and other meaningful places they draw attention to the need for a rigorous field methodology and theoretical framework for working with such special places At a time when network models urban centered and macro scale perspectives dominate discussions of ancient landscapes this unusual volume takes us to remote unmappable places of cultural practice social imagination and political appropriation It offers not only a diverse set of case studies approaching small meaningful places in their special geological grounding but also suggests new methodologies and interpretive approaches to understand places and the processes of place making

Deep Locational Criticism Jason Finch, 2016-03-18 A lively series of spatial turns in literary studies since the 1990s give rise to this engaged and practical book devoted to the question of how to teach and study the relationship between all sorts of literature and all sorts of location Among the many concrete examples explored are texts created between the early seventeenth and the early twenty first centuries in genres ranging from stage drama and lyric poetry to television by way of several studies of fiction definable in a broad way as realist Writers and thinkers discussed include Michel de Certeau Edward Casey Gwendolyn Brooks Christina Rossetti Dickens J Hillis Miller Lynne Reid Banks Heidegger Shakespeare Thomas Middleton Thomas Dekker Stephen C Levinson Bernard Malamud E M Forster Thomas Burke and Samuel Beckett The book is underpinned by the philosophical topology of Jeff Malpas who insists that human life is necessarily and primarily located It is aimed at students and teachers of literary place at all university levels

Ruin Nation Megan Kate Nelson, 2012-05-15 During the Civil War cities houses forests and soldiers bodies were transformed into dead heaps of ruins novel sights in the southern landscape How did this happen and why And what did Americans northern and southern black and white male and female make of this proliferation of ruins Ruin Nation is the first book to bring together environmental and cultural histories to consider the evocative power of ruination as an imagined state an act of destruction and a process of change Megan Kate Nelson examines the narratives and images that Americans produced as they confronted the war's destructiveness Architectural ruins cities and houses dominated the stories that soldiers and civilians told about the savage behavior of men and the invasions of domestic privacy The ruins of living things trees and bodies also provoked discussion and debate People who witnessed forests and men being blown apart were plagued by anxieties about the impact of wartime technologies on nature and on individual identities The obliteration of cities houses trees and men was a shared experience Nelson shows that this is one of the ironies of the war's ruination in a time of the most extreme national divisiveness people found common ground as they considered the war's costs And yet very few of these ruins still exist suggesting that the destructive practices that dominated the experiences of Americans during the Civil War have been erased from our national consciousness

Everyday America Chris Wilson, Paul Erling Groth, 2003-03-03 A collection of seventeen essays examining the field of American cultural landscapes past and present The role of J B Jackson and his influence on the field is explored in many of them A Landscape of Architecture, History and Fiction Jonathan Hill, 2015-12-22 Architecture can be analogous to a history a fiction and a landscape We expect a history or a novel to be written in words but they can also be cast in concrete or seeded in soil The catalyst to this tradition was the simultaneous and interdependent emergence in the eighteenth century of new art forms the picturesque landscape the analytical history and the English novel Each of them instigated a creative and questioning response to empiricism s detailed investigation of subjective experience and the natural world and together they stimulated a design practice and lyrical environmentalism that profoundly influenced subsequent centuries Associating the changing natural world with journeys in self understanding and the design process with a visual and spatial autobiography this book describes journeys between London and the North Sea in successive centuries analysing an enduring and evolving tradition from the picturesque and romanticism to modernism Creative architects have often looked to the past to understand the present and imagine the future Twenty first century architects need to appreciate the shock of the old as well as the shock of the new Pedagogical Experiments in Architecture for a Changing Climate Tülay Atak, Luis

Callejas, Jonathan Scelsa, Jørgen Johan Tandberg, 2024-01-22 This book presents a series of pedagogical experiments translating climate science environmental humanities material research ecological practices into the architectural curriculum Balancing the science and humanities it exposes recent pedagogical experiments from renowned educators while also interrogating a designer s agency between science and speculation in the face of climate uncertainty The teaching experiments are presented across four sections Abstraction Organization Building and Narrative exposing core parts of an architect s education and how educators can simultaneously provide fundamental skills and constructive literacy while instigating environmental sensibilities Chapters cover issues such as an unstable hydrosphere water infrastructure remediating materials methods of disassembly and adaptive reuse as well as constructing new aesthetic categories of climate change and implementing oral histories of construction among many others Written and edited by expert design educators actively engaged in experimenting in new forms of pedagogy this book will be of great use to architecture instructors at all levels looking to renew their teaching practices to more directly address the climate emergency It will also appeal to those academics across the built environment interested in the ways design can affect and adapt to climate change Ghostly

Landscapes Patricia M. Keller, 2016-02-24 In Ghostly Landscapes Patricia M Keller analyses the aesthetics of haunting and the relationship between ideology and image production by revisiting twentieth century Spanish history through the camera s lens Through its vision she demonstrates how the traumatic losses of the Spanish Civil War and their systematic denial and burial during the fascist dictatorship have constituted fertile territory for the expressions of loss uncanny return and untimeliness that characterize the aesthetic presence of the ghost Examining fascist documentary newsreels countercultural art films from the Spanish New Wave and conceptual landscape photographs created since the transition to democracy Keller reveals how haunting serves to mourn loss redefine space and history and confirm the significance of lives and stories previously hidden or erased Her richly illustrated book constitutes a significant reevaluation of fascist and post fascist Spanish visual culture and a unique theorization of haunting as an aesthetic register inextricably connected to the visual and the landscape

A Waterloo County Album Stephanie Kirkwood Walker, 2002-10-01 Commended for the 2003 Honourable Mention for Superb Craftsmanship in Production The early settlers of Waterloo County Mennonites Germans and Scots built enterprising communities in a land of rivers rolling hills and fields Today the linked cities of Kitchener Waterloo and Cambridge are still surrounded by small towns with strong rural traditions This photographic history of the region contains 130 black and white images from as early as 1880 recording the cultural landscape the buildings parks markets fairs and parades Some of the photographs will tease your fancy with whispers of the pioneers spirit while others capture the energy of events and dare us to interpret the past

Immigrant Industry Anoma Pieris, Mirjana Lozanovska, Dr Alexandra Dellios, Andrew Saniga, 2024-08-02 After the end of the Second World War migrants were critical to the spatial making of modern Australia Major federally funded industries driving postwar nation building programs depended on the employment of large numbers of people who had been displaced by the war Directed to remote rural and urban industrial sites migrant labor and resettlement altered the nation's physical landscape providing Australia with its contemporary economic base While the immigrant contribution to nation building in cultural terms is well known its everyday spatial architectural and landscape transformations remain unexamined This book aims to bring to the foreground postwar industry and immigration to comprehensively document a uniquely Australian shaping of the built environment

Melancholy and the Landscape Jacky Bowring, 2016-07-07 Written as an advocacy of melancholy's value as part of landscape experience this book situates the concept within landscape's aesthetic traditions and reveals how it is a critical part of ethics and empathy With a history that extends back to ancient times melancholy has hovered at the edges of the appreciation of landscape including the aesthetic exertions of the eighteenth century Implicated in the more formal categories of the Sublime and the Picturesque melancholy captures the subtle condition of beautiful sadness The book proposes a range of conditions which are conducive to melancholy and presents examples from each including The Void The Uncanny Silence Shadows and Darkness Aura Liminality Fragments Leavings Submersion Weathering and Patina
