Michael Bell,1997-01-28 The use of myth in Modernist literature is a misleadingly familiar theme Joyce s appropriation of Homer s Odyssey and Eliot s of Frazer s Golden Bough are like Lawrence s primitivism or Yeats s nationalist folklore attempts to discover an underlying metaphysic in an increasingly fragmented world In Literature Modernism and Myth Michael Bell also examines the relationship of myth and modernism to postmodernism Myth Bell shows is inherently flexible it was used to justify Pound s totalizing vision of society which eventually descended into fascism and the liberal ironic vision of human existence Joyce and Mann expressed Those theorists who present myth as another form of mystification a search for false origins ignore its use by modernists to emphasise the ultimate contingency of all values This anti foundational element Bell claims enables myth to act as a corrective to the claims of ideological critique Bell shows how postmodern concerns with political and social responsibility and the role literature plays in formulating this have in fact been inherited from modernism The Self-Disclosure of God William C. Chittick,2015-03-26 The Self Disclosure of God offers the most detailed presentation to date in any Western language of the basic teachings of Islam's greatest mystical philosopher and theologian. It represents a major step forward in making available to the Western reading public the enormous riches of Islamic teachings in the fields of cosmology, mystical philosophy, theology, and spirituality. The Self Disclosure of God continues the author's investigations of the world view of Ibn al Arab, the greatest theoretician of Sufism and the seal of the Muhammadan saints. The book is divided into three parts dealing with the relation between God and the cosmos, the structure of the cosmos, and the nature of the human soul. A long introduction orients the reader and discusses a few of the difficulties faced by Ibn al Arab's interpreters. Like Chittick's earlier work The Sufi Path of Knowledge, this book is based primarily on Ibn al Arab's monumental work al Fut t al Makk yah The Meccan Openings. More than one hundred complete chapters and subsections are translated, not to mention shorter passages that help put the longer discussions in context. There are detailed indices of sources, Koranic verses, and hadiths. The book's index of technical terminology will be an indispensable reference for all those wishing to delve more deeply into the use of language in Islamic thought in general and Sufism in particular.

Understanding Reality Boduan Zhang, Yiming Liu, 1987-12 Intercultural Understanding After Wittgenstein Carla Carmona, David Perez-Chico, Chon Tejedor, 2023-03-14 This volume addresses from a Wittgensteinian perspective the philosophical question of how to understand other cultures. It develops an approach to this question that emphasizes the connection between its epistemological, ethical, and political aspects, bringing into conversation Wittgensteinian and other cultural philosophical traditions, notably from Japan, China, India, and the West African Yoruba communities. Foundations of T'ien-T'ai Philosophy Paul Loren Swanson, 1989 A chronological account of the development of the Two Truth theory, which forms the foundation of T'ien T'ai philosophy, the teaching of the Threefold Truth, and includes an annotated translation of Chih i's Fa hua hsuan i, a must for all major libraries. Choice, a must for all Buddhist collections. Religious Studies Review.

A Map of the Divine Subtle Faculty Mehmet Yavuz Seker, 2015-04-07 The heart in the Islamic understanding is the expression of a human being's spiritual existence. It is a Divine gift and Divine subtle faculty bestowed upon humanity. It is a polished mirror reflecting God. Like a general, the heart commands all other bodily organs and faculties, which are its troops. Everything that comes from a human being, whether good or bad, is a product of the heart. Mehmet Y. Seker, a scholar of Sufism and tasawwuf, studies the concept of the heart in the Islamic tradition, looking at how it is approached by three prominent scholars and thinkers of Islam: Ghazali, Said Nursi, and Fethullah Gulen. Being the first in English to take as its focus the human heart from an Islamic spiritual perspective, this book comparatively analyzes classical and modern age interpretations and evaluations on the concept and adds to the rich literature of spirituality in the Islamic tradition. Applied Ethics Michael Schwartz, Howard Harris, 2012-08-17 The past editor of this series was an outstanding teacher of business ethics and a longtime chair of the Theology Department at St John's University in New York City. In this title, some of the contributions are from his colleagues and reflect his influence as both a business ethics teacher and as a scholar. The Century
