Nina And The Magical Carnival:

Nina and the Magical Carnival Madhvi Ramani, 2014-10-09 Nina has to take part in the school talent show in a few days and she still doesn't know what to do. When her teacher mentions a magical fantasia that could help Nina sets off to Brazil in the travelling spice shed to find it. There she has a great adventure involving a mysterious costume, a samba parade and a top secret mission.

The Imaginators Dwayne Hartford, 2004 The Imaginators is the story of three children and the power of imagination. Anne and Tim have just moved to a new town. Anne refuses to play with her little brother Tim, fearing that kids at her new school will see them and make fun of her. Then they meet the girl from next door, the fabulous Nina Frances Elizabeth Vanderhelden. Using moving boxes and other objects found in the garage, Nina takes an eager Tim and a reluctant Anne on a great make-believe adventure. The three battle the child-eating monster the Mooklecratz. The children discover their own strengths, the value of cooperation and the unlimited power of their imaginations as they figure out how to defeat the beast back cover.

Summer's Cauldron G.L. Breedon, 2014-07-13 Returning to the town of Runewood after a harrowing excursion in the Dead Forest with only an old abandoned cauldron in tow, Alex Ravenstar and his friends in the Young Sorcerers Guild come across something that promises to make their summer vacation more exciting than ever: a carnival of traveling mages. Alex's enthusiasm for the amusements and entertainments of the carnival is quickly crushed when he follows a mysterious shrouded figure to a darkened tent where he overhears unseen carnies discussing the Shadow Wraith. Alex barely has time to accept the fact there are followers of the Shadow Wraith hiding in the carnival when one of them tries to kill him. Unfortunately, facing down evil carnies seems easier than pursuing a romantic adventure with Victoria, especially when the carnival brings to town several of her old friends, her ex-boyfriend among them. Alex, Victoria, the Guild and all their new friends must uncover the evil carnies' plot to free the Shadow Wraith before it can destroy the town of Runewood: an adventure that takes them through the magical secrets of the carnival, deep into the dangerous waters of the Silent Swamp and forces them back to the Shadow Wraith's prison to once again face its destructive and deadly power.

Marc Blitzstein Howard Pollack, 2012-10-18 Award-winning music historian Howard Pollack's new biography of Marc Blitzstein deftly captures the fascinating life and career of an American composer who was openly gay and Marxist at a time when neither was acceptable to the American public. The first biographer to deal with Blitzstein's music as well as his life, Pollack delves deeply into the Blitzstein's life, uncovering new details about his marriage to novelist Eva Goldbeck and his compositional process. Beautifully written and meticulously researched, this book is a must-have for any fan of Broadway or American music.

Angeles Mastretta Jane Elizabeth Lavery, 2005 The first major study on the works of the Mexican novelist Angeles Mastretta, demonstrating the rich complexity and range of the author's fiction and essays. The Mexican novelist Angeles Mastretta, b. 1949, has only recently received serious critical attention, largely because her work has been seen as popular and therefore inappropriate for academic study. This first major work to be published on Mastretta seeks to demonstrate the rich complexity and range of the author's fiction and essays. In the tradition of Post Boom Latin American women's writing, Mastretta's texts are motivated by a desire to speak primarily of the silenced experiences and voices of women. Two of her novels, referential and testimonial in style, can be placed within the Mexican Revolutionary Novel tradition and explore the Revolutionary period and its consequences in the light of female experiences and perspectives. The hitherto unexplored themes of female sexuality and bodily erotics in Mastretta's texts are also considered in this volume. Her feminist works avoid facile simplifications; heterogeneous and dialogical, they interweave the historical and the fictional, the everyday and the fantastic. The originality of Mastretta's writing lies in its elusive postmodern ambiguities; shimmering surfaces are often interrupted by unexpected depths and proliferating meanings cannot be fully circumscribed by critical analysis.

Jane Elizabeth Lavery lectures in Latin American Studies at the University of Kent. New York Magazine, 1992-06-15. Jenatsch's Axe Randolph Conrad Head, 2008. During the turbulent events of Europe's Thirty Years War, both ruthlessness and adaptability were crucial ingredients for success. In this engaging volume, Randolph C. Head traces the career of an extraordinarily adaptable and ruthless figure, George Jenatsch, 1596-1639. Born a Protestant pastor's son, Jenatsch's career took him from the clergy to the military to the nobility. A passionate Calvinist in his youth, he converted to Catholicism and prudence as his power grew. A native speaker of the Romansh language, he crossed the boundaries of language and local loyalty in his service to France, Venice, and his own people. Violence marked every turning point of his life. After fleeing the Holy Massacre of Protestants in the Valtellina in 1620, Jenatsch helped assassinate the powerful Pompeius von Planta in 1621 using an axe. He killed his commanding officer in a duel in 1629, and his own life ended in a tavern in 1639.

when he was murdered with an axe by a man dressed as a bear After his death myth took over Rumors spread that Jenatsch was killed by the same axe that he had wielded on von Planta and from there the story only got better culminating in Conrad Ferdinand Meyer's celebrated 1876 novel Jürg Jenatsch This study meticulously traces the social boundaries that characterized seventeenth century Europe region religion social state and kinship by analyzing a distinctive life that crossed them all Professor Randolph C Head teaches European History at the University of California Riverside and is the author of Early Modern Democracy in the Grisons

Documenting Trauma in Comics Dominic Davies, Candida Rifkind, 2020-05-21 Why are so many contemporary comics and graphic narratives written as memoirs or documentaries of traumatic events Is there a specific relationship between the comics form and the documentation and reportage of trauma How do the interpretive demands made on comics readers shape their relationships with traumatic events And how does comics documentation of traumatic pasts operate across national borders and in different cultural political and politicised contexts The sixteen chapters and three comics included in Documenting Trauma in

Comics set out to answer exactly these questions Drawing on a range of historically and geographically expansive examples the contributors bring their different perspectives to bear on the tangled and often fraught intersections between trauma studies comics studies and theories of documentary practices and processes The result is a collection that shows how comics is not simply related to trauma but a generative force that has become central to its remembrance documentation and study

Permanent Liminality and Modernity Arpad Szakolczai,2016-10-04 This book offers a comprehensive sociological study of the nature and dynamics of the modern world through the use of a series of anthropological concepts including the trickster schismogenesis imitation and liminality Developing the view that with the theatre playing a central role the modern world is conditioned as much by cultural processes as it is by economic technological or scientific ones the author contends the world is to a considerable extent theatrical a phenomenon experienced as inauthenticity or a loss of direction and meaning As such the novel is revealed as a means for studying our theatricalised reality not simply because novels can be understood to be likening the world to theatre but because they effectively capture and present the reality of a world that has been thoroughly theatricalised and they do so more effectively than the main instruments usually employed to analyse reality philosophy and sociology With analyses of some of the most important novelists and novels of modern culture including Rilke Hofmannsthal Kafka Mann Blixen Broch and Bulgakov and focusing on fin de siècle Vienna as a crucial threshold chronotope of modernity Permanent Liminality and Modernity demonstrates that all seek to investigate and unmask the theatricalisation of modern life with its progressive loss of meaning and our deteriorating capacity to distinguish between what is meaningful and what is artificial Drawing on the work of Nietzsche Bakhtin and Girard to examine the ways in which novels explore the reduction of human existence to a state of permanent liminality in the form of a sacrificial carnival this book will appeal to scholars of social anthropological and literary theory
