The Palmwine Drinkard English Edition:

Landscaping Postcoloniality. The Dissemination of Cameroon Anglophone Literature Joyce Ashuntantang, 2009

This is a foundational text on the production and dissemination of Anglophone Cameroon literature. The Republic of Cameroon is a bilingual country with English and French as the official languages. Ashuntantang shows that the pattern of production and dissemination of Anglophone Cameroon literature is not only framed by the minority status of English and English speaking Cameroonians within the Republic of Cameroon but is also a reflection of a postcolonial reality in Africa where mostly African literary texts published by western multi national corporations are assured wide international accessibility and readership. This book establishes that in spite of these setbacks Anglophone Cameroon writers have produced a corpus of work that has enriched the genres of prose, poetry and drama and that these texts deserve a wider readership.

The Palgrave Handbook of Literary Translation Jean Boase-Beier, Lina Fisher, Hiroko Furukawa, 2018-06-26

This Handbook offers a comprehensive and engaging overview of contemporary issues in Literary Translation research through in depth investigations of actual case studies of particular works, authors or translators. Leading researchers from across the globe discuss best practice problems and possibilities in the translation of poetry, novels, memoir and theatre. Divided into three sections, these illuminating analyses also address broad themes including translation style, the author-translator-reader relationship and relationships between national identity and literary translation. The case studies are drawn from languages and language varieties such as Catalan, Chinese, Dutch, English, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Nigerian English, Russian, Spanish, Scottish English and Turkish. The editors provide thorough introductory and concluding chapters which highlight the value of case study research and explore in detail the importance of the theory-practice link. Covering a wide range of topics, perspectives, methods, languages and geographies, this handbook will provide a valuable resource for researchers not only in Translation Studies but also in the related fields of Linguistics, Languages and Cultural Studies, Stylistics, Comparative Literature or Literary Studies.

Inarticulacy in Creative Writing Practice and Translation Judy Kendall, 2025-03-20. An investigation into the powerful effects occurring at the threshold between articulation and inarticulation in original and translated works, this book models how creative writing research practice processes products and theories can further academic thought. At the threshold of inarticulacy, language can be said to thicken and obscure the usual conditions of legibility or lexical meaning, becoming unfamiliar, flexible, incomplete, even absent. These thickening moments alter and enrich literary processes and texts to initiate a paradigm shift in composition, translation and reading experiences. Interrogating this shift from the viewpoints of writers, translators and readers, Judy Kendall draws on translation studies, literary theory, anthropology, philosophy and physics and more to examine the practices of Semantic Poetry Translation, code switching, made-up English, visual text, vital materiality and the material discursive. Breaking new ground with her enactment of the ways in which creative writing can take an active and productive lead in research enquiries.

Auteuring Nollywood Afolayan, Adeshina,2015-02-28 Beginning from an auteur standpoint this book interrogates extant cinematic re presentation of African and Nigerian postcolonial realities in Nollywood It makes a case using Kunle Afolayan s The Figurine for a critical space clearing gesture around the notion of a neo Nollywood which transcends the formulaic cinematic re presentation of African and Nigerian realities to embrace a visionary and philosophic rearticulation of the role of film making and of Nollywood in the Nigerian imagination The Idea of neo Nollywood and a visionary director therefore stands at the core of a cinematic production process that challenges disturbs and stimulates perceptions of current and future African identities

Translation Classics in Context Paul F. Bandia, James Hadley, Siobhán McElduff, 2024-07-31 Translation Classics in Context carefully considers the relationship between translation and the classics. It presents readers with revelatory and insightful case studies that investigate translations produced as part of nexuses of colonial resistance and liberation across Africa and in Ireland; translations of novels and folklore collections that influence not just other fictions but stage productions and entire historical disciplines; struggles over Ukrainian and Russian literature and how it is shaped and transferred; and the role of the academy and the curriculum in creating notions of classic translations. Along the way it covers oral poetry, saints, scholars, Walter Scott and Jules Verne, not to mention Leo Tolstoy and the Corpse Bride making her way from folklore to Frankenstein and into the world of Disney animation. Contributors are all leading scholars and the book is accessible and engaging, assuming no specialist knowledge.
