The Panza Monologues:

The Panza Monologues Virginia Grise, Irma Mayorga, 2014-01-06 The Panza Monologues script also features stories contributed by Barbara Renaud Gonzalez Petra A Mata and Maria R Salazar Theatre History Studies 2016, Vol. 35 Sara Freeman, 2016-12-06 Rosemarie K Bank and Michal Kobialka eds Theatre Performance Historiography Time Space The Revolution Will Be Improvised Elizabeth Rodriguez Fielder, 2024-10-22 The Matter Reviewed by Danny Devlin Revolution Will Be Improvised The Intimacy of Cultural Activism traces intimate encounters between activists and local people of the civil rights movement through an archive of Black and Brown avant gardism In the 1960s Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee SNCC activists engaged with people of color working in poor communities to experiment with creative approaches to liberation through theater media storytelling and craft making With a dearth of resources and an abundance of urgency SNCC activists improvised new methods of engaging with communities that created possibilities for unexpected encounters through programs such as The Free Southern Theater El Teatro Campesino and the Poor People s Corporation Reading the output of these programs Elizabeth Rodriguez Fielder argues that intimacy making became an extension of participatory democracy In doing so Rodriguez Fielder supplants the success failure binary for understanding social movements focusing instead on how care work aligns with creative production The Revolution Will Be Improvised returns to improvisation s roots in economic and social necessity and locates it as a core tenet of the aesthetics of obligation where a commitment to others drives the production and result of creative work. Thus this book puts forward a methodology to explore the improvised often ephemeral works of art activism Calling the Soul Back Christina Garcia Lopez, 2019-04-02 Spirituality has consistently been present in the political and cultural counternarratives of Chicanx literature Calling the Soul Back focuses on the embodied aspects of a spirituality integrating body mind and soul Centering the relationship between embodiment and literary narrative Christina Garcia Lopez shows narrative as healing work through which writers and readers ritually call back the soul one s unique immaterial essence into union with the body counteracting the wounding fragmentation that emerged out of colonization and imperialism These readings feature both underanalyzed and more popular works by pivotal writers such as Gloria Anzald a Sandra Cisneros and Rudolfo Anaya in addition to works by less commonly acknowledged authors Calling the Soul Back explores the spiritual and ancestral knowledge offered in narratives of bodies in trauma bodies engaged in ritual grieving bodies bodies immersed in and becoming part of nature and dreaming bodies Reading across narrative nonfiction performative monologue short fiction fables illustrated children s books and a novel Garcia Lopez asks how these narratives draw on the embodied intersections of ways of knowing and being to shift readers consciousness regarding relationships to space time and natural environments Using an interdisciplinary approach Calling the Soul Back draws on literary and Chicanx studies scholars as well as those in religious studies feminist studies sociology environmental studies philosophy and Indigenous studies to reveal narrative s healing potential to bring the soul into balance with the body and mind Teaching Late-Twentieth-Century Mexicana and Chicana Writers Elizabeth Coonrod Martínez, 2020-12-15 Mexicana and Chicana authors from the late 1970s to the turn of the century helped overturn the patriarchal literary culture and mores of their time This landmark volume acquaints readers with the provocative at times defiant yet subtle discourses of this important generation of writers and explains the influences and historical contexts that shaped their work Until now little criticism has been published about these important works Addressing this oversight Teaching Late Twentieth Century Mexicana and Chicana Writers starts with essays on Mexicana and Chicana authors It then features essays on specific teaching strategies suitable for literature surveys and courses in cultural studies Latino studies interdisciplinary and comparative studies humanities and general education that aim to explore the intersectionalities represented in these works Experienced teachers offer guidance on using these works to introduce students to border studies transnational studies sexuality studies disability studies contemporary Mexican history and Latino history in the United States the history of social movements and concepts of race and gender Radical Health Julie Avril Minich, 2023-09-25 In Radical Health Julie Avril Minich examines the potential of Latinx expressive culture to intervene in contemporary health politics elaborating how Latinx artists have critiqued ideologies of health that frame wellbeing in terms of personal behavior Within this framework poor health obesity asthma diabetes STIs addiction and high risk pregnancies is attributed to irresponsible lifestyle choices among the racialized poor Countering this Latinx writers and visual artists envision health not as individual duty but as communal responsibility Bringing a disability justice approach to questions of health access and equity Minich locates a concept of radical health within the work of Latinx artists including the poetry of Rafael Campo the music of Hurray for the Riff Raff the fiction of Angie Cruz and the performance art of Virginia Grise Radical health operates as a modality that both challenges the stigma of unhealth and protests the social conditions that give rise to racial health disparities Elaborating on this modality Minich claims a critical role for Latinx artists in addressing the structural racism in public health Welcome to Oxnard Cristina Herrera, 2024-07-15 Michele Serros 1966 2015 is widely known for her groundbreaking book Chicana Falsa and Other Stories of Death Identity and Oxnard Despite her status as a major figure in Chicanx literature no scholar has written a book length examination of her body of poetry fiction and nonfiction until now Cristina Herrera also from Oxnard weaves in history autoethnography and literary analysis to explore Chicana adolescence and young womanhood with a focus on place making Factoring in location region and landscape Herrera asks what it means to grow up Chicana in settings that carry centuries of colonial violence segregation and everyday racism against Mexican American communities She contends that Serros used her hometown to broaden understandings of who and what constitutes Chicanx communities and identities By reading Serros s work in tandem with her lived experience in the same setting Herrera uncovers moments of adolescent subjectivity that could only be vocalized and constructed within this particular locale Herrera pushes against the tendency to separate the author from the text and argues for a spatial
