Zanele Muholi Faces And Phases 2006 2014:

Zanele Muholi, 2014 In Faces and Phases Zanele Muholi embarks on a journey of visual activism to ensure black queer and transgender visibility Despite South Africa's progressive Constitution and 20 years of democracy black lesbians and transgender men remain the targets of brutal hate crimes and so called corrective rapes Taken over the past eight years the more than 250 portraits in this book accompanied by moving testimonies present a compelling statement about the lives and struggles of these individuals They also comprise an unprecedented and invaluable archive marking mapping and preserving an often invisible community for posterity Peabody Conservatory of Music, 1869 Gender Violence, Art, and the Viewer Ellen C. Caldwell, Cynthia S. Colburn, Ella J. Gonzalez, 2024-08-02 The works covered in college art history classes frequently depict violence against women Traditional survey textbooks highlight the impressive formal qualities of artworks depicting rape murder and other violence but often fail to address the violent content and context Gender Violence Art and the Viewer investigates the role that the art history field has played in the past and can play in the future in education around gender violence in the arts It asks art historians museum educators curators and students to consider how in the time of MeToo a public reckoning with gender violence in art can revitalize the field of art history Contributors to this timely volume amplify the voices and experiences of victims and survivors depicted throughout history critically engage with sexually violent images open meaningful and empowering discussions about visual assaults against women reevaluate how we have viewed and narrated such works and assess how we approach and teach famed works created by artists implicated in gender based violence Gender Violence Art and the Viewer includes contributions by the editors as well as Veronica Alvarez Indira Bailey Melia Belli Bose Charlene Villaseor Black Ria Brodell Megan Cifarelli Monika Fabijanska Vivien Green Fryd Carmen Hermo Bryan C Keene Natalie Madrigal Lisa Rafanelli Nicole Scalissi Hallie Rose Scott Theresa Sotto and Angela Two Stars It is sure to be of keen interest to art history scholars and students and anyone working at the intersections of art and social justice Public Art in South Africa Kim Miller, Brenda Schmahmann, 2017-10-16 How does South Africa deal with public art from its years of colonialism and apartheid How do new monuments address fraught histories and commemorate heroes of the struggle Across South Africa statues commemorating figures such as Cecil Rhodes have provoked heated protests while new works commemorating icons of the liberation struggle have also sometimes proved contentious In this lively volume Kim Miller Brenda Schmahmann and an international group of contributors explore how works in the public domain in South Africa serve as a forum in which important debates about race gender identity and nationhood play out Examining statues and memorials as well as performance billboards and other temporal modes of communication the authors of these essays consider the implications of not only the exposure but also erasure of events and icons from the public domain Revealing how public visual expressions articulate histories and memories they explore how such works may serve as a forum in which tensions surrounding race gender identity or nationhood play out Unstable Ground Rosalind C.

Morris, 2025-03-04 What has gold done to people What has it made them do The Witwatersrand in South Africa once home to the world's richest goldfields is today scattered with abandoned mines into which informal miners known as zama zamas venture in an illicit often deadly search for ore Based on field research conducted across more than twenty five years around these mines Unstable Ground reveals the worlds that gold made possible and gold's profound costs for those who have lived in its shadow and dreamt of its transformative power From the vantage point of the closure of South Africa's gold mines Rosalind C Morris reconsiders their histories beginning in the present and descending into the pasts that shaped them Anchored in evocative descriptions of mining in the ruins this book explores the social worlds built on gold and the lives that were remade and sometimes undone by the industry over a century and a half Viewing this industry from its margins against the backdrop of the cyanide revolution the gold standard's demise and recurrent sinkholes as well as the insurrectionary protests and violence that continue to this day it recasts the history of South Africa and the incomplete effort to overcome apartheid amid the transformations of the global economy In writing that is by turns immersive incisive and poetic Morris unearths a history that was born of imperial aspiration and that persists as a speculative mirage Interweaving ethnography history personal testimony and political thought with striking readings of South African literary texts Unstable Ground is a work of extraordinary ambition and depth

Going There Richard J. Powell, 2020-10-02 A kaleidoscopic survey of black satire in 20th and 21st century American art In this groundbreaking study Richard J Powell investigates the visual forms of satire produced by black artists in 20th and 21st century America Underscoring the historical use of visual satire as antiracist dissent and introspective critique Powell argues that it has a distinctly African American lineage Taking on some of the most controversial works of the past century in all their complexity humor and provocation Powell raises important questions about the social power of art Expansive in both historical reach and breadth of media presented Going There interweaves discussions of such works as the midcentury cartoons of Ollie Harrington the installations of Kara Walker the paintings of Robert Colescott and the movies of Spike Lee Other artists featured in the book include David Hammons Arthur Jafa Beverly McIver Howardena Pindell Betye Saar and Carrie Mae Weems Thoroughly researched and rich in context Going There is essential reading in the history of satire racial politics and contemporary art
