The Complex Donald W. Tucker, 2011-08 United States Secret Service agent Wesley Charles is furious when his racist boss forces him to attend a seminar at the new law enforcement complex in Dallas Wes knows the seminar is a monumental waste of his time he belongs on the Chicago streets doing what he does best which is busting counterfeiters The presence of Charles old friend Secret Service agent Louis Boron Seattle cop James Allen and beautiful DEA agent Wendy Weissman provide a welcome distraction from the mind numbing classes The four inadvertently discover that something menacing is lurking behind The Complex's facade of inter agency cooperation. When their investigations reveal a conspiracy that threatens the very fabric of American democracy they find themselves up against a powerful unknown enemy and running for their lives. The explosion came in the middle of the night igniting the gas line engulfing the little house in flames and tossing its occupants onto the floor. Wes choked on the smoke and felt for his piece. He tucked it into the waistband of his sweats, crawled to the bathroom and grabbed a towel from the rack. Somehow the water was still running. He soaked himself and the towel in the tub thoroughly before attempting to break through the wall of smoke that had enveloped the master bedroom. He could hear Talbot's screams amid the crackling of the flames and the tinkling of glass. And he could hear Gordon calling his name from the direction of the kitchen. Gordon he shouted. Can you hear me? After graduating from the University of Iowa with a BA degree in Sociology/Criminology, Mr. Tucker began his career with the Federal Bureau of Narcotics in Chicago, Illinois, and subsequently transferred to the U.S. Secret Service where he eventually was promoted to the position of Special Agent in Charge of the Secret Service Office for Arizona. Later, Mr. Tucker received a Presidential Appointment as U.S. Marshal for the State of Arizona and afterwards was selected as the Chief of Court Security in Washington, D.C. for the Federal Court system nationwide. Finally, he returned to Arizona and opened his own Private Investigation Agency. This is Mr. Tucker's second book; the first was his auto bio, The Two Edged Sword. The Politics of Protection Philip H. Melanson, 1984 MI6 Keith Jeffery, 2010-09-21 The first and only history of the Secret Intelligence Service written with full and unrestricted access to the closed archives of the Service for the period 1909-1949.

The Birth of the Soviet Secret Police Boris Volodarsky,2023-05-31 This book is new in every aspect and not only because neither the official history nor an unofficial history of the KGB and its many predecessors and successors exists in any language In this volume the author deals with the origins of the KGB from the Tsarist Okhrana the first Russians secret political police to the OGPU Joint State Political Directorate one of the KGB predecessors between 1923 and 1934 Based on documents from the Russian archives the author clearly demonstrates that the Cheka and GPU OGPU were initially created to defend the revolution and not for espionage The Okhrana operated in both the Russian Empire and abroad against the revolutionaries and most of its operations presented in this book are little known The same is the case with regards to the period after the

Cheka was established in December 1917 until ten years later when Trotsky was expelled from the Communist Party and exiled and Stalin rose to power For the long period after the Revolution and up to the Second World War and indeed beyond until the death of Stalin the Cheka s main weapon was terror to create a general climate of fear in a population In the book the work of the Cheka and its successors against the enemies of the revolution is paralleled with British and American operations against the Soviets inside and outside of Russia For the first time the creation of the Communist International Comintern is shown as an alternative Soviet espionage organization for wide scale foreign propaganda and subversion operations based on the new revelations from the Soviet archives Here the early Soviet intelligence operations in several countries are presented and analyzed for the first time as are raids on the Soviet missions abroad The Bolshevik smuggling of the Russian imperial treasures is shown based on the latest available archival sources with misinterpretations and sometimes false interpretations in existing literature revised After the Bolshevik revolution Mansfield Smith Cumming the first chief of SIS undertook to set up an entirely new Secret Service organization in Russia During those first ten years events would develop as a non stop struggle between British intelligence within Russia and abroad and the Cheka later GPU OGPU Before several show spy trials in 1927 British intelligence networks successfully operated in Russia later moving to the Baltic capitals Finland and Sweden while young Soviet intelligence officers moved to London Paris Berlin and Constantinople Many of those operations from both sides are presented in the book for the first time in this ground breaking study of the dark world of the KGB
