School Safety Agent Nyc Practice Exam 24:

The Battle Nearer to Home Christopher Bonastia,2022-07-05 Despite its image as an epicenter of progressive social policy New York City continues to have one of the nation s most segregated school systems Tracing the quest for integration in education from the mid 1950s to the present The Battle Nearer to Home follows the tireless efforts by educational activists to dismantle the deep racial and socioeconomic inequalities that segregation reinforces The fight for integration has shifted significantly over time not least in terms of the way integration is conceived from transfers of students and redrawing school attendance zones to more recent demands of community control of segregated schools In all cases the Board eventually pulled the plug in the face of resistance from more powerful stakeholders and starting in the 1970s integration receded as a possible solution to educational inequality In excavating the history of New York City school integration politics in the halls of power and on the ground Christopher Bonastia unearths the enduring white resistance to integration and the severe costs paid by Black and Latino students This last decade has seen activists renew the fight for integration but the war is still far from won The New York Times Index ,2007 Police Corruption in the NYPD Steven V. Gilbert,2017-07-27 Police Corruption in the NYPD From Knapp to Mollen explores how the New York Police Department experienced two major investigations within a quarter of a century It compares the states of corruption within the NYPD during the Knapp and Mollen commissions examining why corruption continued and why the revealed ethical breaches became more serious

Schools Under Surveillance Torin Monahan,Rodolfo D Torres,2009-10-13 Schools under Surveillance gathers together some of the very best researchers studying surveillance and discipline in contemporary public schools Surveillance is not simply about monitoring or tracking individuals and their data it is about the structuring of power relations through human technical or hybrid control mechanisms Essays cover a broad range of topics including police and military recruiters on campus testing and accountability regimes such as No Child Left Behind and efforts by students and teachers to circumvent the most egregious forms of surveillance in public education Each contributor is committed to the continued critique of the disparity and inequality in the use of surveillance to target and sort students along lines of race class and gender
