Transforming Exclusion Hannah Bacon, Wayne Morris, 2011-06-23

Transforming Exclusion is concerned with the interface between the study of religion theology and issues surrounding exclusion Religious beliefs can be important in shaping attitudes that can lead to the exploitation or marginalization of both humans and non humans At the same time religious beliefs and practices have much to offer in transforming the world creating a more equitable place for all who occupy it At other times the voices of members of religious communities are suppressed and marginalized by other more dominant religious or secular individuals or communities This book addresses all of these aspects of social exclusion and aims to demonstrate that the study of theology and religion in addressing religious communities and society more widely have important contributions to make in creating a more just world The issue of exclusion is engaged with from a range of different perspectives by scholars involved in fieldwork with religious communities systematic contextual and practical theologians and practitioners involved in the preparation of individuals and groups for a range of ministries and professions

The Northern Utopia Peter Fjågesund, Ruth A. Symes, 2021-11-22

In the nineteenth century the ancient filial tie between Britain and Norway was rediscovered by a booming tourist industry which took thousands across the North Sea to see the wonders of the fjords the fields and the beauties of the North Cape This illustrated volume for the first time collects together vivid and predominantly first hand impressions of the country recorded by nearly two hundred British travellers and other commentators including Thomas Malthus Charlotte Bront Lord Tennyson and William Gladstone In a rich selection of travel writing fiction poetry journalism political speeches and art Norway emerges as a refreshingly natural utopia happily free from her imperial neighbour s increasing problems with the side effects of industrialisation This is a fascinating examination of the people institutions customs language and environment of Norway seen through the eyes of the British Using the tools of literary and historical scholarship Fj gesund and Symes set these perceptions in their nineteenth century context throwing light on such issues as progress art and aesthetics democracy religion nationhood race class and gender all of which occupied Europe at the time The Northern Utopia will be of particular interest to students of British and Scandinavian cultural history literature and travel writing It will also enthrall all those who love Norway

The Sassoons Esther da Costa Meyer, Claudia J. Nahson, 2023-04-11

Tracing the global history of the Sassoon family entrepreneurs and patrons of remarkable art and architecture from Baghdad to Mumbai Shanghai Hong Kong and London The Sassoons were prosperous as bankers and treasurers to the Ottoman sultans in nineteenth century Baghdad until they were driven out by religious persecution and economic pressures Assuming the precarious status of stateless Jews the family dispersed establishing businesses in Mumbai Hong Kong Shanghai and London Their wealth enabled them to collect splendid works of art from the various cultures that welcomed them This volume tells the sweeping global story of the Sassoon family through the works of art they collected
