Taxation and Development - A Comparative Study Karen B. Brown, 2017-01-16 This volume examines the tax systems of some twenty countries to determine whether their tax laws are used to support growth and development across borders in lower income and poor countries Given the critical economic development needs of poorer countries and the importance of stability in these regions to the security of populations throughout the world the use of a country's tax laws to support investment in the developing world gains crucial significance This book explores whether international standards promoting the fundamental values of the major tax systems of the world accommodate incentives for these nations In addition it analyzes the way in which adoption of principles by higher income nations to protect their own revenue bases has a spill over effect impairing the ability of developing countries to sustain their economies Following an introduction that synthesizes worldwide trends the volume contains separate chapters for a variety of countries detailing the underlying goals and values of each system and the way in which the decision to employ or not employ incentives accommodates those ends The chapters include reports for Australia Belgium Brazil Croatia Czech Republic France Hong Kong Israel Italy Japan the Maldives the Netherlands Poland Portugal South Africa Uganda United Kingdom United States and Venezuela The volume memorializes the work of the General Reporter and National Reporters at the Taxation and Development session of the 19th Congress of the International Academy of Comparative Law held in July 2014 in Vienna Austria

OECD Economic Surveys: Korea 2020 OECD, 2020-08-11 Economic activity has contracted less in Korea than in other OECD countries thanks to the prompt and effective reaction of the authorities to contain the spread of the COVID 19 virus and to the wide ranging government support to households and businesses Nevertheless the pandemic generates strong headwinds

OECD Economic Surveys: Germany 2020 OECD, 2020-12-08 The German economy entered a deep recession in 2020 due to the coronavirus pandemic A strong government response has reinforced health system capacity while protecting jobs and firms The response to the crisis has included increases in investment to meet structural challenges from the energy transition and digital transformation

OECD Economic Surveys: Finland 2020

OECD,2020-12-10 The COVID 19 pandemic has plunged Finland into a deep recession albeit less severe than in most other OECD countries Finland managed to bring the first wave of the coronavirus under control quickly through a combination of voluntary mobility reductions and timely containment measures and is on track to do the same for the second wave Nevertheless many people have been laid off and the budgetary costs of supporting household and business incomes have been considerable

Transfer Pricing and Dispute Resolution Anuschka Bakker,Marc M. Levey,2011 This book addresses the complexity valuation and administrative nuances and cultural impacts of resolving this significant cross border issue when tax disputes arise In recent years transfer pricing has become in financial terms the most important tax issue faced by multinational companies and tax authorities worldwide In times of economic downturn as experienced in recent years when tax authorities are challenged for revenue the handling of these issues requires great care skill creativity and a true awareness of the ramifications confronting each tax jurisdiction This book sets out in detail not only the general laws in each tax jurisdiction impacted by the multinational companies transfer pricing practices but also the ancillary concerns of how the issue is interpreted locally as well as related to the OECD Guidelines the varied approaches to administrative resolution of these issues including specific alternative dispute resolution mechanisms and the effective uses of advance pricing agreements correlative adjustment procedures in the event of transfer pricing adjustments cross border exchange of information concerns and how to proceed to litigation if all else fails administratively It is here that the book delves into the specific procedures for litigation in each country which must be evaluated as part of the overall strategy for controversy resolution Unfortunately today litigation is on the rise in numerous jurisdictions and the presumption of an administrative resolution is no longer correct An additional feature of this book is how practical anecdotes are intertwined into the analysis to give the reader a sense of pragmatism for these issues To this point there are the various case studies which highlight the technicalities of the local rules customs and practices
