

The majority of new video games may be released in the final three or four months of the year, but they are previewed at the Electronic Entertainment Expo, or E3, early in the summer. This year, retailers, journalists, and industry players from around the world will gather in Atlanta in June to check out the hottest games for the upcoming season. Nintendo Power has compiled this exclusive, insider preview of the awesome N64 lineup that will debut at the show. Some of these games were so top secret that they have never even been mentioned to the public before. Prepare to be amazed.
