School Resegregation John Charles Boger, Gary Orfield, 2009-11-13 Confronting a reality that many policy makers would prefer to ignore contributors to this volume offer the latest information on the trend toward the racial and socioeconomic resegregation of southern schools In the region that has achieved more widespread public school integration than any other since 1970 resegregation combined with resource inequities and the current accountability movement is now bringing public education in the South to a critical crossroads In thirteen essays leading thinkers in the field of race and public education present not only the latest data and statistics on the trend toward resegregation but also legal and policy analysis of why these trends are accelerating how they are harmful and what can be done to counter them What s at stake is the quality of education available to both white and nonwhite students they argue This volume will help educators policy makers and concerned citizens begin a much needed dialogue about how America can best educate its increasingly multiethnic student population in the twenty first century Contributors Karen E Banks Wake County Public School System Raleigh N C John Charles Boger University of North Carolina School of Law Erwin Chemerinsky Duke Law School Charles T Clotfelter Duke University Susan Leigh Flinspach University of California Santa Cruz Erica Frankenberg Harvard Graduate School of Education Catherine E Freeman U S Department of Education Jay P Heubert Teachers College Columbia University Jennifer Jellison Holme University of California Los Angeles Michal Kurlaender Harvard Graduate School of Education Helen F Ladd Duke University Luis M Laosa Kingston N J Jacinta S Ma U S Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Roslyn Arlin Mickelson University of North Carolina at Charlotte Gary Orfield Harvard Graduate School of Education Gregory J Palardy University of Georgia John A Powell Ohio State University Sean F Reardon Stanford University Russell W Rumberger University of California Santa Barbara Benjamin Scafidi Georgia State University David L Sjoquist Georgia State University Jacob L Vigdor Duke University Amy Stuart Wells Teachers College Columbia University John T Yun University of California Santa Barbara

Wake Karey Alison Harwood, 2024-05-17 Wake Why the Battle Over Diverse Public Schools Still Matters tells the story of the aftermath of the 2009 Wake County school board election in favor of neighborhood schools including the fierce public debate that ensued during school board meetings and in the pages of the local newspaper and the groundswell of community support that voted in a pro diversity school board in 2011 What was at stake in those years was the fundamental direction of the largest school district in North Carolina and the 14th largest in the U S Would it maintain a commitment to diverse schools and if so how would it balance that commitment with various competing interests and demands Through hundreds of published opinion articles and several in depth interviews with community leaders Wake examines the substance of that debate and explores the community s vision for public education

Resources in Education ,2001 Schooled and Sorted Thurston Domina,Andrew M. Penner,Emily K. Penner,2023-06-22 We tend to view education primarily as a way to teach students skills and knowledge that they will draw upon as they move into their adult lives However schools do more than educate students they also place students into categories such as kindergartner English language learner or honor roll student In Schooled Sorted Thurston Domina Andrew M Penner and Emily K Penner explore processes of educational categorization in order to explain the complex relationship between education and social inequality and to identify strategies that can help build more just educational systems Some educational categories have broadly egalitarian consequences Indeed Domina Penner and Penner argue that when societies enroll young people in school making them students they mark them as individuals who are worthy of rights But other educational categories reinforce powerful social categories including race gender and class and ultimately reproduce social and economic inequality in society Elite colleges tracked high schools and elementary school gifted programs provide not only different educational experiences but also create merit and inequality by sorting students into categories that are defined by the students who are excluded Schooled Sorted highlights that many of the decisions that define educational categories occur in school based committee meetings and other relatively local settings The local nature of these decisions provides many opportunities to define educational categories differently and for school communities to bring about change Schooled Sorted is an illuminating investigation into the ways sorting within schools translates into inequality in the larger world While some educational categorization may be unavoidable the authors suggest ways to build a more equitable system and thus a more equitable society

Silver Burdett Ginn Mathematics ,1999 Integrating Schools in a Changing Society Erica Frankenberg,Elizabeth DeBray,2011-11-15 In this comprehensive volume a roster of leading scholars in educational policy and related fields offer eighteen essays seeking to illuminate new ways for American public education to counter persistent racial and socioeconomic inequality in our society Contributors to Integrating Schools in a Changing Society draw on extensive research to reinforce the key benefits of racially integrated schools examine remaining options to pursue multiracial integration and discuss case examples that suggest how to build support for those efforts

Perspectives on Transitions in Schooling and Instructional Practice Susan E. Elliott-Johns,Daniel H. Jarvis,2013-12-06 Perspectives on Transitions in Schooling and Instructional Practice examines student transitions between major levels of schooling teacher transitions in instructional practice and the intersection of these two significant themes in education research Twenty six leading international experts offer meaningful insights on current pedagogical practices obstacles to effective transitions and proven strategies for stakeholders involved in supporting students in transition The book is divided into four sections representing the four main transitions in formal schooling Early Years Home Pre school and Kindergarten to Early Elementary Grades 1 3 Early Elementary to Late Elementary Grades 4 8 Late Elementary to Secondary Grades 9 12 and Secondary to Post Secondary College and University A coda draws together over arching themes from throughout the text to provide recommendations and a visual model that captures their interactions Combining theoretical approaches with practical examples of school based initiatives this book will appeal to those involved in supporting either the student experience both academically and emotionally or teacher professional learning and growth All Together Now Richard D. Kahlenberg, 2004-05-13 This provocative book asks a simple question since we know that middle class schools tend to work best why not give every child in America the opportunity to attend a public school in which the majority of students come from middle class households Economically integrated schools the author argues will do far more to promote achievement and equal opportunity than vouchers standards class size reduction or any of the other leading education proposals on the left and right that seek to make separate but equal schools work Building on two recent education trends the decline in racial desegregation as a legal tool and the movement toward greater public school choice All Together Now provides a blueprint for creating schools that educate children from various backgrounds under one roof Concurring with the concerns of voucher proponents about the unfairness of trapping poor kids in failing schools the book provides a practical viable and legally sound plan for promoting economic and racial integration among public schools Directory of Public Elementary and Secondary Education Agencies ,1998 The Program Evaluation Prism Martin Lee Abbott, 2010-11-23 This book is a comprehensive treatment of correlation regression techniques and using SPSS for interpretation of findings Striking a balance between detailed coverage and approachability this book provides a thorough treatment of the elements of regression and how they can be used with real research problems in program evaluation The author begins with a basic introduction to evaluation methodology and its ability to recognize embedded patterns of meaning in research data Subsequent chapters explore the statistical tools that can be applied by researchers and evaluators irrespective of the design that was used to generate this data Topics of coverage include correlation single predictor regression multiple correlation part and partial correlation detection of extreme scores multiple regression regression with continuous predictors coding of categorical data regression with categorical predictors methods for entering predictors in multiple regression and interaction in multiple regression Each chapter is presented in the same comprehensive format an introduction to the topic followed by a discussion of its primary elements illustrations of the data through numerous tables and figures SPSS procedures for designing the analysis SPSS output of the analysis and guidance on how to interpret findings from the analyses Discover

Note and Research Steps sections illustrate how using statistical processes can unveil unobserved patterns and assist readers with identifying such patterns in their own data. Real world analyses are used throughout the book utilizing meaningful social issues as a catalyst for teaching statistical procedures and a related Web site features additional data sets solutions and research projects for readers.

Challenges and Transitions in Education in Times of Crisis Purpuri, Leah, Gray, Sancha, 2024-07-26 The COVID 19 pandemic emerged as a disruptive force that exposed numerous challenges. From the sudden shift to virtual learning accompanied by technology disparities to issues of diversity equity and inclusion the crisis impacted students families educators and leaders alike. The social and emotional well being of learners took center stage and the need for academic rigor became even more pressing as learning gaps widened. Teachers faced the challenge of maintaining motivation while complications in students home lives became increasingly apparent. The involvement or lack thereof of families and communities in the education process added another layer of complexity. It is within this complex educational landscape that our book presents itself as a beacon of hope and transformation. Challenges and Transitions in Education in Times of Crisis is the solution to the unprecedented challenges that COVID 19 brought to the education sector. It goes beyond just analyzing the problems and delves deep into innovative and actionable solutions that have emerged from this crisis. The book provides a comprehensive overview of the educational environment from pre pandemic to post pandemic through a lens of opportunity. It is a guide for all stakeholders in education presenting evidence based strategies and best practices to address the complex issues facing our schools.

Hope and Despair in the American City Gerald Grant, 2011-03-04 In 1972 the U S Supreme Court handed down a 5 4 verdict in Milliken v Bradley thereby blocking the state of Michigan from merging the Detroit public school system with those of the surrounding suburbs This decision effectively walled off underprivileged students in many American cities condemning them to a system of racial and class segregation and destroying their chances of obtaining a decent education In Hope and Despair in the American City Gerald Grant compares two cities his hometown of Syracuse New York and Raleigh North Carolina in order to examine the consequences of the nation s ongoing educational inequities The school system in Syracuse is a slough of despair the one in Raleigh a beacon of hope Grant argues that the chief reason for Raleigh s educational success is the integration by social class that occurred when the city voluntarily merged with the surrounding suburbs in 1976 to create the Wake County Public School System By contrast the primary cause of Syracuse s decline has been the growing class and racial segregation of its metropolitan schools which has left the city mired in poverty Hope and Despair in the American City is a compelling study of urban social policy that combines field research and historical narrative in lucid and engaging prose The result is an ambitious portrait sometimes disturbing often inspiring of two cities that exemplify our nation s greatest educational challenges as well as a passionate exploration of the potential for school reform that exists for our urban schools today
