Market Abuse Regulation in South Africa, the United States of America and the United Kingdom Howard Chitimira, 2018-04-01 This book provides a concise comparison of the regulation and enforcement of the anti market abuse laws insider trading and market manipulation in South Africa the United States of America USA and United Kingdom UK Bringing together a number of previously published articles the book provides a novel discussion of the challenges associated with the enforcement of market abuse laws in both developing countries such as South Africa and developed ones such as the USA and the UK This is primarily done to examine and expose the current strengths and weaknesses of market abuse laws in relation to certain aspects of the corporate securities and financial markets environments in South Africa the USA and the UK Accordingly chapters two to five of the book unpack the regulation and enforcement of market abuse laws in South Africa and the USA in a comparative perspective Thereafter chapters six to eight of the book discuss the regulation and enforcement of market abuse laws Financial Markets Act 19 of 2012 and other related statutes in South Africa and the UK The book proposes some measures that could be utilised to enhance the enforcement of anti market laws in South Africa USA and the UK New market abuse related challenges that occurred during the global financial crisis are also briefly discussed The book further provides a relatively adequate overview of the comparative analysis of the regulation of market abuse in South Africa versus two key developed and respected jurisdictions namely the USA and the UK Accordingly it is hoped that the book can aid regulatory authorities financial market participants academics students and other interested readers to understand market abuse offences and possible measures that could be employed to combat such offences Legislative Calendar United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce, Legislative and Executive Calendar United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 2013 Financial Regulatory Reform Mary L. Schapiro, 2011 Testimony regarding the international implications of the Dodd Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act DF The DF establishes a host of new reforms that will have implications for U S companies that compete internationally and the U S investors who own those companies This testimony outlines some of these implications as well as the SEC s attempts to facilitate coordination and limit regulatory arbitrage both domestically and internationally In particular Schapiro discusses the international implications of the DF for regulation of over the counter derivatives and foreign investor adviser registration She also provides a brief update on the status of international accounting convergence A print on demand report Transparency in Insurance Contract Law Pierpaolo Marano, Kyriaki Noussia, 2020-03-11 This Volume of the AIDA Europe Research Series on Insurance Law and Regulation focuses on transparency as the guiding principle of modern insurance law It consists of chapters written by leaders in the respective field who address transparency in a range of civil and common law jurisdictions along with overview chapters Each chapter reviews the transparency principles applicable in the jurisdiction discussed Whether expressly or impliedly all jurisdictions recognize a duty on the part of the insured to make a fair presentation of the risk when submitting a proposal for cover to the insurers although there is little consensus on the scope of that duty Disputed matters in this regard include whether it is satisfied by honest answers to express questions or whether there is a spontaneous duty of disclosure whether facts relating to the insured s character as opposed to the nature of the risk itself are to be presented to the insurers the role of insurance intermediaries in the placement process and the remedy for breach of duty Transparency is however a much wider concept Potential policyholders are in principle entitled to be made aware of the key terms of coverage and to be warned of hidden traps such as conditions precedent average clauses and excess provisions but there are a range of different approaches Some jurisdictions have adopted a soft law approach using codes of practice for pre contract disclosure while other jurisdictions employ the rather nebulous duty of utmost good faith Leaving aside placement transparency is also demanded after the policy has been incepted The insured is required to be transparent during the claims process There is less consistency in national legislation regarding the implementation of transparency by insurers in the context of handling claims Law Reform and Financial Markets K.
