The Nagorno Karabakh Conflict A Legal Analysis:

The Nagorno-Karabakh Conflict Heiko Krüger, 2010-07-30 The Caucasus region situated on a natural isthmus between the Black Sea and the Caspian Sea has long been a border zone and a melting pot for a diverse range of cultures and peoples. As the intersection between Europe and Asia and also between Russia and the Ottoman and Persian Empires it has featured in the strategic plans of numerous great powers over the centuries. Given its abundance of natural resources, the ready-made raw material transport routes to Europe and its enduring position on the edge of Russia, nothing has changed to the present day. The tremendous development opportunities of the Caucasian region are being tarnished by unresolved territorial conflicts that put a continual and regionally balanced growth, sustained democratisation and long-term stability at risk. These conflicts, which all erupted with the dissolution of the Soviet Union, include the separatist movements in Abkhazia, Chechnya, Nagorno Karabakh and South Ossetia. The war over South Ossetia, which erupted between Russia and Georgia in August 2008, spelt out the explosive potential still inherent in these conflicts. Russia's Border Wars and Frozen Conflicts James J. Coyle, 2017-07-03 This book examines the origins and execution of Russian military and political activities in Moldova, Georgia, Ukraine and Azerbaijan. Using a realist perspective, the author concludes that there are substantial similarities in the four case studies: Russian support for minority separatist movements; conflict; Russian intervention as peacekeepers; Russian control over the diplomatic process to prevent resolution of the conflict; and a perpetuation of Russian presence in the area. The author places the conflicts in the context of international law and nationalism theory. The Use of Armed Force in Occupied Territory Marco Longobardo, 2018-10-18 Explores the use of armed force in occupied territory under different international law branches. The Nagorno-Karabakh Conflict M. Hakan Yavuz, Michael Gunter, 2022-07-01 This book presents a comprehensive overview of the Nagorno Karabakh conflict, the long-running dispute between Armenia and Azerbaijan over the Armenian majority region of Azerbaijan. It outlines the historical development of the dispute, explores the political and social aspects of the conflict examines the wars over the territory including the war of 2020 which resulted in a significant Azerbaijani victory and discusses the international dimensions

The Karabakh Conflict Between Armenia and Azerbaijan M. Hakan Yavuz, Michael M. Gunter, 2022-11-29 This book focuses on Post Soviet ethnic conflicts and Russia's involvement in them In light of its significant importance for general ethnic conflict specifically the post Soviet Caucasus along with the most recent war just fought over the area from September November 2020 this book appropriately argues that it is time to reconsider Karabakh This project deals with the historical social and political aspects of the Karabakh issue regarding its origins development and the current status of the conflict subsequent to the war in the autumn of 2020 Thus the main themes will stress these points as well as the importance of the Karabakh issue for the future by considering its precedents and implications for other secessionist wars This book also explores how such wars begin and end the international legal precedents of self determination versus territorial integrity its implications for post Soviet developments and conflicts and the latest successful weapons developments lessons from the recent war involving drones among others such as Azerbaijan's rich oil reserves

Russia and the Right to Self-determination in the Post-Soviet Space Johannes Socher, 2021 This book shows that Russia has a distinct approach to the right to self determination that sets it apart from Western States and from Soviet state practice Drawing on analysis of seven secessionist conflicts and a detailed study of Russian sources it traces how Russian engagement with self determination has changed over the past three decades

Societies in Transition Carolina Rehrmann, Rafael Biermann, Phillip Tolliday, 2020-01-20 Since the end of the Cold War the collapse of the Soviet Union and the dissolution of Yugoslavia the Mediterranean and Black Sea regions have been faced with multiple upheavals of interethnic violence bloody secessions and ethnic cleansing Up to the present both regions are confronted with unresolved border minority and security issues matters of recognition protracted traumata and claims for justice After the fall of the iron curtain simmering ethnic tensions turned into hot wars that created new states new power political hierarchies and a heritage of violence Reaching back to the early 1990s several international and national transitional justice measures have been applied to face these heritages and lay the foundations for a common future For the former Yugoslavia they range from broad criminal trials to a series of restorative justice mechanisms in the North and South Caucasus they encompass numerous mediation measures and primarily restorative justice efforts The present volume is concerned with strategies of conflict resolution and prevention subsumed under the concept of reconciliation It aims at understanding the socio emotional root causes of political cleavages and daily realities of post conflict societies especially regarding the impact of competing narratives and unprocessed pasts on exclusive identities and strategic political choices Applying reconciliation theory insights from collective memory and transitional justice to a series of selected field studies it sheds light on the origins of interethnic violence aims at finding explanations for the fact that many of the above mentioned conflicts have become intractable and discusses the chances and challenges for transforming interests emotions perspectives roles and identities between and within the respective societies

Gangsters and Other Statesmen Danilo Mandić, 2020-12 How global organized crime shapes the politics of borders in modern conflicts Separatism has been on the rise across the world since the end of the Cold War dividing countries through political strife ethnic conflict and civil war and redrawing the political map Gangsters and Other Statesmen examines the role transnational mafias play in the success and failure of separatist movements challenging conventional wisdom about the interrelation of organized crime with peacebuilding nationalism and state making Danilo Mandić conducted fieldwork in the disputed territories of Kosovo and South Ossetia talking to mobsters separatists and policymakers in war zones and along major smuggling routes In this timely and provocative book he demonstrates how globalized mafias shape the politics of borders in torn states shedding critical light on an autonomous nonstate actor that has been largely sidelined by considerations of geopolitics state centered agency and ethnonationalism Blending extensive archival sleuthing and original ethnographic data with insights from sociology and other disciplines Mandić argues that organized crime can be a fateful determinant of state capacity separatist success and ethnic conflict Putting mafias at the center of global processes of separatism and territorial consolidation Gangsters and Other Statesmen raises vital questions and urges reconsideration of a host of separatist cases in West Africa the Middle East and East Europe Modernism in Settings Ramona

Simuț, 2024-11-26 This book is analytical and often critical about the subject it investigates including literary and cultural aesthetics social and political literatures national identity speeches and the psychoanalytic theory of language Modernism in Settings attempts to reevaluate some important debates in those fields either from the 19th 20th centuries or otherwise Debates at that at the time often failed to take into consideration their full philosophical social theological or political implications The book is primarily aimed at teachers and researchers interested in issues related to modernism within humanities and cultural studies It discusses works by writers including James Joyce and Edgar Allan Poe and philosophers and critics including Julia Kristeva and Wolf Lepenies and covers issues including feminism technology and psychoanalysis

Secession in International Law with a Special Reference to the Post-Soviet Space Júlia Miklasová, 2024-08-19 The open access publication of this book has been published with the support of the Swiss National Science Foundation International law is increasing in relevance to the topic of secession This book demonstrates that if a secessionist entity's effectiveness is achieved in violation of peremptory norms the emergence of statehood is precluded thereby challenging a classical view of secession as purely factual and meta legal Dr J lia Miklasov coins the term illegal secessionist entity demonstrates the pervasive effects of the original illegality on the subsequent relations of such entities purported diplomatic treaty economic relations acts and laws and outlines the overlapping regimes of the law of occupation human rights law and duty of non recognition Post Soviet secessionist entities result from an illegal use of force They are thus prohibited from becoming States and further consequences of their illegality apply Nagorno-Karabakh T. J. Petrowski, 2022-09-08 The Azerbaijani attack on the de facto independent Republic of Artsakh formerly the Nagorno Karabakh Republic in September 2020 shattered the illusion that this conflict is frozen The forty four day war in 2020 was the bloodiest outbreak of violence over the separatist region since the conflict began in the late 1980s and threatened to embroil Turkey and Russia in a dangerous proxy war in the volatile South Caucasus Despite the publication of several works on the conflict since the 1990s many aspects of the conflict remain poorly understood or distorted in Western scholarship due to US NATO political influence Are the origins of the conflict found in Soviet nationalities policy and Joseph Stalin s divide and rule methods Do the Armenians in Artsakh have a right to self determination as enshrined in treaty and customary international law What role do Russia and Turkey have in the conflict Did Kosovo s 2008 declaration of independence establish a precedent for Artsakh and other separatist states such as Abkhazia and South Ossetia By breaking with the dominant US NATO political paradigm this book strives to answer these and many other questions to provide a long overdue reassessment of the Armenian Azerbaijani Conflict

Self-determination and Secession in International Law Christian Walter, Antje von Ungern-Sternberg, Kavus Abushov, 2014 Peoples and minorities in many parts of the world assert a right to self determination autonomy and even secession from a state which naturally conflicts with that state s sovereignty and territorial integrity The right of a people to self determination and secession has existed as a concept within international law since the American Declaration of Independence in 1776 but the exact definition of these concepts and the conditions required for their application remain unclear The Advisory Opinion of the International Court of Justice concerning the Declaration of Independency of Kosovo 2010 which held that the Kosovo declaration of independence was not in violation of international law has only led to further questions This book takes four conflicts in the post Soviet Commonwealth of Independent States CIS as a starting point for examining the current state of the law of self determination and secession Four entities Transnistria Moldova South Ossetia Abkhazia both Georgia and Nagorno Karabakh Armenia claim to be entitled not only to self determination but also to secession from their mother state For this entitlement they rely on historic affiliations and on charges of discrimination and massive human rights violations committed by their mother state This book sets out its analysis of these critical issue in three parts providing a detailed understanding of the principles of international law on which they rely The first part sets out the contours and meaning of self determination and secession including an overall assessment of secession within the Commonwealth of Independent States The second section provides case studies investigating the events in Transnistria South Ossetia Abkhazia and Nagorno Karabach in greater detail The third and final section extends the scope of the examination providing a comparative analysis of similar conflicts involving questions of self determination and secession in Kosovo Western Sahara and Eritrea

Ilham: Portrait of a President Graeme H. Wilson, 2013-04-17 In October 2003 Ilham Aliyev became President of Azerbaijan After a career as a scholar and historian businessman and oil executive his sudden rise to political power caught many by surprise Yet eight years on Azerbaijan is on the crest of an economic wave despite the global recession The newly independent nation is building a robust civil society democracy has taken root poverty rates have dropped dramatically and Azerbaijan is winning international plaudits for transparency and good governance

Ilham Portrait of a President is the first English language biography of this intriguing statesman

Contested Territories and International Law Kamal Makili-Aliyev, 2019-10-14 This book considers the possibilities for resolution of the Nagorno Karabakh Conflict in the context of comparative international law The armed conflict between Armenia and Azerbaijan over the territory of the Nagorno Karabakh has been on the peace and security agenda since the dissolution of the Soviet Union This volume draws parallels with a similar situation between Sweden and Finland over sovereignty of the Aland Islands in the early 20th century Resolved in 1921 it is argued that this represents a model autonomy solution for territorial conflicts that include questions of territorial integrity self determination and minority rights The book compares both conflict situations from the international law perspective finding both commonalities and dissimilarities It advances the application of the solution found in the Aland Islands precedent as a model for the resolution of the Nagorno Karabakh Conflict and provides appropriate recommendations for its implementation The book will be of interest to academics researchers and policymakers in the areas of international law and security conflict resolution and international relations The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Secessionist Entities and International Law Benedikt C. Harzl, 2025-03-20 This book examines secessionist entities that arose during and after the dissolution process of the USSR and considers them as legal subjects in their own right By employing a novel and more innovative approach the agency of these subjects otherwise often ignored or disregarded is taken into account Drawing on the cases of the South Caucasus the author suggests going beyond the binary concept of statehood and traditional notions of sovereignty He advocates embracing an inclusive reading of international law which enables to foster creative ambiguity vis vis these entities as means of conflict transformation

International Law, Conventions and Justice David A. Frenkel, 2011 The articles are based on selected presentations at International Conferences on Law organized by the Athens Institute for Education and Research ATINER held in Athens Greece
