Raised Italian-American Joseph Bonocore,2005 Raised Italian American remembers the history stories traditions and values of growing up in an Italian neighborhood One of my fondest memories as a child was to take a ride and view the beautiful nativity scenes that were erected throughout the neighborhood each Christmas The popularity of these large statues they are called presepi in Italy started in Italy in the 17th century when it was fashionable to find them in palaces and homes of wealthy citizens The newfound enthusiasm of erecting a presepi during Christmas may be contributed to Saint Gaetano who openly encouraged people to create the presepi as a sign of devotion It wasn t until the later part of the 19th century that these presepi became a part of family traditions in nearly every home in Italy This set is a beautiful piece of art and is a prized possession of the families that own them I know that Phyllis grandmother cherished her presepi until the day she died and the family still think fondly of their grandmother every time they see it at Christmas time

Mama Nazima's Jewish-Iraqi Cuisine Rivka Goldman,2006 When the Jews fled Iraq for Israel they could not take their material possessions with them but did take their rich cuisine Delicious dishes like Smack ab Thum oo Rihan Garlic and Basil Fish and Burekas im Gevina veh Tered Feta and Spinach Pie are included in this unique book Jewish Iraqi aphorisms and beautiful photographs complete this presentation of the foods of the Iraqi Jews As the saying goes Man yakle al ein au el thum Who desires the food the eyes or the mouth

Tasting Cultures: Thoughts for Food Maria José Pires, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 A myriad of fresh possibilities is offered when researching in food studies Just like any other area of knowledge researchers here breathe the present because they have already absorbed the past and can easily try to devise the future As the question of authenticity and adaptability rises urgently we gain knowledge of the specificities where cultural heritage faces assimilation from other lifestyles in an effort to save and reshape the community and its cultural identity Food researchers have also struggled with the constructions and measuring of tastes within diverse communities by comparison to other references even though it has become harder to discern matters from expert advice and controlled mediation Therefore we invariably come across the power of representations in deep association with culture and the society that produces them for there are increasingly complex food systems bearing diverse layers of meaning The Washingtonian ,1991
