"There were a significant number of snow plow accidents causing damage to City and public property. Mrs. Willis trained the snow removal work force in safe driving practices, including how to carefully backup trucks. She established an obstacle course that City employee and outside contractor drivers had to navigate before they were allowed to operate snow removal equipment last winter, and as a result of her efforts nearly sixty drivers were trained and the accidents dropped from ten to zero, vehicle damage was reduced from nearly $6,000 to zero, and property damage from $10,000 to zero."
