ECMLG 2017 13th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Martin Rich, 2017-12-11 These Proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 13th European Conference on Management Leadership and Governance ECMLG 2017 hosted this year by the Cass Business School City University of London on 11-12 December 2017. The Conference Chair is Dr Martin Rich. The conference will be opened with a keynote address by Dr Helen Rothberg from Marist College Poughkeepsie USA with a speech entitled 'Everything I Know about Leadership I Learned as a Bartender'. On the second day the keynote will be delivered by Dr Amanda Goodall from City University of London on the topic of 'Why we need core business experts as leaders'. ECMLG is a well established platform for individuals to present their research findings, display their work in progress and discuss conceptual advances in many different branches of Management Leadership and Governance. At the same time it provides an important opportunity for members of the community to come together with peers, share knowledge and exchange ideas. With an initial submission of 160 abstracts after the double blind peer review process there are 61 academic papers, 8 PhD Papers and 2 Work in Progress papers in these Conference Proceedings. These papers reflect the truly global nature of research in the area with contributions from Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Czech Republic, Finland, Germany, Hungary, Iran, Ireland, Israel, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Lithuania, Malaysia, The Microfinance Banker, 2005. Children Don't Come with an Instruction Manual Wendy Moss (Ph. The text includes interpretations of childhood symptoms such as fear, emotional outbursts, hyperactivity, withdrawal and inappropriate behaviours with case summaries demonstrating the most positive steps taken by teachers to improve lives. Developments in Saving and Credit Cooperatives in Ethiopia, 2007. In Search of Sacco and Vanzetti Susan Mondschein Tejada, 2012. It was a bold and brutal crime robbery and murder in broad daylight on the streets of South Braintree, Massachusetts in 1920. Tried for the crime and convicted two Italian born laborers, anarchists Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti went to the electric chair in 1927 professing their innocence. Journalist Susan Tejada has spent years investigating the case, sifting through diaries and police reports and interviewing descendants of major figures. She discovers little known facts about Sacco, Vanzetti and their supporters and develops a tantalizing theory about how a doomed insider may have been coerced into helping professional criminals plan the heist. Tejada's close up view of the case allows readers to see those involved as individual personalities. She also paints a fascinating portrait of a bygone era: Providence gangsters and Boston Brahmins, nighttime raids and midnight bombings and immigration, unionism, draft dodging and violent anarchism in the turbulent early years of the twentieth century. In many ways this is as much a cultural history as a true crime mystery or courtroom drama. Because the case played out against a background of domestic terrorism in a time that echoes our own, we have a new appreciation of the potential connection between fear and the erosion of civil liberties.
