

Will W or T* grades transfer?

No, under the CAA, only courses in which a grade of "C" or higher is earned will transfer.

How many semester hours will transfer?

If a student transfers to a university of North Carolina institution under the statewide CAA, a maximum of 64 semester hours will transfer. The student should consult an academic advisor! Consider some special program articulations may exist between community colleges and four-year colleges or universities in North Carolina or else where that may permit the transfer of additional credit hours.

Will an Associate in Applied Science (A.A.S.), Associate in General Education (A.G.E.) or Associate in Fine Arts (A.F.A.) degree transfer?

At present, the CAA does not articulate the A.A.S., A.G.E., or A.F.A. degrees for college transfer. Individual universities and community colleges have very specific program articulations, which govern the transfer of credit earned in these degree programs. Information on these programs is available from the academic advisor/counselor in the college catalog.

What is it best to select a major?

As early as possible, some students may not be ready to select a major in their freshman year; this is not unusual. However, the longer a student takes to decide on a major, the more likely it is that some of the courses taken may not apply to the major. This could result in the student having to earn more than the maximum number of semester credit hours transferable to a four-year college or university.

Should I speak with an academic advisor/counselor?

Yes! It is a good idea to speak with an academic advisor/counselor.

Can I change majors?

Yes, however, changing majors may lengthen the time it takes to earn a degree and may also result in the accumulation of more community college semester credit hours that will transfer to a four-year college or university.

What is the Comprehensive Articulation Agreement?

The North Carolina Comprehensive Articulation Agreement (CAA) is a statewide agreement governing the transfer of credits between N.C. community colleges and N.C. public universities and has as its objective the smooth transfer of students. This agreement has been approved by the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina and the N.C. State Board of Community Colleges. The CAA provides certain assurance to the transferring student; for example, the CAA identifies community college courses that are appropriate for transfer as electives. Courses that will satisfy pre-major and general education requirements are also specified.

The CAA defines a 64-semester credit hour general education core which, if completed at the Community college, is fully transferable to UNC institutions and will satisfy general education requirements. This means that a transfer student who completes the general education core at a North Carolina community college will not be required to take other general education courses at a UNC institution, even if his/her 64-semester credit hour core does not completely match the university's. Students should be aware that some universities have graduation requirements that transfer students must satisfy – such as physical education or a foreign language.

North Carolina community college students who earn an associate's degree according to the guidelines of the CAA will be treated as juniors at the receiving UNC institution.

Students graduating from North Carolina community colleges under the guidelines of the CAA will have 64 semester hours of credit transferred to the UNC institution to which they are admitted. Because UNC institutions differ in their admission requirements, students intending to transfer should contact the UNC institutions of their choice to learn about specific admission requirements.
