winning Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind 2004 and Academy Award nominated Adaptation 2002 to the cult classic Being John Malkovich 1999 writer Charlie Kaufman is widely admired for his innovative philosophically resonant films. Although he only recently made his directorial debut with Synecdoche New York 2008 most fans and critics refer to Kaufman films the way they would otherwise discuss works by directors Woody Allen, Martin Scorsese or the Coen brothers. Not only has Kaufman transformed our sense of what can take place in a film but he also has made a significant impact on our understanding of the role of the screenwriter. The Philosophy of Charlie Kaufman edited by David LaRocca is the first collection of essays devoted to a rigorous philosophical exploration of Kaufman's work by a team of capable and critical scholars from a wide range of disciplines. From political theorists to philosophers, classicists to theologians, professors of literature to filmmakers, the contributing authors delve into the heart of Kaufman's innovative screenplays, offering not only original philosophical analyses but also extended reflections on the nature of film and film criticism.

Summary & Analysis of The Library Book ZIP Reads, PLEASE NOTE This is a summary and analysis of the book and not the original book. If you'd like to purchase the original book, please paste this link in your browser: <https://amzn.to/2MjMIfq>. Susan Orlean weaves a beautiful and insightful tale of the history, purpose, and heart of libraries as seen through the lens of the great Los Angeles library fire of 1986. What does this ZIP Reads Summary Include? Synopsis of the original book, Chapter by chapter summaries, Key takeaways from each chapter, A history of the Los Angeles Central Library, Editorial Review, Background on Susan Orlean, About the Original Book. Susan Orlean uses the 1986 Great Fire at the Los Angeles Central Library as the backdrop to explore the history of libraries and librarianship in the United States. In the end, there is no clear resolution about how and why the fire started. However, the author is clear that libraries have endured all types of fires, both physical and metaphorical. Orlean shows the biggest threat to the Los Angeles Library System, like other public library systems, is the threat of irrelevance. For her part, Orlean sees the library as ever evolving and able to adapt to modern needs rather than succumb to them. Her book is both a history of libraries as well as a love letter to them.

Beyond Adaptation Phyllis Frus, Christy Williams, 2010-03-16. Some film and novel revisions go so far beyond adaptation that they demand a new designation. This critical collection explores movies, plays, essays, comics, and video games that supersede adaptation to radically transform their original sources. Fifteen essays investigate a variety of texts that rework everything from literary classics to popular children's books, demonstrating how these new stand-alone creations critically engage their sources and contexts. Particular attention is paid to parody, intertextuality, and fairy tale transformations in the examination of these works, which occupy a unique narrative.

and creative space     Books in Motion Mireia Aragay, 2005 Books in Motion addresses the hybrid interstitial field of film adaptation. The introductory essay integrates a retrospective survey of the development of adaptation studies with a forceful argument about their centrality to any history of culture. Any discussion that is of the transformation and transmission of texts and meanings in and across cultures. The thirteen especially composed essays that follow are organised into four sections headed Paradoxes of Fidelity, Authors/Auteurs, Adaptation Contexts, Intertexts, Adaptation and Beyond. Adaptation variously illustrates that claim by problematising the notion of fidelity, highlighting the role played by adaptation in relation to changing concepts of authorship and auteurism, exploring the extent to which the intelligibility of film adaptations is dependent on contextual and intertextual factors, and making a claim for the need to transcend any narrowly defined concept of adaptation in the study of adaptation. Discussion ranges from adaptations of established classics like A Tale of Two Cities, Frankenstein, Henry V, Le temps retrouvé, Mansfield Park, Pride and Prejudice, The Dead or Wuthering Heights to contemporary popular texts, films like Bridget Jones's Diary, Fools, The Governess, High Fidelity, The Hours, The Orchid Thief. Adaptation of the work of Doris Lessing, the first Harry Potter novel, film or the adaptations made by Alfred Hitchcock, Stanley Kubrick and Walt Disney. This book will appeal to both a specialised readership and to those accessing the dynamic field of adaptation studies for the first time.

Who Wrote That Movie? Chris Wehner, 2003 Before the director or actors can work their magic onscreen, a writer often working alone faces the blank page and must be the first to create the magic. Yet the writer is usually ignored by critics eager to give credit to the director or sometimes an actor. Not only that, the original vision of the screenwriter rarely makes it to the screen intact. Imagine if your favorite movie could have even been better had that image-conscious actress not demanded changes to the script. The screenplays and movies discussed include A Beautiful Mind, Adaptation, Almost Famous, Ararat, Black Hawk Down, Blade 2, Cast Away, Catch Me if You Can, City by the Sea, The Cell, Dancer in the Dark, Far From Heaven, Frailty, The Gift, Gladiator, John Q, Insomnia, In the Bedroom, Memento, MIB2, Minority Report, Monster's Ball, Ocean's Eleven, Panic Room, Pay it Forward, Pearl Harbor, Proof of Life, Road to Perdition, Signs, Spy Game, We Were Soldiers, Windtalkers, Traffic, Unbreakable.     Authorship in Film Adaptation Jack Boozer, 2009-06-03 Authoring a film adaptation of a literary source not only requires a media conversion but also a transformation as a result of the differing dramatic demands of cinema. The most critical central step in this transformation of a literary source to the screen is the writing of the screenplay. The screenplay usually serves to recruit producers, director and actors to attract capital investment and to give focus to the conception and production of the film project. Often undergoing multiple revisions prior to production, the screenplay represents the crucial decisions of writer and director that will determine how and to what end the film will imitate or depart from its original source. Authorship in Film Adaptation is an accessible, provocative text that opens up new areas of discussion on the central process of adaptation surrounding the screenplay and screenwriter-director collaboration. In contrast to narrow binary comparisons of literary source text and film, the twelve essays in this collection also give attention to the underappreciated role of the screenplay and film pre production that can signal the primary intention for a film Divided into four parts this collection looks first at the role of Hollywood s activist producers and major auteurs such as Hitchcock and Kubrick as they worked with screenwriters to formulate their audio visual goals The second part offers case studies of Devil in a Blue Dress and The Sweet Hereafter for which the directors wrote their own adapted screenplays Considering the variety of writer director working relationships that are possible Part III focuses on adaptations that alter genre time and place and Part IV investigates adaptations that alter stories of romance sexuality and ethnicity Orchid Jim
