CHAPTER 1 Section 1

Reading Comprehension 3

1. Population; the people who live within the boundaries of the state
2. Territory; land with known and recognized boundaries
3. Sovereignty; the supreme and absolute power within a state's territory to decide its own foreign and domestic policies
4. Government; the institution through which society makes and enforces public policies
5. Force theory; the state was born of force, when one person or a small group gained control over people in an area and forced them to submit to that person's or group's rule.
6. Evolutionary theory; the state evolved from early families that united to form clans. Later, clans united to form tribes. As tribes settled into agricultural groups over time, they formed states.
7. Divine right theory; God created the state and gave a chosen few the right to rule.
8. Social contract theory; people voluntarily agreed to create a state and give to the government just enough power to promote the safety and well-being of all. Government exists to serve the will of the people, and the people are the sole source of political power.
