Rhetoric of the Married Laity in Late Antiquity Mark D. Ellison, 2023-12-11 This study examines third and fourth century portraits of married Christians and associated images reading them as visual rhetoric in early Christian conversations about marriage and celibacy and recovering lay perspectives underrepresented or missing in literary sources Historians of early Christianity have grown increasingly aware that written sources display an enthusiasm for asceticism and sexual renunciation that was far from representative of the lives of most early Christians. Often called a silent majority, the married laity in fact left behind a significant body of work in the material record. Particularly in and around Rome, they commissioned and used such objects as sarcophagi, paintings, glass vessels, finger rings, luxury silver, other jewellery, items, gems, and seals that bore their portraits and other iconographic forms of self-representation. This study is the first to undertake a sustained exploration of these material sources in the context of early Christian discourses and practices related to marriage, sexuality, and celibacy. Reading this visual evidence increases understanding of the population who created it, the religious commitments they asserted, and the comparatively moderate forms of piety they set forth as meritorious alternatives to the ascetic ideal. In their visual rhetoric, these artifacts and images comprise additional voices in Late Antique conversations about idealized ways of Christian life and ultimately provide a fuller picture of the early Christian world. Plentifully illustrated with photographs and drawings, this volume provides readers access to primary material evidence. Such evidence, like textual sources, requires critical interpretation; this study sets forth a careful methodology for iconographic analysis and applies it to identify the potential intentions of patrons and artists and the perceptions of viewers. It compares iconography to literary sources and ritual practices as part of the interpretive process, clarifying the ways images had a rhetorical edge and contributed to larger conversations. Accessibly written, The Visual Rhetoric of the Married Laity in Late Antiquity is of interest to students and scholars working on Late Antiquity, early Christian and late Roman social history, marriage, and celibacy in early Christianity, and early Christian Roman and Byzantine art.

The Earl's Pregnant Bride Christine Rimmer, 2014-09-16 THE STICK TURNED ROYAL BLUE And now the princess is in a pickle. Because the night that Genevra Bravo Calabretti and the new Earl of Hartmore Rafael DeValery turned to each other, it was for comfort upon the death of his brother, the man who was about to propose to Genny. It was not supposed to change their lives forever. But it had. For Rafe, it cemented his awareness that he'd been in love with Genevra since forever. And for Genny, it made her realize that Rafe was not the second chance brother but the one who'd held her heart all along. Now all she had to do was convince him of that. Hopefully before the new heirless to the estate arrived.
