9 pages | 2119 words

In this reflective essay I will provide an analysis of the counselling session I conducted and recorded. This will include a summary of the session. I will also describe the micro and advanced counselling skills utilised, as well as a critical evaluation of their effectiveness. A discussion of my application of these skills, as well as areas of possible improvement will supported by reference to relevant literature.

Summary of the session.

Leesa is a 37-year-old woman who I have seen around four months previously. At the previous session Leesa spoke of her frustrations at work and of her hopes of securing a promotion. Leesa's presentation was one of lethargy consistent with someone who was suffering feelings of depression. I began the session by welcoming the client and reminding her of the confidentiality agreement. Leesa had previously worked in the hospitality industry but explained that had decided to terminate her employment after being overlooked for a promotion. She also explained that she had felt a lack of fairness and respect from her employer and fellow employees. Since leaving her position in hospitality Leesa had sought employment through an agency that provides office work opportunities. Leesa explained that she had had four different jobs in the past three months and that she was experiencing a similar feeling of being disrespected.

Leesa spoke of experiencing a lack of self-confidence at the moment and a feeling of being stuck as well as frustration and uncertainty around her future direction. However the client was able to identify that she would like to be more financially secure, feel respected at work and to achieve a greater sense of confidence. Leesa spoke of a time when she enjoyed her work and private life more, and was able to relate some of the key differences that contributed to her feeling more respected and confident in general. The client identified that she would like to seek alternative employment that allowed her to take on grater responsibility and that involved less travel. Leesa believed that her employment agency may be able to assist her, but admitted that she had not been discerning about the kinds of roles that she took recently due to her financial situation.

She also disclosed that she had been isolating due to her current state of mind. Accepting a homework challenge Leesa agreed to approach some friends to see if she could catch up with them at the next weekend. She also agreed to compile a list of the sorts of jobs that she felt she was qualified for and believed that she could achieve a greater feeling of responsibility and respect. Leesa said that she would approach her employment agency to see if they could help, and that she would bring her list to the next counseling session.

Counselling skills application. Reflecting upon the counseling session it is clear that I utilised a range of conversational micro skills.

Counseling Skills Second Edition uniquely encompasses both theory and practice from the perspectives of a diverse array of theoretical schools and practice strategies. While continuing to disseminate counseling fundamentals, the second edition focuses extensively on the acquisition of robust interviewing and counseling skills, including special preparation for the initial assessment and counseling session. It is also distinguished by its integration of cognitive behavioral and psychodynamic therapy approaches. Throughout the text, it emphasizes the importance of multicultural humility and a multicultural orientation to counseling, including challenging students to examine their own backgrounds and biases. This latest edition also addresses key aspects of telehealth that have come to the fore during the COVID pandemic. The use of case examples throughout highlights multiple theoretical approaches and illustrates how to integrate a wide range of perspectives. With an emphasis on counseling clients from diverse cultural backgrounds, each chapter focuses on strategies for working with varied populations, with an emphasis on intersectionality. The authors consider many forms of diversity, including race, ethnicity, immigration, and country of origin, along with age, gender, sexual orientation, religion, language, and physical and cognitive abilities. Purchase includes digital access for use on most mobile devices or computers. Updates to the instructor's resources include an Instructor's Manual, Power Points, and a new test bank. New to the Second Edition: Includes a new chapter on Theoretical Integration of Approaches in Counseling; New discussions on how to successfully use telehealth for interviewing and counseling; Includes Hot off the Press boxes highlighting cutting edge research to inform strategies for counseling and professional development. The entire text has been updated with the latest research and clinical references. Key Features: Includes an emphasis on multicultural competence and humility throughout the text and features a Spotlight on Culture focusing on specific cultural considerations in each chapter; Provides a balanced, integrated theoretical and practical approach to interviewing and counseling with a focus on skills development; Discusses evidence-based practice, assessment, diagnosis, and when/how to end treatment; Teaches the fundamental skills of empathy, active listening, treatment planning, and developing a strong therapeutic alliance with the client.

Christians Who Counsel Ray S. Anderson,2010-11-01 How does one view Christian counseling as a calling What is the role and task of the counselor from a theological perspective How does one strip away the ambiguity that is too often inherent in the words therapy and counseling in a religious setting Ray S Anderson has written this book as a theologian with a keen interest in helping Christian counselors fulfill their task more effectively by enabling them to see that task more clearly Too often even counselors who achieve effective results are beset by what Anderson calls an uneasy conscience the realization that for some reason a little transactional analysis once a week works better than a month of Sundays in curing the souls of troubled parishioners This book seeks to put that uneasiness and ambiguity to rest by helping counselors see their work as a means of grace rooted in a model of personhood that is both theologically and psychologically sound for realizing the full potential of each person Christians Who Counsel has three parts involving building a foundation for Christian counseling exploring the spiritual dynamics in counseling and describing counseling in a distinctly Christian mode Written without either theological or psychological jargon this book is for all Christians who counsel whether pastors lay counselors psychotherapists or family therapists With clarity of vision comes the power of a renewed commitment Spiritual Care in our Multifaith World Daniel S. Schipani,2024-07-16 Across the helping professions and as a compassionate response to human suffering spiritual care is a special process of companioning Furthermore all forms of spiritual care always consist in connecting diverse wisdom traditions with care receivers spiritual resources longings and struggles in socio cultural and contextually pertinent ways This book thoroughly explicates such understanding with interdisciplinary lenses Its main purpose is to offer a comprehensive response to the new challenges and opportunities for excellent care presented by increasing cultural and religious spiritual pluralization Practical guidelines and case studies are connected with models of spirituality spiritual toxicity and injury communication strategies for engaging difference patterns of caregiving work and profiles of professional competence In addition to offering an overarching orientation to the field the contents of this book invite further reflection dialogue and collaboration among clinical pastoral education and psychospiritual therapy students and supervisors chaplains pastors and other religious caregivers counselors psychotherapists and others interested in spiritual care in our multifaith world It thus reflects the shared hope and indeed the expectation that spiritual care theory and practice across traditions and disciplines will continue to be enhanced in the days ahead
