Lessons Learned at Ground Zero Robert G. Gillio, 2002-09-08 In the chaotic weeks after September 11 2001 Dr Robert Gillio found himself at Ground Zero where as a pulmonary physician he answered the call to assist in the medical assessment and care of the brave rescue workers who were putting their lives on the line there He came to know and be inspired by not only those workers but also the hundreds of volunteers who tirelessly supported the rescue efforts in myriad ways Lessons Learned at Ground Zero is Dr Gillio s story of those he calls heroes and angels In Part One he recounts their sacrifices and dedication and is humbled to witness the triumph of the human spirit over astonishing adversity In Part Two he utilizes his experiences at Ground Zero to design a Call to Action which can be implemented by individuals schools communities and entire states He challenges each of us to be heroes and angels and to take charge of our own health and well being He offers practical tips to Prepare Prevent and Respond to ordinary and extraordinary events Finally he shares his vision for a Freedom Generation wherein personal responsibility technology and well formed agency coalitions merge to create a smarter safer healthier America for all of us

The Care of the Self and the Care of the Other Daniel Louis Wyche, 2025-05-20 What is the relationship between the ethical transformation of the self and the political transformation of the world This book explores the ways several twentieth century thinkers can help us relate the care of the self to the care of the other tracing their accounts of how and why practices intended to change an individual can help spur social and political change just as collective political action can produce a transformation of the self Daniel Louis Wyche examines the political implications of what he calls practices of ethical self change These include Pierre Hadot's notion of spiritual exercises what the French sociologist of labor Georges Friedmann calls the interior effort Michel Foucault's ethics of the care of the self what Martin Luther King Jr refers to as the work of self purification integral to direct action and Audre Lorde's claim that caring for herself constitutes a form of political warfare Wyche argues that these concepts can collectively provide an understanding that effaces distinctions between the care of the self the other and the community in a way that avoids reducing the political to the ethical Ambitious and nuanced The Care of the Self and the Care of the Other offers a framework for unifying individual moral action and collective political life

Families, Schools, Communities Learning Together, 2003 Aspects of Teaching and Learning in Secondary Schools Hilary Bourdillon, Anne Storey, 2013-07-04 This textbook heads the Open University's flexible PGCE Perspectives on Practice series which provides a practical illustration of skills knowledge and understanding required to teach in the secondary classroom As well as describing concepts and ideas the book provides a critical examination of some of the key issues and will encourage the reader to engage with the ideas and consider their views and beliefs This book accompanies each of the subject specific books in the series providing a valuable link between disciplines The series complements our other OU series Teaching in the Secondary School which addresses theoretical issues relating to teaching Together these two series provide a complete resource for students

Race Lessons Prentice T. Chandler, Todd S. Hawley, 2017-05-01 We hold that the mission of social studies is not attainable without attention to the ways in which race and racism play out in society past present and future In a follow up to the book Doing Race in Social Studies 2015 this new volume addresses practical considerations of teaching about race within the context of history geography government economics and the behavioral sciences Race Lessons Using Inquiry to Teach About Race in Social Studies addresses the space between the theoretical and the practical and provides teachers and teacher educators with concrete lesson ideas for how to engage learners with social studies content and race Oftentimes social studies teachers do not teach about race because of several factors teacher fear personal notions of colorblindness and attachment to multicultural narratives that stress assimilation This volume will begin to help teachers and teacher educators start the conversation around realistic and practical race pedagogy The chapters included in this volume are written by prominent social studies scholars and classroom teachers This work is unique in that it represents an attempt to use Critical Race Theory and inquiry pedagogy Inquiry Design Model to teach about race in the social science disciplines
