Challenging the Boundaries Işıl Baş, Donald C. Freeman, 2007 Challenging the Boundaries seeks to transcend the limits of literary genres and national cultures exploring both old and new frontiers in language and literature from an interdisciplinary multifaceted and challenging perspective Selected from the pathbreaking Istanbul conference of the Poetics and Linguistics Association these papers treat topics ranging from contemporary neurobiology's insights into the sources of poetic creativity to the cultural theories of Michel Foucault and Hélène Cixous and their literary consequences from the films of the American director David Lynch to those of the Senegalese artist Djibril Diop Mambety from the work of the Turkish novelist Orhan Pamuk to James Joyce's Ulysses and the stories of Virginia Woolf. This volume will be of particular interest to readers who might wish to become acquainted with the work of able young scholars from an exceptionally wide array of academic cultures and theoretical commitments. The authors whose essays appear in Challenging the Boundaries reflect in their approaches and subjects both the breadth and depth of the international academic community. PALA Papers is a series of volumes comprising essays selected and edited from presentations at the annual conferences of the Poetics and Linguistics Association, an international body of scholars whose work focuses on the interdisciplinary nexus of linguistics, discourse theory and literary analysis, criticism and theory. Politics of Memory Ana Lucia Araujo, 2013-05-07 The public memory of slavery and the Atlantic slave trade, which some years ago could be observed especially in North America, has slowly emerged into a transnational phenomenon now encompassing Europe, Africa and Latin America and even Asia, allowing the populations of African descent, organized groups, governments, non-governmental organizations and societies in these different regions to individually and collectively update and reconstruct the slave past. This edited volume examines the recent transnational emergence of the public memory of slavery, shedding light on the work of memory produced by groups of individuals who are descendants of slaves. The chapters in this book explore how the memory of the enslaved and slavers is shaped and displayed in the public space, not only in the former slave societies but also in the regions that provided captives to the former American colonies and European metropolises. Through the analysis of exhibitions, museums, monuments, accounts and public performances, the volume makes sense of the political stakes involved in the phenomenon of memorialization of slavery and the slave trade in the public sphere.
