Islamic Religious Education in Europe Leni Franken, Bill Gent, 2021-03-31 Against the backdrop of labour migration and the ongoing refugee crisis the ways in which Islam is taught and engaged with in educational settings has become a major topic of contention in Europe Recognising the need for academic engagement around the challenges and benefits of effective Islamic Religious Education IRE this volume offers a comparative study of curricula teaching materials and teacher education in fourteen European countries and in doing so explores local national and international complexities of contemporary IRE Considering the ways in which Islam is taught and represented in state schools public Islamic schools and non confessional classes Part One of this volume includes chapters which survey the varying degrees to which fourteen European States have adopted IRE into curricula and considers the impacts of varied teaching models on Muslim populations Moving beyond individual countries approaches to IRE chapters in Part Two offer multi disciplinary perspectives from the hermeneutical critical to the postcolonial to address challenges posed by religious teachings on issues such as feminism human rights and citizenship and the ways these are approached in European settings Given its multi faceted approach this book will be an indispensable resource for postgraduate students scholars stakeholders and policymakers working at the intersections of religion education and policy on religious education

Islam in the School Curriculum Shiraz Thobani, 2010-04-08 Islam in the School Curriculum explores the conceptualisation of school based Islam on two levels as a symbolic category in English religious education as a consequence of policy shifts and as pedagogic discourse at the local community level in state and Muslim schools Using recontextualisation theory the author examines the relations between educational governance social interests and cultural epistemology as they pertain specifically to symbolic constructs In the aftermath of September 11 2001 the teaching of Islam has assumed geopolitical significance coming under close scrutiny internationally Much of this attention has been directed at madrasas in Muslim countries yet Islam in schooling contexts in the West has remained a blind spot In the UK heightened anxieties about home grown terrorists point to the need for a better understanding of Islam in both state and faith schools Shiraz Thobani explores the role played by national and local policies and pedagogic practices in the production of school based Islam in a secular liberal context and makes an important contribution to the sociology of the curriculum and the study of religious education

Nader Al-Refai,Christopher Adam Bagley,2008-01-01 This important book draws together and integrates several strands in educational policy It offers a perspective on the role of Britain s increasing Muslim population and the need for Citizenship Education for all school pupils which can allow young Muslims to integrate in ways which meet their legitimate needs for expression of religious values and which fosters tolerance in both Muslim pupils and in their peers as well as responsible participation in the wider democracy The book explains clearly the meaning of education and citizenship in Islam and argues that the practice of Islam encourages its adherents both to tolerate other religions and the societies in which Islamic minorities have settled In this account there is no logic morality or theological support for violent acts against the state However increasing Islamophobia misdirected against Muslim youth in Britain has forced a reappraisal of identity This combined with increasing dissatisfaction of Muslim parents on the failure of mainstream schools to tolerate the religious aspirations of their children has led to the setting up of a number of Muslim schools in Britain Recent government actions to introduce Citizenship Education in all schools as a means of fostering tolerance and countering political apathy are evaluated in a study of five best practice Muslim schools and five similar schools serving a wider religious population Results show the general success of Citizenship Education in the Muslim schools studied and support the argument that Islamic education can support Citizenship Education in socially productive ways While focussed on Britain this book is an important comparative study of education sociology and social policy and deserves to be read by trainee teachers undergraduates and policy makers in the fields of education and social planning Curriculum Renewal for Islamic Education

Nadeem A. Memon,Mariam Alhashmi,Mohamad Abdalla,2021-05-10 This book demonstrates why and how it is necessary to redesign Islamic Education curriculum in the K 12 sector globally From Western public schools that integrate Muslim perspectives to be culturally responsive to public and private schools in Muslim minority and majority contexts that teach Islamic studies as a core subject or teach from an Islamic perspective the volume highlights the unique global and sociocultural contexts that support the disparate trajectories of Islamic Education curricula Divided into three distinct parts the text discusses current Islamic education curricula and considers new areas for inclusion as part of a general renewal effort that includes developing curricula from an Islamic worldview and the current aspirations of Islamic education globally By providing insights on key concepts related to teaching Islam case studies of curriculum achievements and pitfalls and suggested processes and pillars for curriculum development contributors present possibilities for researchers and educators to think about teaching Islam differently This text will benefit researchers doctoral students and academics in the fields of secondary education Islamic education and curriculum studies Those interested in religious education as well as the sociology and theory of religion more broadly will also enjoy this volume Report, 1912 Bengal (India). Institute of Islamic Studies, 1984 New Methodological Perspectives in Islamic Studies , 2023-05-25 This volume draws attention to and moves beyond the traditional methodological frames that have governed knowledge production in the academic study of Islam Departing from Orientalist and largely textual studies the chapters collected herein revolve around three main themes gender the political and what has come to be known as lived Islam The first involves ascertaining how to read gender and gender issues into traditional sources The second encourages an attunement to the often delicate intersection between the spheres of religion and politics The final provides a corrective to our traditional over emphasis on the interpretation of texts and a preoccupation with studying mainly male elites Taken as a whole this volume encourages a multi methodological approach to the study of Islam Contributors include Abbas Aghdassi Aaron W Hughes Eva Kepplinger Taira Amin Bet l Avc Ali Abedi Renani and Seyyed Ebrahim Sarparast Sadat Meral Durmu and Bahattin Ak it Walid Ghali Isabella Crespi and Martina Crescenti Brian Arly Jacobsen Pernille Friis Jensen Kirstine Sinclair and Niels Valdemar Vinding Magdalena Pyci ska Zahraa McDonald Emin Poljarevic Abdessamad Belhaj Studies S. Islamic Finance in Western Higher Education A. Belouafi,A. Belabes,C. Trullols,2012-10-17 This is the first of its kind in its topical coverage of the developments and prospects of Islamic finance education at Western higher education Intended to establish itself as a unique reference for academics and researchers this book gives an insight into ethics and values in curricula development at business schools and in finance departments Muhammad in the Seminary David D. Grafton,2024-09-10 Uncovers what Christian seminaries taught about Islam in their formative years Throughout the nineteenth century Islam appeared regularly in the curricula of American Protestant seminaries Islam was not only the focus of Christian missions but was studied as part of the history of the Church as well as in the new field of comparative religions Moreover Arabic was taught as a cognate biblical language to help students better understand biblical Hebrew Passages from the Qur an were sometimes read as part of language instruction Christian seminaries were themselves new institutions in the nineteenth century Though Islam had already been present in the Americas since the beginning of the slave trade it was only in the nineteenth century that the American public became more aware of Islam and had increasing contact with Muslims It was during this period that extensive trade with the Ottoman empire emerged and more feasible travel opportunities to the Middle East became available due to the development of the steamship Providing an in depth look at the information about Islam that was available in seminaries throughout the nineteenth century Muhammad in the Seminary examines what Protestant seminaries were teaching about this tradition in the formative years of pastoral education In charting how American Christian leaders ideas about Islam were shaped by their seminary experiences this volume offers new insight into American religious history and the study of Christian Muslim relations Muslims in Britain Peter Hopkins,2009-03-31 Following the events of 11th September 2001 in the USA and more especially the bombings on the London underground on 7th July 2005 and the incident at Glasgow Airport on 30th June 2007 an increasing amount of public attention has been focused upon Muslims in Britain Against the backdrop of this debate this book sets out a series of innovative insights into the everyday lives of Muslims living in contemporary Britain in an attempt to move beyond prevalent stereotypes concerning what it means to be Muslim Combining original empirical research with theoretical interventions this collection offers a range of reflections on how Muslims in Britain negotiate their everyday lives manage experiences of racism and exclusion and develop local networks and global connections The authors explore a broad range of themes including gender relations educational and economic issues migration and mobility religion and politics racism and Islamophobia and the construction and contestation of Muslim identities Threaded through the treatment of these themes is a unifying concern with the ways in which geography matters to how Muslims negotiate their daily experiences as well as their racialised gendered and religious identities Above all attention is focused upon the role of the home and local community the influence of the economy and the nation and the power of transnational connections and mobilities in the everyday lives of Muslims in Britain Includes contributions from Louise Archer Yahya Birt Sophie Bowlby Claire Dwyer Richard Gale Peter Hopkins Lily Kong Sally Lloyd Evans Sean McLoughlin Sharmina Mawani Tariq Modood Anjoom Mukadam Caroline Nagel Deborah Phillips Bindi Shah and Lynn Staeheli Law and Religion in the Liberal State Md Jahid Hossain Bhuiyan,Darryn Jensen,2020-05-28 The relationship between law and religion is evident throughout history They have never been completely independent from each other There is no doubt that religion has played an important role in providing the underlying values of modern laws in setting the terms of the relationship between the individual and the state and in demanding a space for the variety of intermediate institutions which stand between individuals and the state However the relationships between law and religion and the state and religious institutions differ significantly from one modern state to another There is not one liberalism but many This work brings together reflections upon the relationship between religion and the law from the perspectives of different sub traditions within the broader liberal project and in light of some contemporary problems in the accommodation of religious and secular authority
