Interart Poetics ,2025-02-03 In this anthology are gathered 28 essays devoted to the interrelations of the arts and media They present together the current state of the emerging field of Interart Studies The contributors Stephen Greenblatt Claus Cl ver Erika Fischer Lichte John Neubauer Steven Paul Scher Walter Bernhart Ulrich Weisstein Eric T Haskell Eric Vos Thomas Elsaesser among others are leading international scholars in the fields of Art History Literary Criticism Musicology Film Theatre and Media Studies In challenging ways they promote interdisciplinary strategies in the study of the traditional arts dance literature music painting sculpture theatre etc as well as of the modern media film TV video computer generated arts etc The essays collected engage in a broad perspective of topics approached from varying theoretical methodological or ideological viewpoints No single thread runs through the diversely conceived essays yet it is evident that what all contributors appear to envision is the importance today of investigations into the problems of what might be called the interart or intermedia discourse Aimed at university teachers scholars students and even artists this book will meet the demands from those interested in modern modes of interart and intermedia analysis Philosophical Problems of Modern Physics Peter Mittelstaedt, 2012-12-06 Professor Peter Mittelstaedt is a physicist whose primary concern is the foundations of current physical theories This concern has made him through his prolonged incisive and detailed examinations of the structures and overall characteristics of these theories into a philosopher of physics of contemporary physics to be precise of relativistic theories of space and time and of the logic of quantum mechanics in particular The present book which expounds his main ideas in these matters has seen four editions in German each including newer results as indeed does the present translation see the author's 1975 preface to the English translation Perhaps this is the place to repeat the author's chief problem and mention his own approach even though they are expounded in his Introduction How close is Mittelstaedt to Kant's understanding of science We are at liberty to choose a framework for thought a logic and a methodology prior to experience in the classic sense to think a priori yet we choose a framework so as to fit our empirical findings How is this done How may it be understood and justified This is obviously the question of all philosophies that evolve from and are in reaction to Kant's system Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country James Anthony Froude, John Tulloch, 1856 Contains the first printing of Sartor resartus as well as other works by Thomas Carlyle How Marriage Became One of the Sacraments Philip L. Reynolds, 2016-06-30 An indispensable guide to how marriage acquired the status of a sacrament This book analyzes in detail how medieval theologians explained the place of matrimony in the church and her law and how the bitter debates of the sixteenth century elevated the doctrine to a dogma of the Catholic faith Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents United States. Superintendent of Documents, 1924 February issue includes Appendix entitled Directory of United States Government periodicals and subscription publications September issue includes List of depository libraries June and December issues include semiannual index Samuel Hahnemann Richard Haehl, 2001 Samuel Hahnemann 1755-1843 founder of homoeopathic system of medicine Resources in Education, 1996 Reframing Translators, Translators as Reframers Dominique Faria, Marta Pacheco Pinto, Joana Moura, 2022-07-29 This collection explores the notion of reframing as a framework for better understanding the multi agent and multi level nature of the translation process generating new conversations in current debates on translational agency authority and power The volume puts forward reframing as an alternative metaphor to traditional conceptualizations and descriptions of translation which often position the process in such terms as transformation reproduction transposition and transfer Chapters in the book reflect on the translator figure as a central agent in actively moving a translated text to a new context and the translation process as shaped by different forces and subjectivities when translational agency comes into play The book brings together cross disciplinary perspectives for viewing translation through the lens of agents drawing on a wide range of examples across geographic settings historical eras and language pairs The volume integrates analyses from the translated texts themselves as well as their paratexts to offer unique insights into the different layers of mediation in translation and the new frame s created for those texts This book will be of interest to scholars in translation studies comparative studies reception studies and cultural studies Pro Rege Abraham Kuyper, Albert Gootjes, Jordan J. Ballor, Melvin Flikkema, 2017-03-22 Abraham Kuyper firmly believed that Jesus Christ was King not just of Christians but of the entire cosmos In volume two of Pro Rege he continues his analysis of the extent to which Christ rules first in the human heart then in the life of the church and continuing to the life of the Christian family Kuyper believed that it was nonsense to distinguish between life inside and outside of church walls Here he shows that although the Jesus kingship has been denied and denigrated Christ still exerts his power in the world through his people This new translation of Pro Rege created in partnership with the Abraham Kuyper Translation Society and the Acton Institute is part of a major series of new translations of Kuyper's most important writings The Abraham Kuyper Collected Works in Public Theology marks a historic moment in Kuyper studies aimed at deepening and enriching the church's development of public theology The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British
