nationalism Cheah also proposes a radical rethinking of the normative force of human rights in light of how Asian values challenge human rights universalism Eating Together Jean Duruz, Gaik Cheng Khoo, 2014-12-18 Accepting the challenge of rethinking connections of food space and identity within everyday spaces of public eating in Malaysia and Singapore the authors enter street stalls hawker centers markets cafes restaurants food streets and ethnic neighborhoods to offer a broader picture of the meaning of eating in public places The book creates a strong sense of the ways different people live eat work and relax together and traces negotiations and accommodations in these dynamics The motif of rojak Malay meaning mixture together with Ien Ang's evocative together in difference enables the analysis to move beyond the immediacy of street eating with its moments of exchange and remembering Ultimately the book traces the political tensions of different people living together and the search for home and identity in a world on the move Each of the chapters designates a different space for exploring these cultures of mixedness and their contradictions whether these involve old and new forms of sociality struggles over meanings of place or frissons of pleasure and risk in eating differently Simply put Eating Together is about understanding complex forms of multiculturalism in Malaysia and Singapore through the mind tongue nose and eyes
