The Shaping Of Modern China Hudson Taylor S Legacy:

The shaping of modern China Anthony James Broomhall, 2005 China is poised to play a most significant role in the third millennium This authoritative history by Dr Broomhall traces the influence of Protestant and Catholic missions and the work of the United Bible Societies during the nineteenth century on the development of modern day China Whereas previous historians in this field had worked mainly from secondary sources Dr Boomhall drew on the first hand observations most significantly by his great uncle James Hudson Taylor founder of the China Inland Mission who was described by the historian K S Latourette as one of the four or five most influential foreigners who came to China in the mid nineteenth century Dr J A Broomhall 1911 1994 worked as a missionary doctor among the Nosu in southwest China and the Mangyan in the Phillipines His devotion to the Nosu is epitomized in the fact that just hours before he died he received news that the provincial government in his beloved Nosuland had just given permission for the agency Medical Services International to work there it was as if he had been waiting to hear that before he could depart in peace Dr Broomhall's other books are Strong Tower 1947 Strong Man's Prey 1953 on his work among the Nosu Fields for Reaping 1954 on his work in the Philippines and Time Builders of the Chinese Church G. Wright Doyle, 2015-01-29 From 1807 when the first Protestant for Action 1965 missionary arrived in China to the 1920s when a new phase of growth began thousands of missionaries and Chinese Christians labored often under very adverse conditions to lay the groundwork for a solid healthy and self sustaining Chinese church Following an Introduction that sets the scene and surveys the entire period Builders of the Chinese Church contains the stories of nine leading pioneers seven missionaries and two Chinese Here we meet Robert Morrison the heroic translator Liang Fa the first Chinese evangelist missionary scholar James Legge J Hudson Taylor founder of the China Inland Mission converted opium addict Pastor Hsi Overcomer of Demons Griffith John and Jonathan Goforth both indefatigable preachers and the idealistic advocates of education and reform W A P Martin and Timothy Richard Readers will be inspired by their courage devotion and sheer perseverance in arduous work and will gain an understanding of the roots of the two branches of today s Chinese Protestantism Reaching Chinese Worldwide Wright Doyle, 2015-03-25 Reaching Chinese Worldwide introduces the many ways in which Christians may communicate the truth and love of God in Christ to Chinese around the world Drawing upon four decades of reading and experience the author first lays a biblical foundation for cross cultural witness then briefly explores the various facets of ministry among Chinese Preparation Presence Proclamation Points of Contact Perfection of Believers Participation in the Body of Christ Performance of Good Works and Partnering with God This nearly comprehensive survey contains both fundamental principles and practical suggestions useful for all those wanting to make a Christian impact on China Henan Paul Hattaway, 2022-12-08 God's Mighty Acts in China In The China Chronicles Paul Hattaway draws on more than thirty years experience in China and numerous interviews with church leaders to provide insight into how the Living God brought about the largest revival in the history of Christianity With more than 18 million believers the largest number in any province in China Henan has emerged as the Christian heart and soul of the world's most populated country In this book the fifth in the series Hattaway records the many attempts to reach the people of Henan with the gospel The China Chronicles Series Book 1 Shandong Book 2 Guizhou Book 3 Zhejang Book 4 Tibet Book 5 Henan Book 6 Through the Valley of the Shadow Linda Banks, Robert Banks, 2019-10-10 This compelling collection tells five stories of young Australian women who served in times of armed conflict in early twentieth century China These courageous missionaries lived in the midst of pre Boxer uprisings the Republican revolution clashes between regional warlords Japanese occupation during World War II and civil war between Nationalists and Communists Suffering deprivation and hardship with the Chinese people they were shot at and bombed endured capture and imprisonment and risked their lives to save others Some were even killed Working in villages hospitals schools universities orphanages and refugee centers these women helped shape the emergence of modern China In partnership with local people they helped raise the status of women and develop educational medical and welfare institutions that exist to this day Based on thorough first hand research visits to various sites in China and including a number of historic photos this book is written for anyone interested in the lives of people who made a difference to the world around them Live to Be Forgotten Patrick Fung, 2024-07-31 The China Inland Mission CIM founded by James Hudson Taylor 1832 1905 has been a major focal point in the research of the history of Christian missions in modern China Yet there has been a dearth of attention given to Taylor's successor Dixon Edward Hoste 1861 1946 Hoste led the CIM through some of their most tumultuous periods believing that the Chinese church would one day grow by itself without the dependence on foreign missionaries In this important study Dr Patrick Fung examines the life and work of Dixon Edward Hoste in his thirty five years as general director of the CIM Hoste's faithful friendship with the Chinese church never wavered and this study demonstrates how we can learn from his leadership exemplifying a model of servanthood Bringing fresh insights to this field of research Dr Fung shows us how the committed work of Hoste should be duly recognized as an integral part of the indigenous movement of modern Chinese Christianity Love Lost for the Cause of Christ Will Brooks, 2018-08-15 In many ways sacrifice is a prerequisite for obeying the Great Commission When we examine the lives of missionary heroes we immediately notice their willingness to sacrifice comforts that contemporary believers consider necessities One of these areas of sacrifice was in their love lives In different ways the three missionaries discussed in this book willingly gave up the opportunity of true love for the sake of advancing the gospel into unengaged areas Embracing Christ's command to deny oneself Luke 9 23 these believers gave up the chance of earthly happiness for the Finding Pieces of the Puzzle Ronald A. N. Kydd, 2011-06-10 Climate change Radical politics sake of heavenly reward National debt Globalization What do Christians have to say to the big questions we all face Whatever they try to say they will be seriously handicapped if they do not know their own story Finding Pieces of the Puzzle will fill the knowledge gap It breaks away from the usual manner in which history is written Here is a sweeping overview of the story of Christianity that takes the reader to parts of the world seldom visited that watches as the message of Christ encounters cultures as different as ninth century Persia and sixteenth century Kongo The story is carried from the first to the twenty first century by a series of mini biographies a young woman facing martyrdom a boy from a little French town who becomes Pope and launches an army an African American who uses a successful international trade network to combat slavery The glory the confusion the shame the holiness of Christianity are all here As the pieces are slipped into place the puzzle begins to make sense Watching Christians of the past face their challenges helps us understand who modern Christians really are Church Eugene Bach, Brother Zhu, 2014-09-01 The Chinese house church is one of the most misunderstood and controversial subjects in Christian world missions today Questions about it abound such as How did it start How does it work How is it led Why does it continue to experience revival Is it necessary now that China has extended religious freedoms Much of the confusion is caused by the Chinese government which deceives journalists and foreign missionaries with promises of religious freedom that are never kept The truth is the house churches of China are growing at a phenomenal rate Never in the history of the world have so many people in such a short time left one belief system for another without a hostile revolution Lives in China are being transformed daily by the gospel of Jesus Christ and the display of His miraculous power The Underground Church demystifies the Chinese house church movement with real life examples and personal testimonies from Chinese Christians The movement sunique characteristics both good and bad are addressed as well as how they have led to the church's astonishing growth Read and be amazed at what God is doing in China A Camaraderie of Confidence John Piper, 2016-04-14 In his seventh book in The Swans Are Not Silent series John Piper explores the lives of Charles Spurgeon Hudson Taylor and George M ller Each of these men was known for extraordinary faith in God and untiring service to others Each of them continues to motivate and inspire God's people even today Rooted in their nineteenth century British context these three giants encouraged one another in their ministries Spurgeon in the church M ller in orphan care and Taylor in world missions Even through intense adversity the lives of each of these men display their shared confidence in the power of God and their love for his glory and goodness As you read these stories may you be inspired to hold fast to the promises of God as you press on in commitment to Christ's mission Part of the The Swans Are Not Silent series

Cassell, 2004-03-25 This is a and why they are important revised and expanded edition of a classic in palliative medicine originally published in 1991 With three added chapters and a new preface summarizing our progress in the area of pain management this is a must hve for those in palliative medicine and hospice care The obligation of physicians to relieve human suffering stretches back into antiquity But what exactly is suffering One patient with metastic cancer of the stomach from which he knew he would shortly die said he was not suffering Another someone who had been operated on for a mior problem in little pain and not seemingly distressed said that even coming into the hospital had been a source of pain and not suffering With such varied responses to the problem of suffering inevitable questions arise Is it the doctor's responsibility to treat the disease or the patient And what is the relationship between suffering and the goals of medicine According to Dr Eric Cassell these are crucial questions but unfortunately have remained only queries void of adequate solutions It is time for the sick person Cassell believes to be not merely an important concern for physicians but the central focus of medicine With this in mind Cassell argues for an understanding of what changes should be made in order to successfully treat the sick while alleviating suffering and how to actually go about making these changes with the methods and training techniques firmly rooted in the doctor's relationship with the patient Dr Cassell offers an incisive critique of the approach of modern medicine Drawing on a number of evocative patient narratives he writes that the goal of medicine must be to treat an individual s suffering and not just the disease In addition Cassell's thoughtful and incisive argument will appeal to psychologists and psychiatrists interested in the nature of pain and suffering
