Book Review

When Bolanle, a young university graduate, decides to settle, she settles, not with the conventional husband as her parents and loved ones would have wished, but with the patriarch of the Alao family, Baba Segi, husband of three wives and father of seven children.

The Secret Lives Of Baba Segi's Wives A Novel:

The Secret Lives of Baba Segi's Wives Rotimi Babatunde, 2018-06-07 The Secret Lives of Baba Segi's Wives is a scandalous engrossing tale of sexual politics and family strife in modern day Nigeria Lola Shoneyin's bestselling novel bursts on to the stage in a vivid adaptation by Caine Award winning playwright Rotimi Babatunde Men are like yam you cut them how you like Baba Segi has three wives seven children and a mansion filled with riches But now he has his eyes on Bolanle a young university graduate wise to life's misfortunes When Bolanle responds to Baba Segi's advances she unwittingly uncovers a secret which threatens to rock his patriarchal household to the core

The Secret Lives of Baba Segi's Wives Titilola Alexandrah Shoneyin, 2010 A riotous domestic African novel about rivalry secrets and jealous wives The Secret Lives of the Four Wives Lola Shoneyin, 2011-07-05 I didn't just happen upon this room I dreamed of the pale green walls before I arrived Attempting to rise above the secrets of her past Bolanle a university graduate marries Baba Segi who promises her everything in exchange for agreeing to become his fourth wife Thus she enters into a polygamous world filled with expensive clothes a generous monthly allowance and three Segi wives who disapprove of the newest youngest most educated addition to the family There's Iya Femi a fiery vixen with a taste for money Iya Tope a shy woman whose kindness is eclipsed by terror and Iya Segi the first most lethal and merciless of them all Bolanle quickly becomes Baba Segi's prized possession until her very presence unlocks a secret that the other wives have long since guarded and unleashing it could change life as they know it

Out in Africa Chantal J. Zabus, 2013 Homosexuality was and still is thought to be quintessentially un-African Yet in this book Chantal Zabus examines the anthropological cultural and literary representations of male and female same sex desire from early colonial contacts between Europe and Africa in the nineteenth century to the present Covering a broad geographical spectrum from Mali to South Africa and from Senegal to Kenya and adopting a comparative approach encompassing two colonial languages English and French and some African languages Out in Africa charts developments in Sub-Saharan African texts and contexts through the work of 7 colonial and some 25 postcolonial writers

Nigeria's Third-Generation Literature Ode Ogede, 2023-03-10 This book considers the evolution and characteristics of Nigeria's third generation literature which emerged between the late 1980s and the early 1990s and is marked by expressive modes and concerns distinctly different from those of the preceding era The creative writing of this period reflects new sensibilities and anxieties about Nigeria's changing fortunes in the post colonial era The literature of the third generation is startling in its candidness irreverence as well as the brutal self disclosure of its characters and it is governed by an unusually wide ranging sweep in narrative techniques This book examines six key texts of the oeuvre Maria Ajima's The Web Okey Ndibe's Foreign Gods Inc Teju Cole's Open City Chika Unigwe's On Black Sisters Street Lola Shoneyin's The Secret Lives of Baba Segi's Wives and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie's The Thing Around Your Neck The texts interpret contemporary corruption and other unspeakable social malaise together they point to the exciting future of Nigerian literature which has always been defined by its daring creativity and inventive expressive modes Even conventional storytelling strategies receive revitalizing energies in these angst driven narratives This book will be of interest to students and researchers of contemporary African literature Sociology Gender and women s studies and post colonial cultural expression more broadly The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Re-Inventing the Postcolonial (in the) Metropolis Cecile Sandten, Annika Bauer, 2016-09-27 The notion of the postcolonial metropolis has gained prominence in the last two decades both within and beyond postcolonial studies Disciplines such as sociology and urban studies however have tended to focus on the economic inequalities class disparities and other structural and formative aspects of the postcolonial metropolises that are specific to Western conceptions of the city at large It is only recently that the depiction of postcolonial metropolises has been addressed in the writings of Suketu Mehta Chris Abani Amit Chaudhuri Salman Rushdie Aravind Adiga Helon Habila Sefi Atta and Zakes Mda among others Most of these works probe the urban specifics and physical and cultural topographies of postcolonial cities while highlighting their agential capacity to defy appropriate and abrogate the superimposition of theories of Western modernity and urbanism These ASNEL Papers are all concerned with the idea of the postcolonial in the metropolis from various disciplinary viewpoints as drawn from a great range of cityscapes spread out over five continents The essays explore on the one hand ideas of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation and on the other the possibility of transforming reinventing and reconfiguring the postcolonial condition in and through literary texts and visual narratives In this context the volume covers a broad spectrum of theoretical and thematic approaches to postcolonial and metropolitan topographies and their depictions in writings from Australia and New Zealand South Africa South Asia and greater Asia as well as the UK addressing issues such as modernity and market economies but also caste class and social and linguistic aspects At the same time they reflect on the postcolonial metropolis and postcolonialism in the metropolis by concentrating on an urban imaginary which turns on notions of spatial subdivision and inequality political repression social discrimination economic exploitation and cultural alienation as the continuing postcolonial condition NIGERIA - GIANT OF AFRICA Wale Owoeye,2025-02-20 NIGERIA GIANT OF AFRICA pays homage to the greatness of the most popular nation on the black continent Capturing in ten chapters what makes Nigeria a great nation of achievers explore the origins politics structure special places stellar personalities and important milestones of Nigeria as it has evolved in the last 60 years A special dedication to all Nigerian youths worldwide who believes in the future greatness of Nigeria be inspired to discover and celebrate the giant in you Postcolonial Imagination and Moral Representations in African Literature and Culture Chielozona Eze,2011-01-01 Following in the footsteps of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart the tenor of the postcolonial African culture has been justifiably anti imperialist In the 21st century however there has been a gradual but certain shift away from the write back discourse paradigm towards more integrative globally inflected cultural interpretive models in Africa This book celebrates the emergence of new interpretive paradigms such as in African philosophy gender studies and literature Postcolonial Imaginations and Moral Representations in African Literature and Culture Chielozona Eze,2011-12-16 The postcolonial African culture as it is discoursed in the academia is largely influenced by Africa's response to colonialism To the degree that it is a response it is to considerably reactive and lacks forceful moral incentives for social critical consciousness and nation building Quite on the contrary it allows especially African political leaders to luxuriate in the delusions of moral rectitude imploring at will the evil of imperialism as a buffer to their disregard of their people This book acknowledges the social and psychological devastations of colonialism on the African world It however argues that the totality of African intellectual response to colonialism and Western imperialism is equally if not more damaging to the African world In what ways does the average African leader indeed the average African judge and respond to his world How does he conceive of his responsibility towards his community and society The most obvious impact of African response to colonialism is the implicit search for a pristine innocent paradigm in for instance literary philosophical social political and gender studies This search has its own moral implication in the sense that it makes the taking of responsibility on individual and social level highly difficult Focusing on the moral impact of responses to colonialism in Africa and the African Diaspora this book analyzes the various manifestations of delusions of moral innocence that has held the African leadership from the onerous task of bearing responsibility for their countries it argues that one of the ways to recast the African leaders responsibility towards Africa is to let go on the one hand the gaze of the West and on the other of the search for the innocent African experience and cultures Relying on the insights of thinkers such as Frantz Fanon Wole Soyinka Kwame Anthony Appiah Achille Mbembe and Wolfgang Iser this book suggests new approaches to interpreting African experiences It discusses select African works of fiction as a paradigm for new interpretations of African experiences      Queens of Afrobeat Dotun Ayobade, 2024-06-25 In Queens of Afrobeat the women of Afrobeat music a unique blend of jazz soul highlife and West African rhythms are finally given the recognition they deserve This extensive study takes a multifaceted view of the storied lives of the women behind Fela Kuti s activist music Dotun Ayobade s wide ranging research pulls from interviews with surviving queens ethnographic narratives the exploration of newspaper archives and close readings of album covers photographs and promotional materials to help us see and understand the women who surrounded Fela Kuti on stage and in everyday life Not only were these artists crucial performers and backup singers for Kuti s most important compositions they also played key roles in his activism and campaigns of social protest against the Nigerian government in the 1970s Drawing on previously untapped material Queens of Afrobeat weaves together an intricate narrative of women s participation in popular music The stories of these remarkable women transform and uniquely personalize our understanding of the politics and performance of one of the major modern musical traditions in Africa

Everything Is Sampled Akin Adesokan, 2023-03-28 Everything Is Sampled examines the shifting modes of production and circulation of African artistic forms since the 1980s focusing on digital culture as the most currently decisive setting for these changes Drawing on works of cinema literature music and visual art Akin Adesokan addresses two main questions First given the various changes that the institutions producing African arts and letters have undergone in the past four decades how have the representational impulses in these forms fared in comparison with those at work in pervasively digital cultures Second how might a long view of these artistic forms across media and in different settings affect our understanding of what counts as art as text as authorship Immersed in digital culture African artists today are acutely aware of the media saturated circumstances in which they work and actively bridge them by making ethical choices to shape those circumstances Through an innovative development and analysis of five modes of creative practice curation composition adaptation platform and remix Everything Is Sampled offers an absorbingly complex yet nuanced approach to appreciating the work of several generations of African writers directors and artists No longer content to just fill a spot in the relay between the conception and distribution of a work these artists are now also quick to view and reconfigure their works through different modes of creative practice

Ariel , 2017      Ethics and Human Rights in Anglophone African Women s Literature Chielozone Eze, 2016-12-14 This book proposes feminist empathy as a model of interpretation in the works of contemporary Anglophone African women writers The African woman s body is often portrayed as having been disabled by the patriarchal and sexist structures of society Returning to their bodies as a point of reference rather than the postcolonial ideology of empire contemporary African women writers demand fairness and equality By showing how this literature deploys imaginative shifts in perspective with women experiencing unfairness injustice or oppression because of their gender Chielozone Eze argues that by considering feminist empathy discussions open up about how this literature directly addresses the systems that put them in disadvantaged positions This book therefore engages a new ethical and human rights awareness in African literary and cultural discourses highlighting the openness to reality that is compatible with African multi ethnic multi racial and increasingly cosmopolitan communities The Diary of a Desperate Naija Woman in the Year 2011 Bola Essien-Nelson,2012-05-16 The Diary of a Desperate Naija Woman in the Year 2011 is collection of random blogs written by Bola Essien Nelson giving the reader an insight into her daily life It captures in her own unique conversational manner the soars and dips the losses and the victories the whoops of joy and the frustrated cries of defeat and pain of an ordinary woman desperately chasing after her extraordinary God Bola hopes that as you read this book the words you encounter will make you smile a little laugh out loud a lot and maybe even tear up on occasion as you realise that you are not alone and that many of lifes experiences are universal She hopes that you will read and come to a deeper understanding of the incredibly intense love God has for you and that this realisation will birth a new hunger in your belly to chase after God and to do so desperately

Gendered Violence and Human Rights in Black World Literature and Film Naomi Nkealah,Obioma Nnaemeka,2021-03-29 This book investigates how the intersection between gendered violence and human rights is depicted and engaged with in Africana literature and films The rich and multifarious range of film and literature emanating from Africa and the diaspora provides a fascinating lens through which we can understand the complex consequences of gendered violence on the lives of women children and minorities Contributors to this volume examine the many ways in which gendered violence mirrors expresses projects and articulates the larger phenomenon of human rights violations in Africa and the African diaspora and how in turn the discourse of human rights informs the ways in which we articulate interrogate conceptualise and interpret gendered violence in literature and film The book also shines a light on the linguistic contradictions and ambiguities in the articulation of gendered violence in private spaces and war This book will be essential reading for scholars critics feminists teachers and students seeking solid grounding in exploring gendered violence and human rights in theory and practice
