data required by this legislation God Don't Lie Richard Smith, 2019-07-08 God Don't Lie is the story of Richard Smith who has lived almost three decades inside some of the worst prisons in the state of Texas. At age five his family moved to the big city of Houston. There his life spun completely out of control resulting in drug abuse, violence, and multiple incarcerations as a juvenile. At sixteen he was arrested for murder merely fifteen hours after being released from a juvenile facility. After being tried as an adult he entered prison at age seventeen with a ninety-nine year sentence. After experiencing violence in some of Texas's worst prisons he joined the Aryan Brotherhood prison gang. He worked his way up to the rank of captain and got lost in its world of violence and racism. He was placed in long-term solitary confinement in 1993 and spent the next thirteen years locked in a cage within the cage. He was moved around to some of Texas's most violent prisons until one day he woke up to the insanity of his life and decided to change. In 2006 he was released from solitary confinement and began the long road of rehabilitation in a place not designed to rehabilitate. He achieved two associate's degrees as well as completed vocational trades in diesel mechanics and welding. At thirty-nine years of age he turned his life to God and began living as a godly man inside the ungodly walls of prison. The title of this book rests on a statement made by his grandmother during a frantic call from his mom when he was arrested for murder. His mom thought he would be given the death penalty. His grandmother assured her that he would not because God had great things planned for his life and God don't lie Reading Across the Disciplines Kathleen T. McWhorter, 2004-04 Reading Across the Disciplines has been a popular textbook with instructors whose students do not require an abundance of skill instruction and who teach college reading through the use of readings from across the disciplines. To prepare students for the expectations of higher education Kathleen McWhorter uses high-interest readings from a variety of academic sources and provides concise reading skills with immediate practice for reinforcement. Discipline-specific reading skills offer tips for reading and learning within the particular discipline so students learn content as well as strategy American Book Publishing Record, 2003
