Annual Review of the Sociology of Religion. Volume 10 (2019) Giuseppe Giordan, Andrew P. Lynch, 2019-07-15 Interreligious Dialogue From Religion to Geopolitics discusses how interreligious dialogue takes place within and is influenced by important sociological categories and theories such as modernity secularization deprivatization social movements and pluralism Starting from the study of interreligious coexistence sacred spaces and multi religious rituals the book explores the patterns of interreligious governance and politics and forms of interreligious social action in European North American and West and South Asian contexts The contributors to this volume apply broader theories of organizational change and planning communication urban neighborhood and community studies functionalist perspectives and symbolic interactionism thus presenting a wide range of possibilities for sociological engagement with studies on interreligious dialogue      Ori-Oke Spirituality and Social Change in Africa Yaovi, Soede Nathanael,Nwosu, Patrick U.,2018-09-17 The dynamic nature of Christianity has necessitated its movement from the cathedral to the mountain top This has occasioned a proliferation of Prayer Mountains throughout Africa In Yorubaland of southwestern Nigeria Prayer Mountain is known as Ori Oke Like many communities in Africa the Yoruba are confronted with fundamental challenges in life for which people do not rest until they find solutions Within the praxis of Nigerian Christian lexicon Ori Oke is synonymous with the enactment of a sacred space on a mountain top characterised by various prayer regimes rituals exorcism and religious practices aimed at eliciting the help of the divine to alleviate the existential challenges of devotees This book explores the resacralisation of space on the mountains highlighting how humans and the divine interact in Yorubaland It brings into conversation 35 empirically rich scholarly essays on the role of Ori Oke to those seeking divine intervention in their lives Today Ori Oke have become centres of pilgrimage as a result of the lived experiences of devotees creating unique religious value quite distinct from the aesthetic value of these mountain tops The spirituality of Ori Oke is anchored on the absolute belief in God and the infusion of traditional African worldview sensibilities in religious rites and worship Ori Oke spirituality employs resources of Christian tradition introduced by the formal agents of Christianity synthesised with traditional culture to develop a life based on the precepts of an African Christianity The book is an intellectual discourse on Ori Oke spirituality reflecting its contemporary relevance in a context of religious innovation and competition      The Patch Chris Turner,2017-09-19 In its heyday the oil sands represented an industrial triumph and the culmination of a century of innovation experiment engineering policy and finance Fort McMurray was a boomtown the centre of a new gold rush and the oil sands were reshaping the global energy political and financial landscapes The future seemed limitless for the city and those who drew their wealth from the bitumen rich wilderness But in 2008 a new narrative for the oil sands emerged As financial markets collapsed and the scientific reality of the Patch s effect on the environment became clear the region turned into a boogeyman and a lightning rod for the global movement combatting climate change Suddenly the streets of Fort McMurray were the front line of a high stakes collision between two conflicting worldviews one of industrial triumph and another of environmental stewardship each backed by major players on the world stage The Patch is the seminal account of this ongoing conflict showing just how far the oil sands reaches into all of our lives From Fort Mac to the Bakken shale country of North Dakota from Houston to London from Saudi Arabia to the shores of Brazil the whole world is connected in this enterprise And it requires us to ask the question In order to both fuel the world and to save it what do we do about the Patch      @ Worship Teresa Berger,2017-07-14 Digitally mediated liturgical practices raise challenging questions Are worshippers in an online chapel really a community at prayer Do avatars that receive digital bread and wine receive communion Worship is the first monograph dedicated to exploring online liturgical practices that have emerged since the introduction of Web 2.0      Jerusalem Falls John D. Hosler,2022-11-15 The first full account of the medieval struggle for Jerusalem from the seventh to the thirteenth century The history of Jerusalem is one of conflict faith and empire Few cities have been attacked as often and as savagely This was no less true in the Middle Ages From the Persian sack in 614 through the bloody First Crusade and beyond Jerusalem changed hands countless times But despite these horrific acts of violence its story during this period is also one of interfaith tolerance and accord In this gripping history John D Hosler explores the great clashes and delicate settlements of medieval Jerusalem He examines the city's many sieges and considers the experiences of its inhabitants of all faiths The city's conquerors consistently acknowledged and reinforced the rights of those religious minorities over which they ruled Deeply researched this account reveals the way in which Jerusalem's past has been constructed on partial histories and urges us to reckon with the city's broader historical contours      Church in an Age of Global Migration Susanna Snyder,Agnes M. Brazal,Joshua Ralston,2016-04-29 Migration has become a defining feature of the contemporary age It has brought about significant changes in political economic social and religious landscapes This volume explores a question that has been little considered to date how are churches being transformed in the face of global migration The book features contributors from diverse national denominational cultural professional and linguistic backgrounds Their essays reveal the ways in which migrants and the phenomenon of migration expose longstanding gaps and failings within Christian communities However the prevalence of migration and migrants simultaneously opens up fresh possibilities for churches to grow renew becoming more authentic dynamic and diverse Church in an Age of Global Migration presents a collage of embodied ecclesial practices understandings and realities that have emerged and are continuing to develop in the face of global migration Committed to transnational and ecumenical dialogue and to integrating practical and theoretical perspectives this volume is the first to offer an in depth analysis of the ways in which churches are being changed by migrants      Pilgrimage and Tourism to Holy Cities Maria Leppakari,Kevin A Griffin,2016-11-30 This book covers the ideological motives and religious perceptions behind travel to sites prescribed with sanctity in Judaism Christianity and Islam It covers sites that have drawn pilgrims and religious tourists to them for hundreds of years and seeks to provide an understanding of the complex world of religiously motivated travel Beginning with contemporary perspectives of pilgrimage across these religions it then discusses management aspects such as logistics infrastructure malevolent behaviour and evangelical volunteers Written by subject experts this book addresses cultural sustainability for researchers and practitioners within religious tourism religious studies geography and anthropology

The Majesty of Islamic Art and Architecture Sharmin Khan,Kheir Al-Kodmany,Mohd Khalid Hassan,M. Farhan

Fazli,2024-08-22 The book systematically delves into the complex intersection of Islam with art and architecture unraveling the profound philosophical and aesthetic foundations that serve as the bedrock for Islamic artistic expressions Commencing with comparative analyses of geometric patterns in traditional and contemporary Indo Islamic architecture it unveils the enduring significance of these patterns in India s architectural legacy Moving through the pages the narrative unfolds the intricacies of the Mughal era thoroughly examining the role of geometric ornamentation in Mughal buildings and its transformative impact on the grandeur of Mughal architecture Additionally the discourse navigates the spiritual and metaphysical dimensions inherent in Islamic gardens dissecting their elements through Quranic references and elucidating their sacred connections

Negotiating Religion and Non-religion in Childhood Rachael Shillitoe,2023-11-17 This book explores how and if the mandate for children to worship in schools can be justified within the context of declining church attendance and increasing nonreligious identification in British society Shillitoe asks what place compulsory worship has in an increasingly diverse and plural society and what the answer means for the relationship between religion the secular and education more broadly Through in depth ethnographic fieldwork from across three schools in southwest England the book reveals how examining the significance of children s experiences expands our understanding of both collective worship in schooling and religion in social life more broadly and demonstrates that adult centric anxieties and assumptions in this area do not always reflect the experiences of children

Fictional Practices of Spirituality I Leonardo Marcato,Felix Schniz,2023-11-02 Fictional Practices of Spirituality provides critical insight into the implementation of belief mysticism religion and spirituality into worlds of fiction be it interactive or non interactive This first volume focuses on interactive virtual worlds may that be the digital realms of video games and VR applications or the imaginary spaces of life action role playing and soul searching practices It features analyses of spirituality as gameplay facilitator sacred spaces and architecture in video game geography religion in video games and spiritual acts and their dramaturgic function in video games tabletop or LARP among other topics The contributors offer a first time ever comprehensive overview of play rites as spiritual incentives and playful spirituality in various medial incarnations

Houses of Religions Martin Rötting,2021 Houses of Religions are a new phenomenon in urban settings and promise to create a space with religious meaning for everyone in the city or at least to be much more than an ecumenical chapel a church a synagogue a temple or a mosque Projects of Houses and Centers around the globe have contributed to this volume Bern Hannover Berlin Vienna Stockholm Munich London New York Jerusalem Taipei and Abu Dhabi Theoretical attempts to understand Houses of Religions and their creation of meaning within multicultural societies set the final accord

Handbook of the Geographies of Religion Lily Kong,Orlando Woods,Justin K.H. Tse,2024-12-02 This international and interdisciplinary handbook offers a comprehensive and an in depth overview of contemporary research theory and practice in the geographies of religion in various parts of the world and with different populations The book showcases the major theoretical interventions in the field and the debates about the existential constitution of sacred space and what this means for secularization It outlines the most significant geographical themes related to these new developments with their implications for how to think about landscapes space bodies and worlds The book also discusses the future of the field especially in the realms of encounters and ethics economies and markets institutions and organisations movements and migrations and media and mediums It also offers views from disciplines outside of geography including from sociology anthropology religious studies and media and communications which demonstrates the contributions of geographers of religion to wider intellectual conversations and debates

Shakespeare and the Play Scripts of Private Prayer Ceri Sullivan, 2020 Explores drama and private prayer from 1580 to 1640 when prayer was considered a dynamic creative practice It analyses moments in which private prayer was staged in Shakespeare's history plays to argue that private prayers are play scripts and to recognise how this understanding affects how prayers in the plays were played and received

Shop Window, Flagship, Common Ground Judith A. Muskett, 2019-11-30 How are cathedrals and churches understood Are they shop windows through which to gaze at the riches on offer within the Christian life Are they flagships of the Spirit Are they both sacred spaces and community utilities Shop window flagship common ground views the rich ministry and innovative mission of cathedrals through the novel lens of metaphor and it offers comparative insights on cathedrals and cathedral like churches Located in the emerging international field of cathedral studies the book explores the usage and inferences of a range of metaphors including shop windows of the Church of England flagships of the Spirit beacons of the Christian faith magnets and sacred space common ground This volume also shows how such metaphors can stimulate different types of research about the function of cathedral and church buildings With a Foreword by Professor Grace Davie the book suggests that cathedrals and cathedral like churches may play a role within vicarious religion theory It will provide a thought provoking critique for practitioners and a valuable contribution for scholars of cathedral studies congregational studies and ecclesiology

Inscribing Faith in Late Antiquity Sean V. Leatherbury, 2019-07-26 Inscripting Faith in Late Antiquity considers the Greek and Latin texts inscribed in churches and chapels in the late antique Mediterranean c 300 800 CE compares them to similar texts from pagan Jewish and Muslim spaces of worship and explores how they functioned both textually and visually These texts not only recorded the names and prayers of the faithful but were powerful verbal and visual statements of cultural values and religious beliefs conveying meaning through their words as well as through their appearances In fact the two were intimately connected All of these texts Christian Jewish Muslim and pagan acted visually embracing their own materiality as mosaic paint or carved stone Colourful and artfully arranged the inscriptions framed human relationships with the divine encouraged responses from readers and made prayers material In the first in depth examination of the inscriptions as words and as images the author reimagines the range of aesthetic cultural and religious experiences that were possible in spaces of worship Inscripting Faith in Late Antiquity is essential reading for those interested in Roman late antique and Byzantine material and visual culture inscriptions and other texts and religious life in the ancient Mediterranean      Holy Ground Stephen Platten, 2017-10-01 Cathedrals are one area of the church's life where increasingly the unchurched and the half believer encounter God and where the institutions of our society instinctively engage with the Christian gospel Holy Ground digs deep into the life of England's cathedrals and discusses such diverse topics as finance growth heritage liturgy development music and art
