Adam Meckler, Lucy Morrison, 2010-01-08 This collection of essays expands critical consideration of Mary Shelley's placement within the age we call Romantic wherein her texts converse with those of her family her circle and her contemporaries Several essays address particularly how her texts interact with those of her husband Percy Bysshe Shelley revealing new depth and breadth to their literary partnership Others investigate interdisciplinary perspectives such as her pieces in The Liberal or the ways in which the figure of Scheherezade haunts her works while several essays also consider Mary Shelley's textual relationships with contemporaries such as Thomas Moore and John Polidori Still others tackle topics such as geopolitical relationships and the growth of opera as an art form considering Mary Shelley's commentary upon such contemporary issues while William Godwin's textual relationship with his daughter is further investigated This collection suggests Mary Shelley's texts merit further investigation not only for what they reveal about their author and her oeuvre but for the ways in which they illuminate our understanding of the contexts in which they were composed The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr The British Controversialist, 1864 The Holocaust and the Nonrepresentable David Patterson, 2018-05-22 Many books focus on issues of Holocaust representation but few address why the Holocaust in particular poses such a representational problem David Patterson draws from Emmanuel Levinas's contention that the Good cannot be represented He argues that the assault on the Good is equally nonrepresentable and this nonrepresentable aspect of the Holocaust is its distinguishing feature Utilizing Jewish religious thought Patterson examines how the literary word expresses the ineffable and how the photographic image manifests the invisible Where the Holocaust is concerned representation is a matter not of imagination but of ethical implication not of what it was like but of what must be done Ultimately Patterson provides a deeper understanding of why the Holocaust itself is indefinable not only as an evil but also as a fundamental assault on the very categories of good and evil affirmed over centuries of Jewish teaching and testimony The Kaaterskill Edition of Washington Irving ...
