

I can describe the characters, setting and events in a story.

I can use singular and plural nouns and match them to the correct verb.

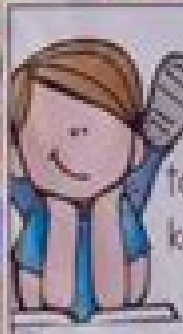

I can write a narrative with two or more events, details to describe what happened, words to show the order and a closure.

I know that counting, adding and subtracting are related.

I can observe the effect of a beam of light shining on different objects.

I can tell the main topic and central key details of a text.
