A Christian Theology of the Cross Allen George, 2010-07-29 A CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY OF THE CROSS presents three basic standards for discussing the subject and object God. It underscores the connection between God's approval of Abel's offering and the establishment of the priesthood and names Genesis 4:7 as the foundation of the principal doctrines of Christian Salvation. It stresses the importance of Christian freedom and argues that the doctrine of existentialism is rooted in Genesis 4:9b. This book speaks directly to those who are spiritually hungry and thirsty for the Word of God in the twenty-first century. The reader will discover that the author is an analytical thinker. George asserts that the ambiguities of Abel's offering don't negate the concept of his priesthood. He champions the belief that the doctrine of the universality of salvation is a crucial divide between Judaism and Christianity. He insists that the Gospel demands that Christians renounce their hate and intolerance. Barnes' Notes on the NT (Barnes) Albert Barnes, Verse by verse the author covers the entire New Testament carefully and understandably explaining every verse and offering a practical application for Christian living.

Divine Truth or Human Tradition? Patrick Navas, 2011-07-07 In Divine Truth or Human Tradition the author critically examines the viewpoints and Scripture expositions of prominent evangelical scholars and apologists including Dr. James R. White, author of The Forgotten Trinity; Dr. John MacArthur, President of The Master's Seminary; Wayne Grudem, author of the widely read Systematic Theology; Robert Morey, author of The Trinity: Evidence and Issues; Robert L. Reymond, author of A New Systematic Theology of the Christian Faith; and others. According to what has long been considered mainstream Christian orthodoxy, the doctrine of the Trinity, the idea that the one God of the Bible is a singular being made up of three coequal and coeternal persons, is not only central to the Christian faith but even necessary for one to accept in order to be counted as a true Christian and be saved. Such a demand on a Christian's faith has come across as strange and perplexing to many, especially so in light of the fact pointed out by one respected Trinitarian: The Trinity is not clearly or explicitly taught anywhere in Scripture yet it is widely regarded as a central doctrine indispensable to the Christian faith. In this regard it goes contrary to what is virtually an axiom that is a given: a self-evident truth of biblical doctrine, namely that there is a direct correlation between the scriptural clarity of a doctrine and its cruciality to the faith and life of the church. Millard J. Erickson, God in Three Persons, p. 11. Emphasis added. Understandably, this fact has raised questions in the minds of Christians and truth seekers alike ever since the doctrine was first articulated in the late 4th century. Many Christians have wondered: How can a doctrine that is not clearly or explicitly taught in the Bible be necessary to accept in order to be a true practitioner of the Christian faith?

Revelation Is History Foretold Virgil Fleenor, 2010-03-31 The thesis of the author is that The Book of Revelation predicted precise events in history. V. J. Fleenor chronicles interesting events from Roman times to our present age as clear indication that symbols and signs of the Apocalypse can be deciphered if one is also a student of history.
