Scope Magazine February 2015:

Red Road to Freedom Tom Lodge, 2022 Definitive and gripping narrative history of the Communist Party of South Africa

Focus On: 100 Most Popular Nonlinear Narrative Films Wikipedia contributors, The Sublimity of Document Scott MacDonald, 2019 The Sublimity of Document Cinema as Diorama is a collection of in depth substantive interviews with moving image artists working avant doc that is making films that explore the territory between documentary and experimental cinema The book uses the early history of the museum habitat diorama of animal life specifically the Hall of African Mammals at the American Museum of Natural History as a way of rethinking both early and modern cinema document and especially those recent filmmakers and films that are devoted to providing viewers with panoramic documentations of places and events that otherwise they might never have opportunities to experience in person This international collection of 27 interviews follows on MacDonald s earlier Avant Doc Intersections of Documentary and Avant Garde Cinema Oxford 2015 The interviews organized panoramically within the collection are dense with information and insight and readable by specialists and non specialists alike In most instances these are the most in depth and expansive sometimes the first interviews with these filmmakers Together these interviews offer an engaging panorama of the recent history and geography of cinema devoted to documenting the world around us as well as an in depth look at the challenges and accomplishments of filmmakers willing to go anywhere on the planet or on the internet to document what they believe we need to see MacDonald s general introduction provides an overall context for the collection which includes interviews with Ron Fricke Gustav Deutsch Laura Poitras Fred Wiseman Nikolaus Geyrhalter Bill Morrison Brett Story Abbas Kiarostami Lois Pati o Dominic Gagnon Erin Espelie Yance Ford Janet Biggs Carlos Adriano Craig Johnson Ben Russell Betzy Bromberg James Benning Maxim Pozdorovkin along with several veterans of Harvard s Sensory Ethnography Lab and with the executive directors of the distributor Documentary Educational Resources which has served the field of independent documentary for nearly fifty years each interview is introduced with MacDonald s overview of the interviewee s life and work The book includes filmographies and selected bibliographies for all the filmmakers Andy Varipapa Glenn Gerstner, 2024-04-19 Born in Italy in 1891 Andy Varipapa immigrated to the United States in 1903 uneducated and unable to speak English Equipped with little more than athletic ability the will to succeed and a healthy dose of self confidence he became bowling s first superstar In the 1940s and 1950s Varipapa was the world s most famous bowler For more than 50 years he dazzled fans with an array of never before seen trick shots in person on movie screens and on television Varipapa was not only a performer but one of the greatest bowlers ever He won the prestigious BPAA All Star tournament in 1946 silencing critics who claimed he was just an entertainer And he did so at age 55 long past most bowlers retirement age To prove it was no fluke he repeated in 1947 Bowling fans recognized the outspoken and brash Great Varipapa who once said I m the most skillful talkative and controversial bowler who ever lived Few knew Andy the kind and loyal family man and friend

Sourced from interviews with family and friends and more than 1 000 secondary sources this first ever biography of Varipapa tells the personal story of bowling s greatest showman and one of its most influential figures Media Today Joseph Turow,2016-10-04 Media Today uses convergence as a lens that puts students at the center of the profound changes in the 21st century media world Through the convergence lens they learn to think critically about the role of media today and what these changes mean for their lives presently and in the future The book s media systems approach helps students to look carefully at how media content is created distributed and exhibited in the new world that the digital revolution has created From newspapers to video games and social networking to mobile platforms Media Today prepares students to live in the digital world of media EBOOK: Principles and Practice of Marketing JOBBER, DAVID/E,2016-03-16 EBOOK Principles and Practice of Marketing The Other in Contemporary Migrant Cinema Guido Rings,2016-01-08 As a rapidly aging continent Europe increasingly depends on the successful integration of migrants Unfortunately contemporary political and media discourses observe and frequently also support the development of nationalist eurosceptic and xenophobic reactions to immigration and growing multiethnicity Confronting this trend European cinema has developed and disseminated new transcultural and postcolonial alternatives that might help to improve integration and community cohesion in Europe and this book investigates these alternatives in order to identify examples of good practices that can enhance European stability While the cinematic spectrum is as wide and open as most notions of Europeaness the films examined share a fundamental interest in the Other In this qualitative film analysis approach particular consideration is given to British French German and Spanish productions and a comparison of multiethnic conviviality in Chicano cinema The Haunted Cinema of Pedro Costa James Naremore,Darlene J. Sadlier,2025-07-01 For over three decades Portuguese director Pedro Costa has been widely admired for his unusual and innovative body of work which has earned accolades and wide acclaim The Haunted Cinema of Pedro Costa is the most complete treatment of his work exploring Costa s feature films from Blood to Vitalina Varela and from the documentaries to the short films museum exhibitions and the forthcoming Daughters of Fire Authors James Naremore and Darlene J Sadlier situate Costa within the history and culture of Portugal at the same time providing insightful close readings and stylistic analysis of the films Their work explores the unusual features of his artistry and illuminates his unique contribution to cinema An accessible portrait of an important artist The Haunted Cinema of Pedro Costa is an indispensable companion for scholars students and cinephiles everywhere Screening China's Soft Power Paola Voci,Luo Hui,2017-10-02 Promoting China s cultural soft power by disseminating modern Chinese values is one of the policies of President Xi Jinping Although it is usually understood as a top down initiative implemented willingly or unwillingly by writers filmmakers artists and so on and often manifesting itself in clumsy and awkward ways for example the concept of the Chinese dream intended to rival and perhaps appeal more strongly than the American dream modern Chinese values are in fact put forward in many ways by many different cultural actors Through analyses of film festivals CCTV Confucius

Institutes auteurs blockbusters reality TV and online digital cultures this book exposes the limitations of China's officially promoted soft power in both conception and practice and proposes a pluralistic approach to understanding Chinese soft power in local regional and transnational contexts As such the book demonstrates the limitations of existing theories of soft power and argues that the US derived concept of soft power can benefit from being examined from a China perspective

Trouble Every Day Kate Robertson, 2021-06-15 Transgressive both in its narrative and in its filmmaking Trouble Every Day 2001 envisions the monster inside unspeakable urges and an overwhelming need for complete incorporation A plant discovered in the South American jungle produces in its test subjects a terrible unnatural and uncontrollable hunger Vicious all consuming desire begets excessive violence and a turn to cannibalism which situates Trouble Every Day into a tradition of challenging cinema a film maudit that pushes the boundaries of what can be shown on screen But while it is certainly an unflinching film it is deserving of reassessment as part of Clare Denis filmography as well as a broader cinematic lineage Focusing on close textual analysis this book delves into the surfeit of visual literary and non fiction references that shape Trouble Every Day while thwarting attempts to firmly situate it It considers its place in a lineage of films that push the boundary of taste and representation aligned as much with Un Chien andalou 1929 as the New French Extremity It also considers the film's relationship to such sub genres as classic monster movies video nasties mad science gothic vampire body horror and Italo exploitation cannibal films and directors such as Abel Ferrara Brian de Palma Jean Renoir and Jacques Tourneau Drawing on a range of disciplines including art philosophy and phenomenology this study explores how Trouble Every Day elicits a visceral response to a cinematic experience that beguiles and violates

Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture John Powers, 2023 The Bolex camera 16mm reversal film stocks commercial film laboratories and low budget optical printers were the small gauge media technologies that provided the infrastructure for experimental filmmaking at the height of its cultural impact Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture examines how the avant garde embraced these material resources and invested them with meanings and values adjacent to those of semiprofessional film culture By reasserting the physicality of the body in making time lapse and kinesthetic sequences with the Bolex filmmakers conversed with other art forms and integrated broader spheres of humanistic and scientific inquiry into their artistic process Drawing from the photographic qualities of stocks such as Tri X and Kodachrome they discovered pliant metaphors that allowed them to connect their artistic practice to metaphysics spiritualism and Hollywood excess By framing film labs as mystical or adversarial they cultivated an oppositionality that valorized control over the artistic process And by using the optical printer as a tool for excavating latent meaning out of found footage they posited the reworking of images as fundamental to the exploration of personal and cultural identity Providing a wealth of new detail about the making of canonized avant garde classics by such luminaries as Carolee Schneemann Jack Smith and Stan Brakhage as well as rediscovering works from overlooked artists such as Chick Strand Amy Halpern and Gunvor Nelson Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture uses technology as a lens for examining the process of making where ideas come from how they are put into practice and how arguments about those ideas foster cultural and artistic commitments and communities Focus On: 100 Most Popular 21St-century American Musicians Wikipedia contributors, EU Law in Populist Times Francesca Bignami,2020-01-02 A state of the art analysis of the contentious areas of EU law that have been put in the spotlight by populism Enforcing Cybersecurity in Developing and Emerging Economies Zeinab Karake,Rana A. Shalhoub,Huda Ayas,2017 This unique innovative examination of cyberspace policies and strategies and their relation to cyber laws and regulations in developing and emerging economies uses economic political and social perspectives as a vehicle for analysis With cyber risk at the top of the global agenda as high profile breaches increase worries that cybersecurity attacks might compromise the world economy this analysis becomes relevant across disciplines Green Building Costs Ming Hu,2023-08-08 Sustainability has become a driver of innovation in the built environment but the affordability of sustainable building remains a significant challenge This book takes a critical view of the real cost of green building It provides readers with a non biased evaluation based on empirical construction cost data and sheds light on the affordability of sustainable buildings Chapters are presented in three parts The first part lays the foundation to demystify the perception of green buildings being expensive to construct by providing empirical evidence that green buildings even net zero buildings are not necessarily more expensive to build than conventional buildings The second part presents empirical evidence common misperceptions of a higher green building construction cost are debunked The author offers a new framework to explain the construction cost drivers and differences of sustainable buildings the project characteristics and project team characteristics human factors The third part directs the readers attention to the important role that human factors play in controlling and reducing construction costs with a focus on the project design team A lack of skills expertise and experience during the design phase is likely to be the biggest contributor to higher construction costs Empirical analysis case studies on LEED certified buildings and interviews with project teams are used to present a pathway to more affordable green building at the end This will be a crucial resource for students and professionals in architecture engineering construction management and planning and energy policy A History of International Civil Aviation Alan Dobson,2017-04-21 Cover Title Copyright Dedication Contents Foreword List of abbreviations 1 Introduction From civil aviation s origins to the Paris Convention 1919 2 The inter war predatory bilateral system 1919 1939 3 Wartime planning and the Chicago Conference 1939 1944 4 The Chicago Bermuda regime Its operation and the challenge of deregulation 1945 1992 5 Creating the single European aviation market 6 Open skies and a fully globalized world market Challenge and reality 1992 2016 7 Conclusion Unfinished business References Index The New BJP Nalin Mehta,2024-07-11 This book examines how the BJP became the world s largest political party It goes beyond the usual narrative of the party s Hindutva politics to explain how under Narendra Modi the party reshaped the Indian polity using its own brand of social engineering

According to the findings of this book this reconstruction was cleverly powered by new caste coalitions the claim of a new welfare state that focused on marginalised social groups and the making of a women voter base Based on data from three unique indices the Mehta Singh Social Index which studies the caste composition of Indian political parties the Narad Index which calculates communication patterns across topics and audiences and PollNiti which connects and tallies hundreds of political and economic datasets The New BJP is full of startling insights into the way both the party and the country function Previously untapped historical records exclusive interviews with party leaders and comprehensive reportage from across India provide a fresh understanding of the BJP s growth areas including the Northeast and south India A lucid and objective study of the BJP and India today this book will be useful to researchers journalists students activists and general public alike Print edition not for sale in South Asia Bangladesh Bhutan India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka
