The Shoal Of Time:

Shoal of Time Gavan Daws, 1974-06 The arrival of Captain Cook and the debates concerning the territory's admission to statehood are given equal attention in this detailed history

Paradise Past Robert W. Kirk, 2012-11-07 In the 400 years from Magellan's entrance into Pacific waters to 1920 the lives of the people of the South Pacific were utterly transformed Exotic diseases from Europe and America particularly the worldwide influenza pandemic were deadly for islanders Ardent missionaries changed the belief systems and lives of nearly all Polynesians Aborigines and those Papuans and Melanesians living in areas accessible to westerners By 1920 every island and atoll in the South Seas had been claimed as a colony or protectorate of a power such as Britain France or the United States Factors aiding this imperial sweep included European outposts such as Sydney advances in maritime technology the work of missionaries a desire to profit from the area's relatively sparse resources and international rivalry that led to the scramble for colonies The coming of westerners as this book points out was not entirely negative as head hunting cannibalism chronic warfare human sacrifice and other practices were diminished but whole cultures were irreversibly changed or even eradicated

The Indigenous Experience Roger Maaka, Chris Andersen, 2006 The Indigenous Experience Global Perspectives is the first book of its kind In attempting to present the reader with some of the richness and heterogeneity of Indigenous colonial experiences the articles featured in this provocative new volume constitute a broad survey of Indigenous Peoples from around the globe Examples are drawn from the North American nations of Canada and the United States the Hispanic nations of Latin America Australia New Zealand Hawaii and Rapanui from Oceania from Northern Europe and the circumpolar region Norway and from the continent of Africa an example from Nigeria The readings focus on the broader issues of indigeneity in globalization the book is organized by universal themes that stretch across national and geographic boundaries The processes of colonization that include conquest slavery and dependence Colonialism genocide and the problem of intention Social constructs myths and criminalization The ongoing struggle to attain social justice self determination and equity
