WELLS COATES. ,1978 Wells Coates Wells Coates,Wells Coates Exhibition Committee,1979 Britain and Japan: Biographical Portraits, Vol. VII ,2010-09-23 This latest volume of leading figures in the history of Anglo Japanese relations offers a classic menu of personalities themes and events in all 25 contributions Contents include the writings of the Cambridge scholar Carmen Blacker and leading historian William Beasley British military observer and Times reporter of the Russo Japanese War General Sir Ian Hamilton philosophers Arnold Toynbee Bertrand Russell and George Bernard Shaw the Chosu students Inoue Kaoru and Yamao Yozo who were later key figures in the Meiji period modernization of Japan and Walter Denning scholar and missionary Subjects treated include horse breeding and horse racing the Japanese influence on British architects the beginnings of golf in Japan and Japanese gardeners in Britain Re-forming Britain Elizabeth Darling,2007-01-24 Re forming Britain considers the nature and practice of architectural modernism in inter war Britain in a new light Bringing hitherto little considered protagonists and projects to the fore it argues that rather than being an imported idiom the new architecture in Britain formed part of an ongoing attempt to make a modern nation Spanning the period 1925 42 the book focuses on the key sites from and through which architectural modernism emerged in the UK Part one considers the main arena in which a will to modernize Britain developed in the 1920s In parts two and three the author documents contextualizes and explains how this modernizing will was given modernist form discussing the work of architects such as Wells Coates Maxwell Fry and Connell and Ward and their allied ventures with likeminded reformers in other fields These collaborations produced narratives of modernity buildings projects exhibitions and books through which the book argues modernist reformers were able to persuade politicians and those with influence upon them that modernism was the means to re form the nation Re forming Britain offers the first in depth analysis of well known modernist schemes such as Kensal House and the Pioneer Health Centre but also brings previously little studied or unknown activities to light This important work invites a new understanding of the nature of architectural modernism in inter war Britain and the ways in which it ultimately gave form to post war Britain A History of Collective Living Susanne Schmid,2024-11-18 This book tells the story of communal living forms from about 1850 until the present day The projects featured in this book are divided according to the motivations of their creators and users economic political and social The book also contains historical analysis and the identification of nine discrete development phases The author investigates and compares different forms of housing and the way they developed until today She illustrates how shared living including the assurance of privacy is practiced in Europe Owing to its comprehensive documentation the analysis of typologies layout plans and user and expert interviews the book can also be seen as a handbook on communal living offering a unique and detailed overview of this form of residential architecture The out of print first edition has now been republished in a new edition complete with a fresh design and layout Illustration of European communal housing concepts since 1850 Over 30 case examples on how and why people live together New edition of the standard work on collective living Also available in German Eine Geschichte des gemeinschaftlichen Wohnens Forgotten Monorails of Canada Paul Langan,2020-12-18 The definitive history of monorails in Canada from 1896 to 2020 From Vancouver BC to Cavendish PEI Canada has had 6 monorails that have been in operation in the past Two monorails are still in operation What makes this book unique is it also reviews all the monorail proposals that have been pitched in over the years and there has been a lot of them Vancouver Edmonton Calgary Winnipeg Niagara Falls Toronto Montreal are some of the cities that had studies done looking at monorail as a possible transit system Montreal alone has had over 15 studies that included monorails as a possible option Did you know that demonstration lines were built in Fort Saskatchewan and Niagara Falls Low speed and High speed monorails ideas have been pitched You won t find this topic covered on Wikipedia or in a Google search Over 200 newspaper articles referenced The Market Makers Peter Scott,2017 Inter war Britain saw a boom in mass markets for consumer durables such as new suites of furniture radios and electrical and gas appliances while items like refrigerators telephones and automobiles didn t reach the mass market until the 1950s Peter Scott explores these market makers and how US innovations influenced British markets The Lawn Road Flats David Burke (Historian of intelligence and international relations),2014 The Isokon building Lawn Road Flats in Belsize Park on Hampstead s lower slopes is a remarkable building The first modernist building in Britain to use reinforced concrete and architecture its construction demanded new building techniques But the building was as remarkable for those who took up residence there as for the application of revolutionary building techniques There were 32 Flats in all and they became a haunt of some of the most prominent Soviet agents working against Britain in the 1930s and 40s A number of British artists were also drawn to the Flats among them the sculptor and painter Henry Moore the novelist Nicholas Monsarrat and the crime writer Agatha Christie who wrote her only spy novel N or M in the Flats The Isokon building boasted its own restaurant and dining club where many of the Flats most famous residents rubbed shoulders with some of the most dangerous communist spies ever to operate in Britain Agatha Christie often said that she invented her characters from what she observed going on around her With the Kuczynskis probably the most successful family of spies in the history of espionage in residence she would have had plenty of material Gropius Fiona MacCarthy,2019-04-15 This is an absolute triumph ideas lives and the dramas of the twentieth century are woven together in a feat of storytelling A masterpiece Edmund de Waal ceramic artist and author of The White Road The impact of Walter Gropius can be measured in his buildings Fagus Factory Bauhaus Dessau Pan Am but no less in his students I M Pei Paul Rudolph Anni Albers Philip Johnson Fumihiko Maki countless masters were once disciples at the Bauhaus in Berlin and at Harvard Between 1910 and 1930 Gropius was at the center of European modernism and avant garde society glamor only to be exiled to the antimodernist United Kingdom during the Nazi years Later under the democratizing influence of American universities Gropius became an advocate of public art and cemented a starring role in twentieth century architecture and design Fiona MacCarthy challenges the image of Gropius as a doctrinaire architectural rationalist bringing out the visionary philosophy and courage that carried him through a politically hostile age Pilloried by Tom Wolfe as inventor of the monolithic high rise Gropius is better remembered as inventor of a form of art education that influenced schools worldwide He viewed argument as intrinsic to creativity Unusually for one in his position Gropius encouraged women s artistic endeavors and sought equal romantic partners Though a traveler in elite circles he objected to the cloistering of beauty as a special privilege for the aesthetically initiated Gropius offers a poignant and personal story and a fascinating reexamination of the urges that drove European and American modernism

Broadcasting Buildings Shundana Yusaf,2014-02-28 How the BBC shaped popular perceptions of architecture and placed them at the heart of debates over participatory democracy Architecture and the Welfare State Mark Swenarton,Tom Avermaete,Dirk van den Heuvel,2014-09-15 In the decades following World War Two and in part in response to the Cold War governments across Western Europe set out ambitious programmes for social welfare and the redistribution of wealth that aimed to improve the everyday lives of their citizens Many of these welfare state programmes housing schools new towns cultural and leisure centres involved not just construction but a new approach to architectural design in which the welfare objectives of these state funded programmes were delineated and debated The impact on architects and architectural design was profound and far reaching with welfare state projects moving centre stage in architectural discourse not just in Europe but worldwide This is the first book to explore the architecture of the welfare state in Western Europe from an international perspective With chapters covering Austria Belgium France Germany Italy The Netherlands Sweden and the UK the book explores the complex role played by architecture in the formation and development of the welfare state in both theory and practice Themes include the role of the built environment in the welfare state as a political project the colonial dimension of European welfare state architecture and its export to Africa and Asia the role of welfare state projects in promoting consumer culture and economic growth the picture of the collective produced by welfare state architecture the role of architectural innovation in the welfare state the role of the architect as opposed to construction companies and others in determining what was built the relationship between architectural and social theory the role of internal institutional critique and the counterculture Contributors include Tom Avermaete Eve Blau Nicholas Bullock Miles Glendinning Janina Gosseye Hilde Heynen Caroline Maniaque Benton Helena Mattsson Luca Molinari Simon Pepper Michelle Provoost Lukasz Stanek Mark Swenarton Florian Urban and Dirk van den Heuvel

The Experience of Modernism John R. Gold,2013-12-16 Making extensive use of information gained from in depth interviews with architects active in the period between 1928 1953 the author provides a sympathetic understanding of the Modern Movement s architectural role in reshaping the fabric and structure of British metropolitan cities in the post war period and traces the links between the experience of British modernists and the wider international modern movement

The Practice of

Modernism John R. Gold, 2007-06-13 Making extensive use of information gained from hours of in depth interviews with architects this new book examines the complex relationship between vision and subsequent practice in the saga of post war urban reconstruction

Broadcasting and Society 1918-1939 Mark Pegg, 2023-12-22 Broadcasting and Society 1983 examines the power of radio broadcasting as a medium of instant communication and entertainment It is a detailed and critical examination of the social changes brought about by radio broadcasting in the crucial and formative stages between 1918 and 1939 whether broadcasting was successful in keeping people better informed in introducing wider interests and its influence on social behaviour
