Laurel Weldon, 2013-12-09 Violence against women is one of the most insidious social ills facing the world today Yet governmental response is inconsistent ranging from dismissal to aggressive implementation of policies and programs to combat the problem In her comparative study of thirty six democratic governments Laurel Weldon examines the root causes and consequences of the differences in public policy from Northern Europe to Latin America She reveals that factors that often influence the development of social policies do not determine policies on violence against women Neither economic level religion region nor the number of women in government determine governmental responsiveness to this problem Weldon demonstrates for example that Nordic governments take no more action to combat violence against women than Latin American governments even though the Swedish welfare state is often considered a leader in social policy particularly with regard to women s issues Instead the presence of independently organized active women s movements plays a greater role in placing violence against women on the public agenda The breadth and scope of governmental response is greatly enhanced by the presence of an office dedicated to promoting women s status Weldon closes with practical lessons and insights to improve government action on violence against women and other important issues of social justice and democracy Transportation Statistics Annual Report (1997) Marsha Fenn, 1998-12 Reports on the state of U S transportation system at two levels Provides a statistical and interpretive survey of the system its physical characteristics economic attributes aspects of its use and performance and the scale and severity of unintended consequences of transportation such as fatalities and injuries oil import dependency and environment impacts Explores in detail the performance of the system from the perspective Charts and tables References List of acronyms A Europe of Rights Helen Keller, Alec Stone Sweet, 2008 In this book a team of distinguished scholars trace and evaluate comparatively the impact of the ECHR and the European Court of Human Rights on law and politics in eighteen national systems Ireland UK France Germany Italy Spain Belgium Netherlands Norway Sweden Greece Turkey Russia Ukraine Poland Slovakia and Austria Switzerland Although the Court's jurisprudence has provoked significant structural procedural and policy innovation in every State examined its impact varies widely across States and legal domains The book charts this variation and seeks to explain it Across Europe national officials in governments legislatures and judiciaries have chosen to incorporate the ECHR into domestic law and they have developed a host of mechanisms designed to adapt the national legal system to the ECHR as it evolves But how and why State actors have done so varies in important ways and these differences heavily determine the relative status and effectiveness of Convention rights in national systems Although problems persist the book shows that national officials are gradually but inexorably being socialized into a Europe of rights a unique transnational legal space now developing its own logics of political and juridical legitimacy BOOK JACKET      Proof, Evidentiary Assessment and

Credibility in Asylum Procedures Gregor Noll, 2005-03-01 Today a majority of asylum cases are arguably decided on the basis of evidentiary assessment rather than issues of material law Although the EU wide Common European Asylum System purports to harmonise domestic practices at a minimum level it fails to offer remedies for this crucial issue which poses challenges for practitioners and academics alike Without a coherent approach to evidentiary assessment asylum law will remain fragmented and open to discretionary excess Up to now academic research has not addressed issues of proof and credibility in the asylum procedure to an extent reflecting its practical importance This edited volume attempts to fill the void Academic experts on the theory of evidence international criminal law human rights law refugee law sociology of law and psychology have contributed chapters exploring both empirical and normative dimensions of evidentiary assessment Drawing on the results of a 12 month research project within the framework of the Refugee Research Programme and of three interdisciplinary expert conferences held at the Danish Centre for Human Rights Copenhagen the Institute for International Integration Studies Dublin and the Faculty of Law Lund this volume sets new parameters for an informed debate on evidence in asylum cases      Global Report on Crime and Justice Graeme R. Newman, 1999 Research and data gathered by the UN

Centre for International Crime Prevention The work combines a wealth of information about crime and justice from UN member states and beyond and presents emerging crime trends and operations of criminal justice systems on a comparative basis      Corporate Governance and Economic Performance Klaus Gugler, 2001 Corporate governance has time and again been the subject of extensive scrutiny and controversy Much of the debate of the 1960s and 1970s focused on the managerial corporation in the USA and the UK inspired by the seminal work of Berle and Means 1932 The separation of ownership from control has been blamed for spectacular business failures While there is ample evidence about corporate governance and performance in the USA and the UK very little is known about the functioning of corporate governance elsewhere Corporate Governance and Economic Performance presents evidence about corporate governance and performance in a large number of countries It is the result of a collective research effort by the members of the European Corporate Governance Network ECGN which brought together country teams familiar with the language and corporate culture of their respective countries The volume focuses on Austria Belgium Germany France Italy Japan the Netherlands Spain Turkey the United Kingdom and the United States While the owner manager conflict appears to dominate in the USA and the UK the large small shareholder conflict is important in Continental Europe Based on this evidence the authors derive important policy implications for capital market reform in Europe European Social Charter Council of Europe. Croquet,2016-01-12 The aim of this monograph is to analyze how the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda and the International Criminal Court have resorted to proportionality and other limitation techniques when placing implied external limits upon the exercise of substantive and procedural human rights enjoyed by the accused and other actors affected by international criminal proceedings Implied external limits in this context are defined as those limits that override the exercise of a human right on public interest grounds or on grounds relating to competing human rights and that either fall outside the scope of a limitation qualification clause of an international criminal court s internal legal instruments or go beyond its express and ordinary terms The present monograph will point to various sources of legal uncertainty which international criminal courts have generated in the limitation process of those human rights relevant to international criminal proceedings and to the definition of international crimes The monograph will examine the relation between human rights limitations on human rights standards and proportionality under international criminal procedural law and international criminal law understood substantively in light of the limitation and proportionality practices of international human rights monitoring bodies

Recent Trends in U.S. Services Trade, 2000 Annual Report, Inv. 332-345 , Global Environment Outlook 2000

United Nations Environment Programme (Unep),2013-11-05 The continued poverty of the majority of the planet's inhabitants and excessive consumption by the minority are the two major causes of environmental degradation. The present course is unsustainable and postponing action is no longer an option. Inspired political leadership and intense cooperation across all regions and sectors will be needed to put both existing and new policy instruments to work. From the Synthesis Global Environment Outlook 2000 GEO 2000 is a comprehensive and authoritative review and analysis of environmental conditions around the world. It is the flagship publication of the world's leading environmental organization, the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), and is based on information provided by more than 30 regional and international collaborating centres. The book presents a region-by-region analysis of the state of the world's environment, highlighting key global concerns and making recommendations for policy action. The regions covered include Africa, Asia, and the Pacific, Europe, and Central Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean, North America, West Asia, and the Polar Areas. Chapter 1, Global Perspectives, describes the main drivers of environmental change, such as the economy, population growth, political organization, and regionalization, as well as potential impacts of recent global developments, including the growth of the consumer culture, trade, and international debt. Chapter 2, The State of the Environment, provides a global and region-by-region overview of the environment at the end of the second millennium. The chapter covers global issues such as ozone, climate change, El Niño, and nitrogen loading, and universal issues of land and food, forests, biodiversity, freshwater, marine, and coastal areas, atmosphere, and urban areas. Chapter 3, Policy Responses, reviews the broad range of policy instruments and responses being used to address environmental issues, including multilateral environmental agreements, and analyses the difficulties of compliance, implementation, and assessment. Chapter 4, Future Perspectives, looks at environmental issues that will require priority attention in the 21st century and some alternative policy options that could be used in the regions. Chapter 5, Outlook and Recommendations, makes recommendations for future action based on the environmental legacy left by past and present policy and management systems. GEO 2000 will be the benchmark reference and guide to the state of the global environment. Written in clear, non-technical language and supported throughout by informative graphics and tables, it is essential reading for all those involved in environmental policy making, implementation, and assessment, and for researchers and students of regional and global environmental issues. Originally published in 1999.

The Child and the European Convention on Human Rights Ursula Kilkelly,2024-11-01 The European Convention on Human Rights is the most successful system for the enforcement of human rights in the world. However, to date, its full potential for protecting children's rights has not been explored, as attention has focused on the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child. This unique book provides the first analysis of the extensive case law of the Commission and the Court of Human Rights on all issues concerning children and their rights. This study is important as a study of the regional protection of children's rights and, moreover, the case law itself can be directly applied in the legal system of nearly every European country, including the UK.

The book includes chapters on the rights of the child under the European Convention on Human Rights in relation to education protection from abuse the right to identity child care juvenile justice health care and immigration and the family It also explores the potential of the Strasbourg mechanism for the protection of children s rights and thus provides a practical and vital guide to the study and use of the European Convention in the broad area of children s rights     Recent Trends in U.S. Services Trade, 2001 Annual Report, Inv. 332-345 ,     Significant Findings from Full-scale Accelerated Pavement Testing Frederick Hugo,Amy Epps Martin,National Cooperative Highway Research Program,2004 TRB s National Cooperative Highway Research Program NCHRP Synthesis 325 Significant Findings from Full Scale Accelerated Pavement Testing documents and summarizes the findings from the various experimental activities associated with full scale accelerated pavement testing programs     Global Environment Outlook 2000 United Nations Environment Programme,1999 This volume provides a comprehensive and detailed analysis of the conditions of the global environment highlighting key global concerns and making recommendations for policy action
