Stan Purdum, Elaine M. Ward, Pamela J. Abbey, 2003-06 Here is a practical collection of thoughtful material to help you celebrate several special occasions during the fall and winter months Rally Day Reformation Sunday All Saints Day Thanksgiving Advent and Youth Sunday Included are The Saga Of Bobby Wildgoose a service and sermon specifically tailored for the fall kick off of Sunday school and commissioning of new Sunday school teachers The message relates the inspirational story of the beginnings of the Sunday school movement illustrating the difference that one person can make in the lives of young people Facing The 21st Century With A 16th Century Faith a message and service for Reformation Sunday that examines what motivated Martin Luther in his disagreements with the established church and suggests that Luther's ideas about the authority of the Bible the priesthood of all believers and justification by faith alone remain the durable bedrock of our Christian faith today Running With The Cloud a stirring All Saints Day sermon and service reminding us that we who are living are only a small segment of the church universal and noting that we can draw great strength from the lives of the saints who have gone before us A Solid Place To Stand a Thanksgiving message and service that explores how the Bible's promise of God's presence with us gives us a firm foundation to base our lives on The Measure Of A Man A Heart Prepared Night Watch and Tidings a set of four first person monologue sermons for Advent that tell the old old story with a twist We see the birth of the Christ Child unfold through the eyes of Joseph the innkeeper's wife a shepherd and an angel Key Advent themes such as watching preparation and righteous action are raised as each character struggles to make sense of extraordinary events A Youth Sunday worship service with a charming children's story honoring the presence and participation of the church's young people The service celebrates their fresh vision and courage in risking praying and creating the future Stan Purdum is the pastor of Centenary United Methodist Church in Waynesburg Ohio He is also the editor of the preaching journal Emphasis and has written extensively for both the religious and secular press Purdum is the author of Roll Around Heaven All Day and Playing In Traffic both accounts of his long distance bicycle journeys as well as New Mercies I See CSS a collection of parish stories revealing God's grace Pamela J Abbey is a United Methodist minister whose early working years were spent in professional theater She is currently the pastor of Concord United Methodist Church in Concord California and has previously served three other congregations in northern California Abbey holds degrees in theater from the University of Indianapolis BA and the University of Minnesota MA as well as an MDiv degree from Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley California Elaine M Ward is a storyteller writer preacher who served for nearly twenty years as Minister of Children at University Park United Methodist Church in Dallas Texas She is a graduate of Capital University Union Theological Seminary New York City and Lancaster Theological Seminary where she was writer in residence for seven years Now a resident of Austin Texas Ward is the author of Asking For Wonder And The Sea Lay Down

Alleluia and Story Time At The Altar CSS as well as Love In A Lunchbox Poems And Parables For Children s Worship Abingdon The Boy and the Sunday School John L. Alexander,2022-09-15 In The Boy and the Sunday School John L. Alexander crafts a poignant exploration of faith and childhood through the lens of a young boy s interactions with his local Sunday school The narrative unfolds with a rich tapestry of characters and vivid imagery reflecting both the innocence of youth and the complexities of religious teachings Alexander employs a captivating lyrical prose style that captures the emotional turbulence of growing up within a religious framework juxtaposing the joys of community with the challenges of personal belief Set against the backdrop of a small town church the story resonates with themes of belonging curiosity and moral development placing it in the context of American literary traditions that grapple with spirituality and adolescence John L. Alexander s upbringing in a diverse spiritual environment profoundly influenced his literary voice and thematic choices As a scholar of religious studies and a former Sunday school teacher he intertwines personal experience with fictional narrative drawing on historical and social contexts that illuminate the struggles and triumphs of faith formation in youth His unique perspective allows readers to appreciate the complexities of growing up in a faith driven community The Boy and the Sunday School is an essential read for anyone interested in the interplay of faith childhood and culture Alexander s nuanced portrayal of a young boy s quest for understanding will resonate with readers across generations encouraging reflection on their own experiences with belief and belonging This beautifully crafted narrative is not merely a story it is an invitation to explore the rich tapestry of youth and spirituality International Journal of Religious Education,1939 Air Force Chaplains United States. Air Force. Office of the Chief of Chaplains,Daniel B. Jorgensen,1991 Lydia Hosto Niebuhr John Clifford Helt,2024-05-09 This biography is about an immigrant s daughter who remained in the shadows of her father husband sons and daughter But it is also about the theological tradition German Evangelical Pietism that shaped her and that she helped to shape That tradition is also hidden or buried for its tendency to embarrass modern sensitivities As such it remains deeply misunderstood Grounded in the history of the Prussian Union and the pietism of the free mission houses of Germany it is evangelical in a way that is unrecognizable and bears little resemblance to the evangelicalism of the twenty first century In its pietism it exudes an irenic approach to theological and doctrinal differences in a way that is altogether misunderstood It is focused on peacemaking and deeds of loving and just action in the world rather than theological precision The sad history of this tradition is that like the story of Lydia both have been buried in the religious landscape of twentieth century American Protestantism It is time that the story of Lydia Hosto Niebuhr be emancipated from a church history that has minimized the story of many of its most important giants simply because they were born at a time when their stories were less valued than the men they supported and the sons they birthed and nurtured in the church The biography of Lydia Hosto Niebuhr corrects and recalls what has been buried and hidden and in doing so offers an alternative to the polarization of the political and religious fields of the United States Poor-- But Very, Very Rich

Ruth Lott,2012 Lewis C. Sheafe Douglas Morgan,2010 Born Just as the Civil War Began Lewis Sheafe grew to manhood at a pivotal moment in American history But instead of racial equality the nation offered its freed slaves further oppression and injustice Sheafe strong willed dynamic and seemingly tireless had but two main objectives Uplift his people spiritually and socially and consistently adhere to biblical principle in all aspects of life His thirst for truth led him first to the Baptists where he became both an eloquent minister and a prominent leader of the Black community Then his poor health led him to Battle Creek Sanitarium where he encountered Seventh day Adventism Sheafe saw in the Adventist message the tenets of race relations he already championed and he embraced it wholeheartedly He was sent to lead the Black work in Washington D C in 1902 and his evangelistic campaigns drew standing room only crowds of both Black and White listeners But during his turbulent years of Adventist ministry he and church leaders could not agree on how to apply biblical principles of racial equality The conflict eventually proved fatal to his ties with the denomination In this gripping biography Douglas Morgan pieces together the life of this forgotten leader whose story sheds light on the reason that no lasting separate Black Adventist denomination ever formed Book jacket The Pastor As Church Leader and Educator Herbert W. Byrne,2006-10
