Character Theology Tom Steffen, Ray Neu, 2024-02-21 Character Theology provides a natural universal way for the world to engage God through his chosen cast of characters As the media eras continue to change oral to print to digital virtual too many Bible scholars and consequently pastors and Bible teachers in the West and beyond lack capability to effectively communicate Scripture to Millennials Gen Z and Gen Alpha These generations find little if any relevance in the Christianity promoted by those stuck in modernity's sticky abstract systematic theology Character Theology relates sticks and transforms these generations Why Because people grasp and engage God most naturally and precisely through his interaction with biblical characters and their interaction with each other Characters communicate the Creator's characteristics The roadmap to the recovery and expansion of Christianity in the twenty first century will be through Bible characters Theostorying Robert H. Munson, 2015-01-18 We as humans appear to be hardwired for stories Whether the stories are in terms of myths or parables whether they work in terms of metaphor or image in the end we understand the abstract through narrative God and our relationship with God are concepts that stretch our ability to fathom cognitively On an affective level we are lost commonly describing God for example in terms of who or what He is not rather than who He is The Bible exists culturally and historically bound in story Jesus taught with stories as well as many others in the Bible Even when stories were not used directly imagery and metaphor were commonly used to draw the ineffable into our own world of familiarity This book will not seek to tackle the great challenges of Narrative Theology Rather it seeks a humbler goal to encourage people to think and speak of God in terms of stories that resonate with culture Godtalk should be more about parable than proposition story than statement and inspiration than information Theo-Storying Robert H.
