St James Ame Church Sunday School Lesson:

North Brevard County John T. Manning, Robert H. Hudson, 1999 The early pioneer settlement of LaGrange Community in Brevard County in 1858 pre dated the missile launches on North Merritt Island by just one hundred years During that span of time the northern part of Brevard County underwent significant growth and development homes were built land farmed businesses established and churches built The citrus industry provided North Brevard with a productive agricultural economy that remained strong until the advent of the space age With the federal government s purchase of the land north of the port of Canaveral in the 1950s the Cape Canaveral Missile Test Center was established Later when more land was needed the Kennedy Space Center was built on North Merritt Island Many North Brevard towns communities and homesteads disappeared when the governmental acquisition of land forced residents to relocate but it was this new era of technology that helped shift North Brevard from the farm age to the space age The First Migrants Richard Edwards, Jacob K. Friefeld, 2023-08 2024 Caroline Bancroft History Prize Winner from the Denver Public Library 2024 Nebraska Book Award Winner 2024 Spur Award Finalist 2024 Jon Gjerde Prize Honorable Mention for best book in Midwestern History The First Migrants recounts the largely unknown story of Black people who migrated from the South to the Great Plains between 1877 and 1920 in search of land and freedom They exercised their rights under the Homestead Act to gain title to 650 000 acres settling in all of the Great Plains states Some created Black homesteader communities such as Nicodemus Kansas and DeWitty Nebraska while others including George Washington Carver and Oscar Micheaux homesteaded alone All sought a place where they could rise by their own talents and toil unencumbered by Black codes repression and violence In the words of one Nicodemus descendant they found a place they could experience real freedom though in a racist society that freedom could never be complete Their quest foreshadowed the epic movement of Black people out of the South known as the Great Migration In this first account of the full scope of Black homesteading in the Great Plains Richard Edwards and Jacob K Friefeld weave together two distinct strands the narrative histories of the six most important Black homesteader communities and the several themes that characterize homesteaders shared experiences Using homestead records diaries and letters interviews with homesteaders descendants and other sources Edwards and Friefeld illuminate the homesteaders fierce determination to find freedom and their greatest achievements and struggles for full equality The Sunday school chronicle [afterw.] New chronicle of Christian education National Sunday school union, 1877 The Encyclopaedia of the African Methodist Episcopal Church Richard Robert Wright, 1947 Containing principally the biographies of the men and women both ministers and laymen whose labors during a hundred and sixty years helped make the AME Church what it is Also short historical sketches of Annual Conferences educational institutions General Departments Missionary Societies of the AME Church and general information about historical theological sociological legal and other matters concerning African Methodism and the Christian church in general Family Visiter; and Sunday School
