Hardie, 2012 The Oxford History of Classical Reception OHCREL is designed to offer a comprehensive investigation of the numerous and diverse ways in which literary texts of the classical world have stimulated responses and refashioning by English writers Covering the full range of English literature from the early Middle Ages to the present day OHCREL both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge new research employing an international team of expert contributors for each of the five volumes OHCREL endeavours to interrogate rather than inertly reiterate conventional assumptions about literary periods the processes of canon formation and the relations between literary and non literary discourse It conceives of reception as a complex process of dialogic exchange and rather than offering large cultural generalizations it engages in close critical analysis of literary texts It explores in detail the ways in which English writers engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers own cultural context This fourth volume and second to appear in the series covers the years 1790 1880 and explores romantic and Victorian receptions of the classics Noting the changing fortunes of particular classical authors and the influence of developments in archaeology aesthetics and education it traces the interplay between classical and nineteenth century perceptions of gender class religion and the politics of republic and empire in chapters engaging with many of the major writers of this period The Dial Moncure Daniel Conway,1860 TV in the USA Vincent LoBrutto,2018-01-04 This three volume set is a valuable resource for researching the history of American television An encyclopedic range of information documents how television forever changed the face of media and continues to be a powerful influence on society What are the reasons behind enduring popularity of television genres such as police crime dramas soap operas sitcoms and reality TV What impact has television had on the culture and morality of American life Does television largely emulate and reflect real life and society or vice versa How does television s influence differ from that of other media such as newspapers and magazines radio movies and the Internet These are just a few of the questions explored in the three volume encyclopedia TV in the USA A History of Icons Idols and Ideas This expansive set covers television from 1950 to the present day addressing shows of all genres well known programs and short lived series alike broadcast on the traditional and cable networks All three volumes lead off with a keynote essay regarding the technical and historical features of the decade s covered Each entry on a specific show investigates the narrative themes and history of the program provides comprehensive information about when the show started and ended and why and identifies the star players directors producers and other key members of the crew of each television production The set also features essays that explore how a particular program or type of show has influenced or reflected American society and it includes numerous sidebars packed with interesting data related information and additional insights into the subject matter Film Evaluation Guide, 1946-1964 Educational Film Library Association,1965 Sophocles Jacques Jouanna,2022-01-11 Here for the first time in English is celebrated French classicist Jacques Jouanna s magisterial account of the life and work of Sophocles Exhaustive and authoritative this acclaimed book combines biography and detailed studies of Sophocles plays all set in the rich context of classical Greek tragedy and the political social religious and cultural world of Athens s greatest age the fifth century Sophocles was the commanding figure of his day The author of Oedipus Rex and Antigone he was not only the leading dramatist but also a distinguished politician military commander and religious figure And yet the evidence about his life has until now been fragmentary Reconstructing a lost literary world Jouanna has finally assembled all the available information culled from inscriptions archaeological evidence and later sources He also offers a huge range of new interpretations from his emphasis on the significance of Sophocles political and military offices previously often seen as honorary to his analysis of Sophocles plays in the mythic and literary context of fifth century drama Written for scholars students and general readers this book will interest anyone who wants to know more about Greek drama in general and Sophocles in particular With an extensive bibliography and useful summaries not only of Sophocles extant plays but also uniquely of the fragments of plays that have been partially lost it will be a standard reference in classical studies for years to come The Literary World ,1891 The Spectator ,1849 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art The Dial ,1965 Chronicle West India Committee,1948 Movies Made for Television Alvin H. Marill,2010-10-11 In 2005 Scarecrow published Movies Made for Television 1964 2004 a five volume reference set commemorating 40 years of every made for TV film since See How They Run debuted in 1964 These books provided a comprehensive listing of every television film and mini series detailing each film s original network airdate and length of broadcast In this latest volume Marill adds another five years of television films providing information for an additional 400 works produced between 2005 and 2009 Along with a brief summary entries also include extensive production credits director writer producer composer director of photography and editor and a complete cast and character listing With a chronology of the films an appendix of movies adapted from other sources and separate indexes for actors and directors Movies Made for Television 2005 2009 is a welcome addition to a resource highly regarded by scholars and historians of television and popular culture Museums, U.S.A. Herbert M. Katz,Marjorie P. K. Weiser,1965 Provides an entertaining social history and a unique reference guide because it tells where the museums are as of 1965 how they got there who put them there and what they contain The Appendix includes a listing by state and city of more than 2500 operating museums The index is cross referenced so that it is possible to locate anything from an important Rembrandt to a major entomological collection Printers' Ink ,1953 If You Like the Terminator Scott on Von Doviak,Scott Von Doviak,2012-05-01 The Terminator began life as a low budget B movie seemingly destined for a short run at malls and drive ins before blossoming into a billion dollar franchise that launched the careers of director James Cameron and star Arnold Schwarzenegger The original 1984 film not only spawned three sequels a weekly television series and countless novels comic books and videogames it also redefined the science fiction genre with its blend of high tech and film noir Here is the first book to explore the spectacular array of films television shows and other works that helped inspire The Terminator as well as those that have drawn inspiration from it If You Like The Terminator delves into the history of science fiction cinema from its earliest days to the golden age of the 1950s and beyond encountering killer robots time travelers and postapocalyptic wastelands along the way This turbo charged journey through time also reviews the improbable career of Arnold Schwarzenegger revisits the action heroes of the 1980s and reevaluates the films of James Cameron before touching down in the computer dominated realm of today s science fiction cinema and projecting the future of the Terminator franchise From Metropolis to The Matrix from Frankenstein to RoboCop from H G Wells and Harlan Ellison to Roger Corman and Roland Emmerich you ll find them all here in If You Like The Terminator Colombo's Canadian References John Robert Colombo,1976 This book aims to introduce many people places and things of Canadian interest that are likely to be encountered by the average person reading or in conversation There are approximately 6 000 entries relating to a wide variety of categories of national and local significance as well as current and historical issues Fifty categories are presented in the book s scope and include Abbreviations Agriculture Architecture Art Associations Aviation Awards Broadcasting
