The Toho Studios Story Stuart Galbraith IV, 2008-05-16 Since its inception in 1933 Toho Co Ltd Japan's most famous movie production company and distributor has produced and or distributed some of the most notable films ever to come out of Asia including Seven Samurai Godzilla When a Woman Ascends the Stairs Kwaidan Woman in the Dunes Ran Shall We Dance Ringu and Spirited Away While the western world often defines Toho by its iconic classics which include the Godzilla franchise and many of the greatest films of the legendary director Akira Kurosawa and actor Toshiro Mifune these pictures represent but a tiny fraction of Toho's rich history The Toho Studios Story A History and Complete Filmography provides a complete picture of every Toho feature the Japanese studio produced and released as well as foreign films that it distributed during its first 75 years Presented chronologically each entry in the filmography includes where applicable the original Japanese title a direct translation of that title the film's international U S release and alternate titles production credits including each film's producers director screenwriters cinematographers art directors and composers among others casts with character names production companies technical specs running times and release dates U S release data including distributor whether the film was released subtitled or dubbed and alternate versions domestic and international awards and plot synopses The Video Source Book David J. WEINER, 1990 The Journal of Japanese Studies, 2006 A multidisciplinary forum for communicating new information new interpretations and recent research results concerning Japan to the English reading world Sons of Cain Peter Vronsky, 2018-08-14 From the author of Serial Killers The Method and Madness of Monsters comes an in depth examination of sexual serial killers throughout human history how they evolved and why we are drawn to their horrifying crimes Before the term was coined in 1981 there were no serial killers There were only monsters killers society first understood as werewolves vampires ghouls and witches or later Hitchcockian psychos In Sons of Cain a book that fills the gap between dry academic studies and sensationalized true crime investigative historian Peter Vronsky examines our understanding of serial killing from its prehistoric anthropological evolutionary dimensions in the pre civilization era c 15 000 BC to today Delving further back into human history and deeper into the human psyche than Serial Killers Vronsky's 2004 book which has been called the definitive history of serial murder he focuses strictly on sexual serial killers thrill killers who engage in murder rape torture cannibalism and necrophilia as opposed to for profit serial killers including hit men or political serial killers like terrorists or genocidal murderers These sexual serial killers differ from all other serial killers in their motives and their foundations They are uniquely human and as popular culture has demonstrated uniquely fascinating 1996 Comic Book Index Johnny Lauck, John R. G. Barrett, 1996 The Whole Story John E. Simkin, 1996 This work is the only comprehensive guide to sequels in English with over 84 000 works by 12 500 authors in 17 000 sequences The Enemy Within Terry Crowdy, 2011-12-20 Separating myth from reality The Enemy Within traces the history of espionage from its development in ancient times through to the end of the Cold War and beyond shedding light on the clandestine activities that have so often tipped the balance in times of war This detailed account delves into the murky depths of the realm of spymasters and their spies revealing many amazing and often bizarre stories along the way From the monkey hanged as a spy during the Napoleonic wars to the British Double Cross Committee in World War II this journey through the history of espionage shows us that no two spies are alike and their fascinating stories are fraught with danger and intrigue Black Belt ,1988-03 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known martial arts figure in the world
