World Literature Reader Theo D'haen, César Domínguez, Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, 2012-06 World Literature is an increasingly influential subject in literary studies which has led to the re framing of contemporary ideas of national literatures language and translation World Literature A Reader brings together thirty essential readings which display the theoretical foundations of the subject as well as showing its conceptual development over a two hundred year period The book features an illuminating introduction to the subject with suggested reading paths to help readers navigate through the materials texts exploring key themes such as globalization cosmopolitanism post trans nationalism and translation and nationalism writings by major figures including J W Goethe Karl Marx Friedrich Engels Longxi Zhao David Damrosch Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Pascale Casanova and Milan Kundera The early explorations of the meaning of Weltliteratur are introduced while twenty first century interpretations by leading scholars today show the latest critical developments in the field The editors offer readers the ideal introduction to the theories and debates surrounding the impact of this crucial area on the modern literary landscape

On Anthologies Jeffrey R. Di Leo, 2004-01-01 Over the course of the past twenty five years anthologies have shifted from playing a relatively minor role in academic culture to a position of dominance The essays in this collection explore the significant intellectual economic political pedagogical and creative resonance of anthologies through all levels of academic life They show that anthologies have consequences and are grounded in commitments Striving to articulate these consequences and commitments is a priority in higher education today Most of the contributors to this volume are editors of anthologies and they draw on personal experiences to provide a rare glimpse into the economics and logic of anthology publication Their essays illustrate the ways in which editing an anthology involves negotiation and compromise between intellectual ideal and realistic practice On Anthologies includes discussion of a wide range of anthologies used and produced by teachers and scholars Though the emphasis is on literature and theory anthologies the insights in this volume speak to professionals in all areas of academic life Collectively these essays establish the foundation for continuing critical analysis of anthology production and consumption in all disciplines

Dutch Interbellum Canons and World Literature A. Roland Holst, M. Nijhoff, J. Slauerhoff Theo D'haen, 2023-09-15 This text takes a wholly new look at a major early twentieth century Dutch poet and novelist from the perspective of world literature situating his work in both a national and a world literary context as measured against contemporaries and near contemporaries such as Conrad Pound Brecht Segalen and Malraux Exemplifying how an author from a minor literature may be a major world author this book considers the debates within World Literature regarding the classification of literatures as major and minor canon formation within Dutch literature Slauerhoff s position in the Dutch tradition as well as his contribution to world literature particularly focusing on his East Asian poems his East Asian novels and stories and his poetry and prose set in Latin America This book is a key read for scholars and students of comparative literature world literature European literature and Dutch literature Lucid in style innovative in approach surprisingly fresh qua topic this book opens new horizons for literary studies

Classical World

Literatures Wiebke Denecke, 2014 Ever since Karl Jaspers's axial age paradigm there have been a number of influential studies comparing ancient East Asian and Greco Roman history and culture However to date there has been no comparative study involving multiple literary traditions in these cultural spheres This book compares the dynamics between the younger literary cultures of Japan and Rome and the literatures of their venerable predecessors China and Greece How were writers of the younger cultures of Rome and Japan affected by the presence of an older reference culture whose sophistication they admired even as they anxiously strove to assert their own distinctive identity How did they tackle the challenge of adopting the reference culture's literary genres rhetorical refinement and conceptual vocabulary for writing texts in different languages and within distinct political and cultural contexts Classical World Literatures captures the striking similarities between the ways early Japanese authors wrote their own literature through and against the literary precedents of China and the ways Latin writers engaged and contested Greek precedents But it also brings to light suggestive divergences that are rooted in geopolitical linguistic sociohistorical and aesthetic differences between early Japanese and Roman literary cultures Proposing a methodology of deep comparison for the cross cultural comparison of premodern literary cultures and calling for an expansion of world literature debates into the ancient and medieval worlds Classical World Literatures is both a theoretical intervention and an invitation to read and re read four major literary traditions in an innovative and illuminating light
