

PWF™ - 4GS/PWF™ - 4SS Wire Feeders

The PWF™ - 4GS & PWF™ - 4SS wire feeders are semiautomatic constant speed wire feeders. They are designed to be used with the Lincoln range of POWERPLUS™ and INVERTEC™ welding power sources. For easy connection, a rear "panel mount" connects the gas hose and control cable to the PWF™ Feeder. The welding cable lug is located on an insulated stud near the rear "panel mount".

The enclosed design keeps the dual-drive wire feeding mechanism out of contaminants. A wire cover protects the wire free of the dust and water.

PWF™ - 4GS wire feeder is designed for solid and flux-cored wire.

PWF™ - 4SS wire feeder is designed for self-shielded flux-cored wire.

A selection of drive rolls is available for various wires of different diameters. The Wire Feed Speed / Current can be adjusted before the arc starting. In that way, the feeder can provide a clean and reliable start with no sticking or spatter. Reliability and portability make PWF™ feeders the ideal choice for various welding applications.

SSLiterature For 2015:

Prizing Scottish Literature Stevie Marsden, 2021-02-15 This cultural history of the Saltire Society Literary Awards demonstrates the significance the awards have had within Scottish literary and cultural life It is one piece of the wider cultural award puzzle and illustrates how far from being parochial or niche lesser known awards whose histories may be yet untold play their own role in the circulation of cultural value through the consecration of literary value The study of the Society's Book of the Year and First Book of the Year Awards not only highlights how important connections between literary awards and national culture and identity are within prize culture and how literary awards and their founding institutions can be products of the socio political and cultural milieu in which they form but this study also illustrates how existing literary award scholarship has only begun to scratch the surface of the complexities of the phenomenon This book promotes a new approach to considering literary prizes proposing that the concept of the literary awards hierarchy can contribute to emerging and developing discourses pertaining to literary and indeed cultural prizes more broadly Critical Dictionary of English Literature, and British and American Authors, Living and Deceased, from the Earliest Accounts to the Middle of the Nineteenth Century Samuel Austin Allibone, 1870 The Best American Poetry 2015 David Lehman, 2015-09-08 Title page verso indicates hardcover edition but this ISBN is for the paperback printing A Critical Dictionary of English Literature and British and American Authors Samuel Austin Allibone, 1870 A History of Food in Literature Charlotte Boyce, Joan Fitzpatrick, 2017-05-18 When novels plays and poems refer to food they are often doing much more than we might think Recent critical thinking suggests that depictions of food in literary works can help to explain the complex relationship between the body subjectivity and social structures A History of Food in Literature provides a clear and comprehensive overview of significant episodes of food and its consumption in major canonical literary works from the medieval period to the twenty first century This volume contextualises these works with reference to pertinent historical and cultural materials such as cookery books diaries and guides to good health in order to engage with the critical debate on food and literature and how ideas of food have developed over the centuries Organised chronologically and examining certain key writers from every period including Chaucer Shakespeare Austen and Dickens this book's enlightening critical analysis makes it relevant for anyone interested in the study of food and literature The Cambridge Companion to Human Rights and Literature Crystal Parikh, 2019-07-11 This Companion considers what theoretical and practical possibilities emerge at the crossroads of human rights and literature Women Writing Trauma in Literature Laura Alexander, 2022-10-17 This collection features studies on trauma literary theory and psychoanalysis in women's writing It examines the ways in which literature helps to heal the wounded self and it particularly concentrates attention on the way women explain the traumatic experiences of war violence or displacement Covering a global range of women writers this book focuses on the psychoanalytic role of literature in helping recover the voices buried by intense pain and suffering and to help those voices be heard Literature brings the unconscious into being and focus reconfiguring life through narration These essays look at the relationship between traumatic experience and literary form An Introduction to Literature, Criticism and Theory Andrew Bennett,Nicholas Royle,2016-03-02 Lively original and highly readable An Introduction to Literature Criticism and Theory is the essential guide to literary studies Starting at The Beginning and concluding with The End chapters range from the familiar such as Character Narrative and The Author to the more unusual such as Secrets Pleasure and Ghosts Now in its fifth edition Bennett and Royle s classic textbook successfully illuminates complex ideas by engaging directly with literary works so that a reading of Jane Eyre opens up ways of thinking about racial difference for example while Chaucer Raymond Chandler and Monty Python are all invoked in a discussion of literature and laughter The fifth edition has been revised throughout and includes four new chapters Feelings Wounds Body and Love to incorporate exciting recent developments in literary studies In addition to further reading sections at the end of each chapter the book contains a comprehensive bibliography and a glossary of key literary terms A breath of fresh air in a field that can often seem dry and dauntingly theoretical this book will open the reader s eyes to the exhilarating possibilities of reading and studying literature and provide important critical perspectives on lesser known works The book also examines the use of genre in children s and young adult literature including crime fiction dystopia coming of age and historical fiction Addressing vital social justice themes in contemporary children s and young adult novels such as human trafficking postcolonialism disaster trauma and gender and race inequality the book presents a critically informed analysis of these compelling literary works and their engagement with social and cultural debates

Genres of Transition: Literature and Economy in Portuguese-Speaking Southern Africa Thomas Waller,2024-07-22 This book argues that literary production in Portuguese speaking southern Africa has developed distinctive aesthetic idioms that critically respond to crises of global capitalism and related failures of post colonial governance Drawing from recent research at the intersection of world systems analysis and materialist theories of world literature it identifies and evaluates two generic trends in the post independence literatures of Mozambique and Angola From the mid 1980s to the early 1990s there is a marked tendency in Mozambican literary production towards fictional representations of ghosts spectral effects and gothic narrative techniques In Angola there is an analogous outburst of literary expression from the mid 1990s onwards in which writers increasingly turn towards dystopian images of apocalypse ecological crisis and the disintegration of existing modes of social reproduction Away from a restricted focus on the decline of the post independence Marxist Leninist state the book contends that the upswing in these two genres of writing functions to critically register a world systemic horizon that both surpasses and includes locally determined national realities The patterned repetition of spectral and dystopian forms in Portuguese speaking southern Africa occurred at a time of heightened capitalisation in which the region was subjected to newly expropriative forms of accumulation and ecological enclosure via integration into a reconstellated world system headed by neoliberal finance capital Through close readings of texts by authors such as Mia Couto Suleiman Cassamo Ungulani Ba Ka Khosa Pepetela and Ondjaki this book asks What factors drove literary production towards the figure of the spectre in Mozambique and towards dystopia in Angola What emerging energies and social contradictions found shape in these generic idioms in ways that existing vocabularies were unable to express What does the geo temporal passage from spectrality to dystopia tell us about the history of capitalist development in southern Africa and about the restructuring of political economic parameters across the globe

Of Spaces and Ideas Petr Chalupský,Tereza Topolovská,2024-11-01 This monograph provides a deeper insight into the work of two contemporary British novelists Jim Crace and Simon Mawer with a particular emphasis on their spatial sensibility as one of the defining elements of their poetics Drawing on a range of literary theoretical approaches to space the study analyses selected novels by the two writers to demonstrate the ways in which they render space and place and above all the ways in which their spatial representations allow them to express the key ideas behind their stories namely those of identity history and the relationship between an individual and the environment in which they live

World Literature as Discovery Zhang Longxi,2023-09-15 The rise of world literature is the most noticeable phenomenon in literary studies in the twenty first century However truly well known and globally circulating works are all canonical works of European or Western literature while non European and even minor European literatures remain largely unknown beyond their culture of origin World Literature as Discovery Expanding the World Literary Canon argues that world literature for our time must go beyond Eurocentrism and expand the canon to include great works from non European and minor European literatures As much of the world s literature remains untranslated and unknown the expansion will be an exciting process of discovery By discussing fundamental questions around canon circulation aesthetic values translation cosmopolitanism and the literary universal Zhang Longxi proposes a new and liberating concept of world literature that will shape world literature worthy of its name This book speaks for a more inclusive idea of world literature and shows students and scholars alike that all the literary traditions particularly non European traditions will be able to make important contributions and expand the canon of world literature

Rethinking Modern Polish Identities Agnieszka Pasieka, Paweł Rodak, 2023 A critical examination of the category of Polishness that is the formation redefinition and performance of various kinds of Polish identities from a wide range of disciplinary perspectives Inspired by new research in the humanities and social sciences as well as recent scholarship on national identities this volume offers a rigorous examination of the idea of Polishness Offering a diversity of case studies and methodological theoretical approaches it demonstrates a profound connection between national and transnational processes and places the Polish case in a broader context This broader context stretches from a larger Eastern European one a usual frame of comparison to the overseas immigrant communities The authors renowned scholars from Europe and the United States thus demonstrate that an understanding of modern Polish identity means crossing not only historical but also geographical boundaries Consequently the narrative on Polish identity that unfolds in the volume is a personalized and multivocal one that presents the perspectives of a wide range of subjects peasants workers migrants ethnic and sexual minorities that is all those actors who have been absent in grand national narratives As such the examination of Polishness sheds light on the identity question more broadly emphasizing the interplay of pluralizing and homogenizing tendencies and fostering a reflection on national identity as encompassing both sameness and difference

Calling the Soul Back Christina Garcia Lopez, 2019-04-02 Spirituality has consistently been present in the political and cultural counternarratives of Chicana literature Calling the Soul Back focuses on the embodied aspects of a spirituality integrating body mind and soul Centering the relationship between embodiment and literary narrative Christina Garcia Lopez shows narrative as healing work through which writers and readers ritually call back the soul one s unique immaterial essence into union with the body counteracting the wounding fragmentation that emerged out of colonization and imperialism These readings feature both underanalyzed and more popular works by pivotal writers such as Gloria Anzaldá Sandra Cisneros and Rudolfo Anaya in addition to works by less commonly acknowledged authors Calling the Soul Back explores the spiritual and ancestral knowledge offered in narratives of bodies in trauma bodies engaged in ritual grieving bodies bodies immersed in and becoming part of nature and dreaming bodies Reading across narrative nonfiction performative monologue short fiction fables illustrated children s books and a novel Garcia Lopez asks how these narratives draw on the embodied intersections of ways of knowing and being to shift readers consciousness regarding relationships to space time and natural environments Using an interdisciplinary approach Calling the Soul Back draws on literary and Chicanx studies scholars as well as those in religious studies feminist studies sociology environmental studies philosophy and Indigenous studies to reveal narrative s healing potential to bring the soul into balance with the body and mind

Decolonisations of Literature Stefan Helgesson, 2022-04-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library This book sets out to understand how the meaning of literature was transformed in the Global South in the post 1945 era It looks at institutional contexts in South Africa mainly Johannesburg Brazil S o Paulo Senegal Dakar and Kenya Nairobi and engages with critical writing in English Portuguese and French Critics studied in the book include Antonio Candido Tim Couzens Isabel Hofmeyr Es kia Mphahlele L opold Senghor Taban Lo Liyong and Ngugi wa Thiong o By reading these intellectuals of the Global South as producers of theory and practice in their own right the book attempts to demonstrate the contingency of what is her called the worlding of the concept of literature Decolonisation itself is seen as a contingent non linear process that unfolds in a recursive dialogue with the past In a bid to offer a more grounded approach to world literature a key objective of this study is therefore to investigate the accumulation of temporalities in institutional histories of critical practice To reach this objective it engages the method of conceptual history as developed by Reinhart Koselleck and David Scott demonstrating how the concept of literature is resemanticised in ways that dialectically both challenge and consolidate literature as a concept and practice in post colonised societies
