Narrative and Critical History of America: English Explorations and Settlements in North America 1497-1689 Various Authors, 2020-09-28

WE derive our rights in America says Edmund Burke in his Account of the European Settlements in America from the discovery of Sebastian Cabot who first made the Northern Continent in 1497 The fact is sufficiently certain to establish a right to our settlements in North America If this distinguished writer and statesman had substituted the name of John Cabot for that of Sebastian he would have stated the truth John Cabot as his name is known to English readers or Zuan Caboto as it is called in the Venetian dialect the discoverer of North America was born probably in Genoa or its neighborhood His name first appears in the archives of Venice where is a record under the date of March 28 1476 of his naturalization as a citizen of Venice after the usual residence of fifteen years He pursued successfully the study of cosmography and the practice of navigation and at one time visited Arabia where at Mecca he saw the caravans which came thither and was told that the spices they brought were received from other hands and that they came originally from the remotest countries of the east Accepting the new views as to the roundness of the earth as Columbus had done he was quite disposed to put them to a practical test With his wife who was a Venetian woman and his three sons he removed to England and took up his residence at the maritime city of Bristol The time at which this removal took place is uncertain In the year 1495 he laid his proposals before the king Henry VII who on the 5th of March 1495 6 granted to him and his three sons their heirs and assigns a patent for the discovery of unknown lands in the eastern western or northern seas with the right to occupy such territories and to have exclusive commerce with them paying to the King one fifth part of all the profits and to return to the port of Bristol The enterprise was to be at their own proper cost and charge In the early part of May in the following year 1497 Cabot set sail from Bristol with one small vessel and eighteen persons principally of Bristol accompanied perhaps by his son Sebastian and after sailing seven hundred leagues discovered land on the 24th of June which he supposed was in the territory of the Grand Cham The legend prima tierra vista was inscribed on a map attributed to Sebastian Cabot composed at a later period at the head of the delineation of the island of Cape Breton On the spot where he landed he planted a large cross with the flags of England and of St Mark and took possession for the King of England If the statement be true that he coasted three hundred leagues he may have made a periplus of the Gulf of St Lawrence returning home through the Straits of Belle Isle On his return he saw two islands on the starboard but for want of provisions did not stop to examine them He saw no human beings but he brought home certain implements and from these and other indications he believed that the country was inhabited He returned in the early part of August having been absent about three months The discovery which he reported and of which he made and exhibited a map and a solid globe created a great sensation in England The King gave him money and also executed an agreement to pay him an annual pension charged upon the revenues of the port of Bristol He dressed in silk and was called or called himself the Great Admiral Preparations were made for another and a larger expedition evidently for the purpose of colonization and hopes were cherished of further important discoveries for Cabot believed that by starting from the place already found and coasting toward the equinoctial he should discover the island of Cipango the land of jewels and spices by which they hoped to make in London a greater warehouse of spices than existed in Alexandria

Much has been written about the marketing aspects of promotional material in general and several scholars particularly in linguistics have addressed questions relating to the structure and function of advertisements focusing on images rhetorical structure semiotic functions discourse features and audio visual media amongst other aspects of the genre Not much on the other hand has been written within translation studies about the complexities involved in the transfer of an advertising message Contributors to this volume explore various interdependent aspects of the interlingual and intercultural transfer of an advertising message They emphasize features of culture specificity of multi medial semiotic interaction of values and stereotypes and most importantly they recommend strategies and approaches to assist translators Topics covered include a critique of the Western based approach to advertising in the context of the Far East different perceptions of the concept of cleanliness in advertising texts in Italy Russia and the UK the Walls Cornetto strategy of internationalization of product appeal followed by localization the role of the translator in recreating appeal in different lingua cultural contexts what constitutes Italianness in advertisements for British consumers and strategies for repackaging France as a tourist destination

Collectanea Anglo-poetica: Or A Bibliographical and Descriptive Catalogue ... of Early English Poetry Thomas Corser,1877 Narrative and Critical History of America ,1884 Encyclopedia of Gothic Literature Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2014-05-14 Presents an alphabetical reference guide detailing the lives and works of authors associated with Gothic literature Edgar Allan Poe Arthur Hobson Quinn,1997-11-25 Renowned as the creator of the detective story and a master of horror the author of The Red Mask of Death The Black Cat and The Murders of the Rue Morgue Edgar Allan Poe seems to have derived his success from suffering and to have suffered from his success The Raven and The Tell Tale Heart have been read as signs of his personal obsessions and The Fall of the House of Usher and The Descent into the Maelstrom as symptoms of his own mental collapse. Biographers have seldom resisted the opportunities to confuse the pathologies in the stories with the events in Poe's life. Against this tide of fancy guesses and amateur psychologizing, Arthur Hobson Quinn's biography devotes itself meticulously to facts. Based on exhaustive research in the Poe family archive, Quinn extracts the life from the legend and describes how they both were distorted by prior biographies.
