Our territory Okay Okay I said and nodded at the others and at Lazaro twice we d been in this situation before and he always wanted to play chicken Slowly everyone did it the red dots never wavering the rain starting to rattle against the gate Is that a weed wacker said the voice and was followed by laughter Damn I heard the tapping of what turned out to be an axe head against concrete before I realized he d stepped into a shaft of gray light Don t let their laughter get to you people used to laugh at us too We watched paralyzed as the bearded silhouette seemed to yawn and stretch What can I say All this rain it makes me sleepy I ll tell you I could really go for a Flat White about now Two ristretto espresso shots some whole milk steamed to perfection a little ephemeral latte art right in the center Sounds good doesn t it He cocked his head in the near perfect silence No What you want then a bronson At this hour A good earthy black IPA perhaps I could go for that Something with a nice malty backbone good for the old ticker He laughed seeming to think about it I know Too conventional right He shook his head Momma always said she said Atticus all your taste is in your mouth There was a thin chuckle and a few clanks of the axe Kind of mean don t you think Anyway That s what she said He began walking toward us slowly deliberately dragging the handle dragging its blade along the pavement Look I said We didn t come here looking for any Any what He stopped about four feet in front of me close enough at last for us to have a good look at him and what we saw seemed utterly incongruous with what Roman had told us except of course for the multitude of tattoos mostly triangles and even more so the washboarded scar which ran from somewhere on his scalp and through an eye over which one lens of his dark plastic framed glasses had been painted black clear to his left shoulder That much at least fit What didn t fit was the slicked back pompadour and long full meticulously trimmed beard Jesus there was even product in it nor for that matter the flannel lumberjack shirt and skinny jeans not to mention the Converse sneakers What didn t fit as the similarly attired men holding laser guided rifles emerged from behind overgrown automobiles and support columns was that the feared and formidable Skidders were when exposed to the light of day and not to put too fine a point on it hipsters Well doesn t this just take the cake said Lazaro and spit
