who are among the authors Conduct of Mr George Galloway Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee on Standards and Privileges, 2007-07-17 The Committee's report examines the memorandum produced by the Parliamentary Commissioner for Standards on the outcome of his investigation of complaints against the conduct of Mr George Galloway MP the text of the memorandum is included as an appendix to the report The Commissioner's investigation focused on allegations published in a series of articles in the Daily Telegraph in April 2003 that Mr Galloway had received substantial undeclared personal financial benefits from the former Iraqi regime run by Saddam Hussein by way of the UN Oil for Food programme and that in doing so he had breached the Commons rules on registration of interests and the Commons Code of Conduct The Commissioner's inquiry has been one of the most complex undertaken and of unparalleled duration having been delayed by legal proceedings The Committee's report finds that Mr Galloway's use of parliamentary facilities in connection with the Mariam Appeal went beyond what is reasonable and that he should have registered his interests in the Mariam Appeal and all donations it received above the specified threshold It also finds that there is strong circumstantial evidence that the former Iraqi Government funded the campaigning activities of the Mariam Appeal with the connivance of Mr Galloway through the Oil for Food programme In doing so Mr Galloway breached the advocacy rule of the Code However the Committee finds that there is no evidence that shows whether Mr Galloway has directly and personally unlawfully received money from the former Iraqi regime The Committee finds that in light of Mr Galloway's conduct in the course of the investigation including questioning the integrity of the Commissioner and the Committee he has damaged the reputation of the House It recommends that he apologise to the House and that he should be suspended from the House for 18 sittings days starting after the Summer Recess Thomas Demand: Processo Grottesco / Yellowcake Thomas Demand, Germano Celant, Carlo Bonini, Robert Storr, 2007 This elegant boxed set introduces two new works by Thomas Demand both presented during the 2007 Venice Biennale The first volume presents Processo Grottesco a life sized paper model of a grotto complete with stalagmites and stalactites that was exhibited along with other source materials and Demand's final photographic images With a section of its pages cut in two so that one can flip through old cave postcards on top or details of the finished artwork on the bottom this volume contains rich exhaustive documentation of the project including historical documents working drawings models in progress close up details and final artworks as well as an essay by Germano Celant The second slimmer silver edged volume presents the Yellowcake photographs which portray the Nigerian Embassy in Rome famous for sparking the United States 2003 invasion of Iraq It includes essays by Robert Storr and Alex Farquharson as well as a summary of Nigergate by investigative journalist Carlo Bonini Selling War in a Media Age Kenneth Osgood, Andrew K. Frank, 2010-06-27 George W Bush's Mission Accomplished banner in 2003 and the misleading linkages of Saddam Hussein to the 9 11 terrorist attacks awoke many Americans to the techniques used by the White House to put the country on a war footing Yet Bush was simply following in the footsteps of his predecessors as the essays in this standout volume reveal in illuminating detail Written in a lively and accessible style Selling War in a Media Age is a fascinating thought provoking must read volume that reveals the often brutal ways that the goal of influencing public opinion has shaped how American presidents have approached the most momentous duty of their office waging war Thinking History, Fighting Evil David Bruce MacDonald, 2009-01-01 This accessible study critiques the rise of a new exceptionalism a victim centered nationalism promoted by American conservatives since the 1980s borrowing imagery and vocabulary from the civil rights era and political correctness movements of the left Thinking History Fighting Evil explores the instrumentalization of anti Americanism and anti-Semitism in the service of U S foreign policy paying attention to how conservatives approach far enemies Islamism near enemies Europe and Latin America and the enemies within the domestic left Rights, Bodies and Recognition Daniel Breazeale, Tom Rockmore, 2006 The essays in this volume focus on Fichte's contributions in political theory as set out in his Foundations of Natural Right examining such issues as Fichte's role as a social contract theorist his theory of gender relations and his theories on punishment and criminal law Ending the War in Iraq Tom Hayden, 2007 The noted activist discusses the sources of the Iraq War conditions in Iraq that underlie the insurgency and the origins of the peace movement in the United States and offers his suggestions for how protestors can help end the war Conspiracy Richard M. Bennett, 2003 In recent years conspiracy theories have been thought to come exclusively from the wilder shores of political observation implausibly far fetched at best and dangerous at worst By definition however a conspiracy occurs each time a group of influential people agree a course of action in private and by extra democratic means Conspiring is part of any politician's job description and any criminal's attempt to pervert the course of justice From new information on the usual suspects like the Bildeberg Group through covert intelligence involvement with Britain's Wilson government royal family and in the Profumo affair to Reagan's secret post Cold War agenda and a mooted plot within the current US administration to supersede George W Bush Yellowcake June H. Taylor, Michael D. Yokell, 1979 International Uranium Supply and Demand United States. Congress. House. Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. Being Nuclear Gabrielle Hecht, 2014-08-29 The hidden history of African uranium and what it means for a state an object an industry a workplace to be nuclear Uranium from Africa has long been a major source of fuel for nuclear power and atomic weapons including the bomb dropped on Hiroshima In 2003 after the infamous yellow cake from Niger Africa suddenly became notorious as a source of uranium a component of nuclear weapons But did that admit Niger or any of Africa's other uranium producing countries to the select society of nuclear states Does uranium itself count as a nuclear thing In this book Gabrielle Hecht lucidly probes the question of what it means for something a state an object an industry a workplace to be nuclear Hecht shows that questions about being nuclear a state that she calls nuclearity lie at the heart of today's global nuclear order and the relationships between developing nations often former colonies and nuclear powers often former colonizers Hecht enters African nuclear worlds focusing on miners and the occupational hazard of radiation exposure Could a mine be a nuclear workplace if as in some South African mines its radiation levels went undetected and unmeasured With this book Hecht is the first to put Africa in the nuclear world and the nuclear world in Africa By doing so she remakes our understanding of the nuclear age

Nuclear Nightmare Robert F. Lucht, 2016-03-24 A wealthy Iranian family committed to Jihad is building atomic bombs in the United States and placing them in the downtown districts of some of our major cities The Iranians employ hundreds of people in cities all across the United States to develop the very devices that can eventually kill them None of these people know exactly what they are doing they are only providing parts that have a number of uses The plot covers three continents and involves numerous subplots The CIA knows something is going on but does not know how who or where this is taking place The bombs are all set on sophisticated timers that will automatically detonate the devices the first workday after New Years and destroy our largest cities Follow the story as the Iranians buy and lease properties build facilities to enrich uranium fabricate the devices and place them in the heart of American cities Follow along and a special task force attempts to unravel the plot and stop the destruction of America When January 3 comes around will America be dealt a crippling blow or will it just be another workday
